On Heroes and Uhuru Worship Ali A. Mazrui, 2013 Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H.

Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or African Intellectuals and the State of the Continent Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella Abidde, 2018-07-26 This festschrift is composed in honor of a distinguished scholar and Pan Africanist Professor Sulayman S Nyang whose career and intellectual pursuits spans more than 45 years much of it at Howard University Nyang s contributions to African affairs transcend the scope of the academic world as he served as First Secretary and Head of Chancery of the Gambian Embassy in Saudi Arabia from 1975 to 1977 and consultant to the World Bank and United Nations agencies In addition Professor Nyang served as the President of the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington DC and a member of the boards of many academic journals and organizations of Islamic Studies in the USA He has published copiously on a variety of issues affecting continental Africans Africans in the Diaspora and beyond He has published and collaborated on dozens of books and book chapters and more than 100 articles in referred journals Mau Mau Memoirs Marshall S. Clough, 1998 Clough history U of Northern Colorado analyzes 13 personal accounts by Kenyans in order to make a case for not only their historical value but their role in the struggle to define the importance of Mau Mau within Kenyan historiography and politics He argues that the recollections of the authors whose experiences ranged from organizing the secret movement to supplying the guerillas to active fighting to resistance in the British detention camps serve to refute both the British and Kenyan versions of the revolt Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Debating the African Condition Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, Willy Mutunga, 2004 Is Ali Mazrui a visionary or a vacuous intellectual Is he reactionary revolutionary or essentially a radical pragmatist These questions were the focus of a forum intended to interrogate Ali Mazrui s contributions over the last forty years or so of his career as an academic The questions themselves capture the magnitude of the polarisation among different sections of Mazrui s audiences generated by his often provocative propositions and prescriptions on a wide range of issues from the condition of the black woman to the destiny of the black race An Economic History of the Middle East and North Africa Charles Issawi, 2013-10-16 The economic history of the Middle East and North Africa is quite extraordinary This is an axiomatic statement but the very nature of the economic changes that have stemmed directly from the effects of oil resources in these areas has tended to obscure longterm patterns of economic change and the fundamental transformation of Middle Eastern and North African economies and societies over the past two hundred years In this study Professor Issawi examines and explains the development of these economies since 1800 focusing particularly on the challenge posed by the use and subsequent decline of Western economic and political domination and the Middle Eastern response to it The book begins with an analysis of the effects of foreign intervention in the area the expansion of trade the development of transport networks the influx of foreign capital and resulting integration into international commercial and financial networks It goes on to examine the local response to these external forces migration within to and from the region population growth urbanization and changes in living standards shifts in agricultural production and land tenure and the development of an industrial sector Professor Issawi discusses the crucial effects of the growth of oil and oil related industries in a separate chapter and finally assesses the likely gains and losses in this long period for both the countries in the area and the Western powers He has drawn on long experience and an immense amount of material in surveying the period and provides a clear and penetrating survey of an extraordinarily complex area

Nkrumah and Nyerere: Different approaches to continental unity Willie Shwari, This is an updated and expanded version of the original work What has been added does not change the work's central thesis But it provides more details than what is contained in the first edition on the different approaches taken by the two leaders in pursuit of continental unity under one government The author looks at two of Africa's most influential leaders in the post colonial era and how they differed in their quest for continental unity how they agreed on a number of issues vital to the well being of the continent and the common policies they pursued among other subjects of continental relevance The book is intended for members of the general public and students of African affairs

My Life as an African Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2009-08-08 This is an autobiographical work covering a wide range of subjects including a number of major events relevant to Africa and the African diaspora epistemological cultural economic and political created by colonialism and coloniality A sophisticated deployment of historical philosophical and political knowledge in combination with the equi primordial concepts of coloniality of power coloniality of being and coloniality of knowledge yields a comprehensive and truly refreshing understanding of African realities of subalternity How global imperial designs and coloniality of power shaped the architecture of African social formations and disciplined the social forces towards a convoluted postcolonial neocolonized paralysis dominated by myths of decolonization and illusions of freedom emerges poignantly in this important book What distinguishes this book is its decolonial entry that enables a critical examination of the grammar of decolonization that is often wrongly conflated with that of emancipation bold engagement with the intractable question of what and who is an African systematic explication of the role of coloniality in sustaining Euro American hegemony and unmasking of how the postcolonial is interlocked with the neocolonial paradoxically It is within this context that the postcolonial African state emerges as a leviathan and the postcolonial reality becomes a terrain of contradictions mediated by the logic of violence No doubt Sabelo Ndlovu Gatsheni's handling of complex concepts and difficult questions of the day is remarkable particularly the decoding and mixing of complex theoretical interventions from Africa and Latin America to enlighten the present without losing historical perspicacity To buttress the theoretical arguments detailed empirical case studies of South Africa Zimbabwe DRC and Namibia completes this timely contribution to African Studies Nkrumah Nyerere Senghor Lawrence E.K. Lupalo,

