On God Space Time:

On God, Space, and Time Akiva Vroman, 2019-01-22 For Akiva Jaap Vroman a day in the infinite past is nonsense All the days that have elapsed belong to a past of countable days they started on a first day a finite number of days ago Time began this first day It follows that an eternal past does not exist Vroman bases his reasoning on a simple mathematical law an infinite quantity remains the same infinite quantity if a finite quantity however large is subtracted from it On God Space and Time devotes itself to this proof On God Space and Time is rooted in the epistemological thinking of Immanuel Kant and Jean Piaget and the law of Leucippus and draws from the somewhat disparate fields of psychology physiology mathematics and physics

On God, Space, and Time Akiva J. Vroman, 1999 An infinite quantity remains the same infinite quantity if a finite quantity however large is subtracted from it On God Space and Time devotes itself to this proof

Decoding Spacetime Eric Carlson, 2010-11-08 This is a book about science religion and being yours and mine The study of being is called Ontology Our culture is dominated by a naturalist ontology The question is does ontology include a supernatural component Or is that idea a relic of our primeval past sort of like appendix and adenoids parts that can be excised from the body of our belief system The author argues for the primacy of the transcendent supernatural ontology by means of two books the book of nature and the book of transcendency the Bible each containing its own portion of the evidence Mr Carlson argues for the following The universe represents a small portion of God's ontology a small reality devoted to redemption The signet of redemption is the number 7 its appearance within chronology is deliberate instructive and compelling The Creation Week account reflects a two fold metaphor 1 space time itself was created to support the redemptive act and 2 mankind's history will unfold in a series of seven ages later quantified as millennia The interval between Adam and Abraham literally filled one redemptive bi millennium but the catastrophic effects of 3 realities the Cainite civilization Noah and the break up of Pangaea contribute to the appearance of myth as viewed by the uniformitarian geologist for whom catastrophes appear invisible The 2nd bi millennium Abraham to Messiah was also fulfilled exactly in redemptive time The termination of our age is imminent and dependent upon the chronology of Israel mankind's chronograph A detailed chronology of the history of Israel is flavored with the redemptive signet especially 70 yrs or 70 heptads of yrs By decoding Israel's history in redemptive time and employing the single concept of the favor of God the author derives a Biblical based proof that modern Israel is the same and identical state founded by Samuel in 1096 BC Three independent proofs of this foundational date are provided These proofs show that the Monarchy existed for exactly 511 yrs which period is exactly equal to 73 heptads Israel is an heptadic state The author concludes that the redemptive corollary to Israel's ontology is also proven we have actually entered the end times and the events associated with the last days will soon unfold Because the reality of Israel is visible to all it is apparent that the redemptive offer made to mankind is also real and visible such as that appearing in John 3:16 John 6:40 and Romans 10:9-13 There is much to learn about our world Start now Tomorrow may be too late

Ascension Stavan Narendra John, 2025-05-29 The ascension is a crucial doctrine integrally related to the incarnation. When it is underemphasized, it results in an impoverishment of our theology of Christ, the church, human beings, and eschatology. T. F. Torrance's theology offers a compelling vision and holistic doctrine of the ascension that, notwithstanding its flaws, deserves a careful and detailed examination. Torrance develops a holistic account of the ascension by considering the ontology, spatiality, and present ministry of the ascended Jesus. What results is a theological construction that affirms the ascended body of Christ and understands the Lord to be currently serving as our human representative in a ministry of priestly intercession, prophetic declaration, and ascended kingship. Torrance is able to do this without succumbing to literalism, space travel, demythologization, metaphorical reading, or Pelagianism, human effort-based sanctification, and glorification. This book interprets and then develops Torrance's theology of the ascension in critical dialogue with contemporary theological interlocutors.

