Kiarina Kordela,2017-10-06 A Kiarina Kordela steps beyond extant commentaries on Marx's theory of commodity fetishism from A Sohn Rethel to L Althusser Balibar Slavoj Žižek and others to show that in capitalism value is the manifestation of the homology between thought and being while their other aspect power is foreclosed and becomes the object of biopower Using monistic Marxian Lacanian structuralism as an alternative to dominant models from Plato and Kant to phenomenological accounts deconstruction and other contemporary approaches Kordela expertly argues that Marx's theory of commodity fetishism is a reformulation of the Spinozian thesis that thought mind and things bodies or extension are manifestations of one and the same being or substance Kordela's link between Spinoza and Marx shows that being consists of two aspects value and power the former leading to structuralist thought the latter becoming the object of contemporary biopower Epistemontology in Spinoza Marx Freud Lacan intervenes between two dominant lines of thought in the reception of Marx today on the one hand an approach that relates Marxian thought to psychoanalysis from a Hegelian dialectical perspective and on the other hand an approach that links Marxism to Spinozian monism at the total exclusion of Contemporary Political Play Rethinking Dramaturgical Structure examines the politics of contemporary political drama. It traces the origins of the contemporary British political play to the emergence of the idea of serious drama in the late 19th century through the work of Bernard Shaw and argues that a Shavian version of serious drama was inextricably linked to the social and political structures of British society at the time. While political drama is still often thought of as adhering to a Shavian model in which social issues are presented through a dialectical structure, Grochala argues that the different political structures of contemporary Britain give rise to formally inventive dramaturgies that are no less serious or political than their Shavian forebears. Through analysing the experimental dramaturgies of contemporary plays by playwrights including Caryl Churchill, Simon Stephens, Anthony Neilson, Debbie Tucker Green, and Mark Ravenhill, among others, it offers a set of new principles for understanding how a play functions politically and reveals how today the dramaturgical structure of a play is as political as its content. Edible People Christian Siefkes, 2022-09-13

While human cannibalism has attracted considerable notice and controversy, certain aspects of the practice have received scant attention. These include the connection between cannibalism and xenophobia, the capture and consumption of unwanted strangers. Likewise ignored is the connection to slavery: the fact that in some societies slaves and persons captured in slave raids could be and were killed and eaten. This book explores these largely forgotten practices and ignored connections while making explicit the links between cannibal acts, imperialist influences, and the role of capitalist trading practices. These are highly important for the history of the slave trade and for understanding the colonialist history of Africa. Women and Romance Laurie Langbauer, 2018-03-15

No detailed description available for Women and Romance. Women on Philosophy of Art Alison Stone, 2024-08-14. Women on Philosophy of Art is the first study of women's philosophies of art in long nineteenth-century Britain. It looks at seven women spanning the time from the Enlightenment to the beginning of modernism: They are Anna Barbauld, Joanna Baillie, Harriet Martineau, Anna Jameson, Frances Power Cobbe, Emilia Dilke, and Vernon Lee. The central issue that concerned them was how art related to morality and religion. Baillie and Martineau treated art as an agency of moral instruction, whereas Dilke and Lee argued that art must be made for beauty's sake. Barbauld, Jameson, and Cobbe thought that beauty and religion were linked, while other women believed that art and religion must be decoupled. Other topics explored are gender and genius, tragedy, literary realism, why we enjoy the sufferings of fictional characters, the hierarchy of the art forms, whether art can transcend its historical circumstances, and critical issues around the artistic canon. Examining the print culture that made these women's interventions possible, this book shows that these women were doing a particular kind of philosophy of art, which was interdisciplinary and closely tied to artistic criticism and practice. The book traces how these seven women influenced one another as well as engaging with their male contemporaries. But unlike their male interlocutors, these women have been unjustly left out of narratives about the history of aesthetics. By including these women, we can enrich and broaden our understanding of the history of philosophy of art. The Founder: Cecil Rhodes and the Pursuit of Power Robert I.