Politics and Post-Colonial Theory Pal Ahluwalia, 2012-12-06 This groundbreaking book makes sense of the complexities and dynamics of post colonial politics illustrating how post colonial theory has marginalised a huge part of its constituency namely Africa Politics and Post Colonial Theory traces how African identity has been constituted and reconstituted by examining issues such as negritude the rise of nationalism decolonisation The book also questions how helpful post colonial analysis can be in understanding the complexities which define institutions including the nation state civil society human rights citizenship Politics and Post colonial Theory bravely breaks down disciplinary boundaries Its radical vision will be essential reading for all those engaged in Politics post colonial studies and African studies Non-Aligned Movement

Summits Jovan Cavoški, 2022-05-19 Using newly declassified documents from Serbian British Indian Chinese Myanmar U S and Soviet archives Non Aligned Movement Summits shows how the Non Aligned Movement NAM gradually evolved into the third force of Cold War politics enveloping most of the post colonial and non bloc world Jovan Cavo ki follows the evolution of the NAM through its summits and other gatherings during which major political decisions pertaining to the destiny of the Third World were made These events were scrutinized by all major powers and had a corresponding effect on their policies From the Belgrade Conference in 1961 until 1989 all major Third World and non bloc nations met to demonstrate to the Eastern and Western Blocs that they were independent active and respected participants in world affairs Cavo ki shows how these summits were also closely related to events occurring in the relationship between the two blocs providing opportunities for non bloc actors to influence the global balance of power By moving the focus of 20th century international history away from the bloc nations and instead giving developing nations in Africa and Asia due attention this book provides a fresh perspective on Cold War history and fills a significant gap in the literature It is an important study for all students and scholars of the Cold War and international history Godfrey Mwakikagile: Biography of an Africanist David

Foreign Policy and Economic Dependence Neil R. Richardson,2014-08-27 In an era of increasing interdependence among nations the foreign policies of poor countries are becoming a subject of critical interest to scholars and the public alike Neil R Richardson adopts a political economy perspective to examine the foreign policy repercussions of international economic dependence Are dependent countries compliant in their foreign policies acquiescing to the preferences of the industrial giants on which they rely for foreign trade investment and aid revenues Or are they instead prepared to defy their dominant economic partners These are the major concerns of Richardson s rigorous investigation The book begins with a characterization of economic dependence and its possible impact on the foreign policy decisions of dependent governments Ideas from both interdependence and dependencia scholarship are extracted in order to explain the reliance of poor countries on their rich partners These economics are linked to the foreign policies of poorer countries by considering how the mechanisms of dependence may create pressures on foreign policymakers Several combinations of pressures are plausible and each set yields a differing expectation about their foreign policies The second part of the book is an empirical test of these foreign policy predictions for the years 1950 1973 Richardson analyzes the foreign policy behavior as reflected in certain votes in the United Nations General Assembly of a number of poor countries that are economically dependent on the United States to varying degrees The results suggest several surprising conclusions Contrary to one common assumption these mostly Latin American and Caribbean countries are not necessarily locked into a condition of perpetual dependence Richardson finds that the foreign policies of the economic dependencies are not easily manipulated by the United States Not only do annual changes in their external economic reliance fail to correspond to their U N voting behavior but the dependencies as a group are no longer clear voting allies of the United States after the late 1960s These and other results bear theoretical and policy implications that conclude the book Foreign Policy and Economic Dependence will be of interest to specialists in quantitative international relations and American foreign policy