Decoding Spacetime Eric Carlson, 2010-11-08 This is a book about science, religion, and being yours and mine. The study of being is called ontology. Our culture is dominated by a naturalist ontology. The question is: does ontology include a supernatural component? Or is that idea a relic of our primeval past, sort of like appendix and adenoids, parts that can be excised from the body of our belief system? The author argues for the primacy of the transcendent, supernatural ontology by means of two books: the book of nature and the book of transcendence, the Bible, each containing its own portion of the evidence. Mr. Carlson argues for the following: The universe represents a small portion of God's ontology, a small reality devoted to redemption. The signet of redemption is the number 7; its appearance within chronology is deliberate, instructive, and compelling. The Creation Week account reflects a two-fold metaphor: 1. space-time itself was created to support the redemptive act, and 2. mankind's history will unfold in a series of seven ages, later quantified as millennia. The interval between Adam and Abraham literally filled one redemptive bi-millennium, but the catastrophic effects of 3 realities—the Cainite civilization, Noah, and the break-up of Pangaea—contribute to the appearance of myth as viewed by the uniformitarian geologist for whom catastrophes appear invisible. The 2nd bi-millennium, Abraham to Messiah, was also fulfilled exactly in redemptive time. The termination of our age is imminent and dependent upon the chronology of Israel, mankind's chronograph. A detailed chronology of the history of Israel is flavored with the redemptive signet, especially 70 yrs or 70 heptads of yrs. By decoding Israel's history in redemptive time and employing the single concept of the favor of God, the author derives a Biblical-based proof that modern Israel is the same and identical state founded by Samuel in 1096 BC. Three independent proofs of this foundational date are provided. These proofs show that the Monarchy existed for exactly 511 yrs, which period is exactly equal to 73 heptads. Israel is an heptadic state. The author concludes that the redemptive corollary to Israel's ontology is also proven: we have actually entered the end times, and the events associated with the last days will soon unfold. Because the reality of Israel is visible to all, it is apparent that the redemptive offer made to mankind is also real and visible, such as that appearing in John 3:16, John 6:40, and Romans 10:9-13. There is much to learn about our world. Start now. Tomorrow may be too late      Sexual Subversions Elizabeth Grosz, 2020-09-02 Sexual Subversions introduces the works of three well known if not well read French feminists Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Micele Le Doeuff It provides a map of an area where there are few detailed discussion of the achievements of these difficult yet immensely rewarding writers In doing so this overview raises issues of general relevance to feminist research it participates in debates around the nature of feminist theory the relations feminist intellectuals have to male dominated knowledges and the strategies appropriate for developing non patriarchal autonomous or woman centred knowledges No book in French feminists would be complete without including the contributions of Kristeva and Irigaray The inclusion of Le Doeuff s work which brings a different perspective to bear on the question of sexual difference provides a counterbalance to literary appropriations of French feminism by Anglo American readerships Kristeva Irigaray and Le Doeuff are the focal points of this study precisely because each highlights the differences of the others revealing the frameworks to which the others are committed Nevertheless while these writers do not present a common political or theoretical position or form a school each addresses the question of women s autonomy from male definition affirms the sexual specificity of women seeks out a femininity women can use to question the patriarchal norms and ideals of femininity and rejects the preordained positions patriarchy allots to women      Transcendence and Spatiality of the Triune Creator Chan Ho Park, 2005 Since Augustine many philosophers and theologians have discussed the relation of God to time whereas the relation between God and space has been rarely discussed This book deals with the relationship of God to space Divine transcendence is one important aspect of the Christian God However God is also immanent in the world of space and time The author investigates the concept of divine spatiality and presents case studies of three modern theologians Torrance Pannenberg and Moltmann He also analyses divine spatiality by using Dyrness s three categories relationship agency and embodiment      The Tenseless Theory of Time W.L. Craig, 2013-03-09 he present book and its companion volume The Tensed Theory of Time a T Critical Examination are an attempt to adjudicate what one recent discussant has called the most fundamental question in the philosophy of time namely whether a static or a dynamic conception of the world is correct I had originally intended to treat this question in the space of a single volume but the study swelled into two I found that an adequate appraisal of these two competing theories of time requires a wide ranging discussion of issues in metaphysics philosophy of language phenomenology philosophy of science philosophy of space and time and even philosophy of religion and that this simply could not be done in one volume If these volumes succeed in making a contribution to the debate it will be precisely because of the synoptic nature of the discussion therein Too often the question of the nature of time has been prematurely answered by some philosopher or physicist simply because he is largely ignorant of relevant discussions outside his chosen field of expertise In these two complementary but independent volumes I have attempted to appraise what I take to be the most important arguments drawn from a variety of fields for and against each theory of time      The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Biography of the Spirit John Haughey,2015-03-01 Time Katinka Ridderbos,2002-05-16 Eight essays discussing the nature of time ideal for the general reader Creation and Humanity Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2015-04-14 A Human Creation W.R. Frederick,2019-02-01 A Human Creation challenges god belief under several disciplines History shows that humanity s need for the supernatural is rooted in the ancient past and that subsequent religious scriptures are poor proof of any god s existence wrought with myth fabrication and textual error Evolution is supported by the evidence not a divine intervention or design The brain your mind can make you a believer and society culture and power politics can enforce belief The physics of the universe show that there is no need for a god to arrive at today s reality while life s existence was a natural certainty All of this means that humans fabricated their gods to satisfy their needs and fears

