Alex Voorhoeve

On Desire Why We Want What We Want:

On Desire William Braxton Irvine, 2006 Irvine looks at what modern science can tell about desire what happens in the brain when one desires something and how animals evolved particular desires He suggests that people who can convince themselves to want what they already have dramatically enhance their happiness On Desire William B. Irvine, 2005-11-01 A married person falls deeply in love with someone else A man of average income feels he cannot be truly happy unless he owns an expensive luxury car A dieter has an irresistible craving for ice cream Desires often come to us unbidden and unwanted and they can have a dramatic impact sometimes changing the course of our lives In On Desire William B Irvine takes us on a wide ranging tour of our impulses wants and needs showing us where these feelings come from and how we can try to rein them in Spicing his account with engaging observations by writers like Seneca Tolstoy and Freud Irvine considers the teachings of Buddhists Hindus the Amish Shakers and Catholic saints as well as those of ancient Greek and Roman and modern European philosophers Irvine also looks at what modern science can tell us about desire such as what happens in the brain when we desire something and how animals evolved particular desires and he advances a new theory about how desire itself evolved Irvine also suggests that at the same time that we gained the ability to desire we were programmed to find some things more desirable than others Irvine concludes that the best way to attain lasting happiness is not to change the world around us or our place in it but to change ourselves If we can convince ourselves to want what we already have we can dramatically enhance our happiness Brimming with wisdom and practical advice On Desire offers a thoughtful approach to controlling unwanted passions and attaining a more meaningful life Performing a Christian Life Thomas D. Kennedy, 2019-11-13 We want to live good lives but determining what a good life is isn't easy especially if we want the lives we lead to be ours rather than somebody else's Tom Kennedy helps us see why it is hard to find our way when it comes to living well and what we can do about that Finding our way requires knowing who we are understanding ourselves and Christians because of their experience with God will understand themselves differently than others in at least some ways Kennedy explores that understanding and discovers that Christian encounters with God lead to beliefs about God human nature forgiveness values and loving well that have important implications for what we do and feel for how we should live In clear and familiar language and with probing questions he helps us think more carefully and deeply about our identities and what it should look like for us to live well Exploring Practical Philosophy: From Action to Values Dan Egonsson, Jonas Josefsson, Björn Petersson, Toni Rønnow-Rasmussen, 2018-10-24 This title was first published in 28 11 2001 The broad label practical philosophy brings together such topics as ethics and metaethics as well as philosophy of law society art and religion In practical philosophy theory of value and action is basic and woven into our understanding of all practical and ethical reasoning New essays from leading international philosophers illustrate that substantial results in the subdisciplines of practical philosophy require insights into its core issues the nature of actions persons values and reasons This anthology is force rather than a choice This book uncovers this ideological nature of competition and examines its effect on student learning teacher agency and equity within music education It considers ways in which music educators might reconsider the role of competition in their teaching practice and offers alternative frameworks for organizing school music In this book author Sean Robert Powell views competition as a microcosm of the wider neoliberal capitalist society in which subjects are interpellated in an antagonistic competitive field as market logic dictates a system of accountability reduction and audit culture Music teachers students and education administrators consciously and unconsciously reinforce replicate and sustain the competitive structure even if they do so while expressing a cynical disavowal Powell considers competition broadly including for example formal competitions between schools in which ensembles are given numerical scores and ranked festivals in which groups are given ratings based on pre given criteria state regional and national honor ensembles hierarchical arrangements within school music programs or simply the pursuit of social prestige reputation and ever higher performance standards Although the book provides examples from the competitive landscape of school music in the United States and especially Texas considered a hyper example of competitive culture Powell s analyses and discussions are relevant to readers in any context around the world Although the degree to which competitive achievement as an explicitly stated aim of instruction varies from program to program and location to location the realism of neoliberal capitalism and its effect on all aspects of education is a global phenomenon

Nothing Personal: Seeing Beyond the Illusion of a Separate Self Nirmala, 2010-01-16 Advaita and nondual teachings are about finding the Truth This Truth is not a dogma that you study it is the Truth about life the Truth about who you really are This Truth is discovered not learned It is discovered through sincerely inquiring Who am I What you discover is that who you are has nothing to do with self images or roles and everything to do with what you experience when you ask this question What you discover is that who you think of yourself as is just that a thought And beyond that thought is a great Mystery an experience of nothingness which is your true nature Nothing Personal leads you to the experience of your true nature and helps you explore its depth Through exposition questions and dialogues it brings you to a place of realization of the Truth you are that spacious Awareness in which everything appears including your thoughts and feelings Your thoughts and feelings do not define you but merely appear within Consciousness along with everything else This Consciousness is who you are Nothing Personal offers a gentle and persistent guide to seeing the underlying truth of your ultimate nature In this concisely edited collection of satsang talks and dialogues you are invited to honor the limitless love that is your true nature and to enjoy the sweet richness that is revealed when you give this Truth your undivided attention From the introduction Unlike most books this one is not meant to add to your knowledge or understanding It is about the Truth that cannot be spoken or written Although the Truth cannot be contained in this or any other book each word written here is intended to point you toward that Truth Many of the words and ideas may seem paradoxical or contradictory because what they point to is larger than our conceptual frameworks Many questions are asked which are not answered anywhere in the book Find out what the experience is like to ask yourself these questions even if they leave you emptier of knowledge and understanding In this emptying you just may discover what you are looking for The Truth is revealed when we allow ourselves to not know so I invite you to set aside all that you know for the time being and allow yourself to look with innocent eyes at what the words are attempting to unveil Take the time to experience the unspoken truth in each section before moving on to the next Resist the temptation to read these words with your mind which is likely to rush right past the Truth Allow the words to sink into your heart and reveal the truth of who you are      Tariff Hearings Before the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, Sixtieth Congress, 1908-1909 United States.