Rotberg,1988-10-20 A tall robust looking imposing figure Cecil John Rhodes was a man of many contradictions Rhodes the dreamy idealist called his copy of The Meditations of Marcus Aurelius his most precious possession while Rhodes the ruthless businessman firmly believed in the adage every man has his price He supported invidious racial laws in South Africa and invented and sponsored the world renowned Rhodes Scholarships Although a man of unprepossessing intellectual talents he became one of the leading figures in the English speaking world the confidant of Queen Victoria and Kaiser Wilhelm a man of vast wealth and worldwide influence Based on seventeen years of research this monumental volume written by a noted authority on Southern Africa offers the definitive biography of one of the most controversial figures of the nineteenth century Vividly capturing the life of a man who was truly larger than life Robert Rotberg explores Rhodes childhood and adolescence depicts his life in mining camps around Kimberley and the Witwatersrand traces the surreptitious stock buyouts and mergers that allowed Rhodes to gain control over ninety percent of the world's diamond production by age thirty five describes his campaigns against African populations that allowed him to establish Southern Rhodesia now Zimbabwe and Northern Rhodesia now Zambia and discusses the poorly planned disastrous raid on the Transvaal that destroyed Rhodes reputation The Founder illuminates a complex and fascinating life of both evil and good A Twisted Shade of Green Eloise Epps MacKinnon,2018-07-11 Love Conquers All Kali Mathias knew that being cursed with a beauty like hers it was less likely for a man's eye to want a second glimpse of her That is not until the day her eye rested upon Mr Glen Monroe the one man who would not easily be had A woman needed an exclusive invitation to taste the passion that awaited them inside Glen's empire It was a colorful world of green where a taste of love portrayed revenge deceit and lust and where a beautiful woman could partake of such pleasures Glen and Kali were both undergoing a broken heart at the hands of a twisted shade of green when they first met Glen got Kali and Kali got Glen Kali thought she would never be acceptable She was not slim enough not tall enough or pretty enough to please a man On the other hand Glen knew he was more than enough he was handsome and breathtaking at the same time He was more than enough for any woman to behold Regardless of that discord they both confusingly questioned their faith in God and opted for a doltish lifestyle Hers based on a lustful appetite his based on revenge Glen's faith was almost null to the point where he believed that all he had was enough to get him through life And Kali on the other hand had the notion God just wasn't working fast enough not quicker than her cash Glen and Kali were two lost people trying to survive in a world minus a heavenly net God They lost their way but God never forgot them He defeated the hands of Satan by refuting a pair of wrongful eyes from an unjust sight of Kali in the arms of another man God embodied Kali with a heart of compassion to forgive Glen's flaws and all Instead God turned one date between two total opposite hearts into one that required each other to be alive in the midst of any storm Also God taught both Glen and Kali a lesson He taught her to realize that not everything had a price tag not real love And he taught him that even love can conquer the grips of a heart's revenge The Political Unconscious of Architecture Nadir Lahiji,2016-02-24 Thirty years have passed since eminent cultural and literary critic Fredric Jameson wrote his classic work The Political Unconscious Narrative as a Socially Symbolic Act in which he insisted that there is nothing that is not social and historical indeed that everything is in the last analysis political Bringing together a team of leading scholars including Slavoj Žižek Joan Ockman Jane Rendell and Kojin Karatani this book critically examines the important contribution made by Jameson to the radical critique of architecture over this period highlighting its continued importance to contemporary architecture discourse Jameson's notion of the political unconscious represents one of the most powerful notions in the link between aesthetics and politics in contemporary discourse Taking this along with other key concepts from Jameson as the basis for its chapters this anthology asks questions such as Is architecture a place to stage class struggle How can architecture act against the conditions that affirmatively produce it What does the critical and the negative mean in the discourse of architecture and How do we prevent architecture from participating in the reproduction of the cultural logic of late capitalism This book breaks new ground in architectural criticism and offers insights into the interrelationships between politics culture space and architecture and in doing so it acts as a counter balast to the current trend in architectural research where a general aestheticization dominates the discourse

The Sexual Politics of Time Susannah Radstone, 2007-12-03 Looking at a diverse range of texts including Marilyn French's The Women's Room Philip Roth's Patrimony the writings of Walter Benjamin and Fredric Jameson and films such as Cinema Paradiso Susannah Radstone argues that though time has been foregrounded in theories of postmodernism those theories have ignored the question of time and sexual difference The Sexual Politics of Time proposes that the contemporary western world has witnessed a shift from the age of confession to the era of memory In a series of chapters on confession nostalgia the memories of boyhood film and the memoir Susannah Radstone sets out to complicate this claim Developing her argument through psychoanalytic theory she proposes that an attention to time and sexual difference raises questions not only about the analysis and characterization of texts but also about how cultural epochs are mapped through time The Sexual Politics of Time will be of interest to students and researchers of time memory difference and cultural change in subjects such as Media and Cultural Studies Sociology Film Studies Women Medievalists and the Academy Jane Chance, 2005 Pioneering An