Richard Swinburne Nicola Mößner,Sebastian Schmoranzer,Christian Weidemann,2013-05-02 Richard Swinburne is one of the most influential contemporary proponents of the analytical philosophy of religion He is above all a traditional theist i e he believes that there exists an eternal uncreated and immaterial perfect soul called God which is omnipotent omniscient perfectly free morally perfect and the creator and sustainer of the universe However his interests are very wide ranging He has written on almost every central theological and philosophical issue such as epistemology metaphysics theory of mind and ethics Swinburne is particularly well known for his perceptive defence of some would say time honoured others may prefer old fashioned philosophical doctrines During the M nstersche Vorlesungen 2007 students and faculty members from M nster entered into a skilful and interesting discussion concerning most of Swinburne s positions Hope and Community Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2017 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church's missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities      Soulsalsa

Leonard Sweet, 2009-09-13 Getting a Christian worldview is all the rage these days But how about a Christian worldlife Got one of those Leonard Sweet wants to show you the ins and outs of living an old fashioned faith in these newfangled times In his engaging symphonic thought bytes style Sweet invites you to Mezuzah your inverse Do dirt and do the dishes Cycle to church Give history a shove Cheer rivals from the bench Dance the salsa SoulSalsa unpacks biblical faith in ways that can change how you live in the real world You can be a man or woman who walks the ancient path of a disciple in the world of the future Because the NEW future is NOW and now is the time to practice the 17 Lifestyle Requirements for Membership in the Postmodern Body of Christ It's no longer enough to say Say Amen Somebody It's time to Dance the Salsa Everybody in a culture that desperately needs to see your moves      The Immortal Self Richard Wilde, 2010 The Immortal Self traces historical ideas of the self as developed by philosophers theologians neurophysiologists and scientists It includes explanations of quantum mechanics and Einstein's theory of relativity that are readable and understandable by the layperson It considers what science presently is capable of contributing to our many diverse concepts of what constitutes the self To this end The Immortal Self explores the brain its morphology and operation explores our concepts of time and looks at the metaphysical concepts of quantum physics The book also considers the paleontological and genetic evidence for the self Ideas of the self extend into the mists of human history and have been handed down through the ancient Greek philosophers and through the religious prophets and philosophers These ideas are collected and presented in an unbiased account for consideration by the reader Finally an empirical search for the self is suggested About the Author Richard E Wilde is Professor Emeritus of chemistry and biochemistry at Texas Tech University He is a member of the American Chemical Society and the American Physical Society He has published extensively in the areas of chemical physics and molecular spectroscopy He is author of The Many Faces of Jesus and co author with Surjit Singh of Statistical Mechanics Fundamentals and Modern Applications

The Divine Ecology Ian Mills, 2004      The Deep Metaphysics of Space Edward Slowik, 2016-10-12 This volume explores the inadequacies of the two standard conceptions of space or spacetime substantivalism and relationism and in the process proposes a new historical interpretation of these physical theories This book also examines and develops alternative ontological conceptions of space and explores additional historical elements of seventeenth century theories and other metaphysical themes The author first discusses the two main opposing theories of the ontology of space One known as substantivalism proposes space to be an entity that can exist independently of material things The other relationism contends that space is a relation among material things Readers will learn about specific problems with this dichotomy First Newton and Leibniz are often upheld as the retrospective forerunners of substantivalism and relationism But their work often contradicts the central tenets of these views Second these theories have proven problematic when transferred to a modern setting especially with regards to general relativity and the recent quantum gravity hypotheses The author details an alternative set of concepts that address these problems The author also develops a new classificational system that provides a more accurate taxonomy for the elements of all spatial ontologies This classification obtains successful analogies between Newton Leibniz and other natural philosophers with contemporary physical theories     The Varieties of Atheism David Newheiser,2022-12-09 The conversation around atheism is still dominated by the strident and combative voices of figures like Sam Harris Richard Dawkins Daniel Dennett and the now deceased Christopher Hitchens In bestselling books prominent columns and widely viewed lectures these commentators have claimed that religion is irrational unscientific morally corrosive and something that must be actively opposed Those who have tried to defend religion against these criticisms have tended to reproduce the idea that religion and atheism are competing theories about belief in divine beings But defining atheism narrowly in terms of belief makes it into an abstraction that misrepresents atheism as it actually exists There are other ways to imagine atheism and The Varieties of Atheism performs that imaginative work This collection offers an expansive account of atheism s diversity exploring what it has meant in the past and what it can mean in the future The essays highlight the contingency and ambivalence of basic categories like atheism and religion which are marked by the history of post Enlightenment debates over Judaism and Christianity The essays in this collection trace key themes and figures in these debates in conversation with early modern philosophy medieval theology and contemporary theory By clarifying the complex lines of affinity and tension between particular atheists and particular religious traditions The Varieties of Atheism opens new avenues for the study of secularity
