Pain and Memory Gregory Tague,2009 From the PREFACE by Fredericka A Jacks publisher These writers recall not only the suffering but also the courage demonstrated by those who are sick and by those who participate in their illness The writings consistently reminded us in some ways of Paul Tillich s expression and the title to one of his books the courage to be In many of these writings the reader will be grasped by the human need for connection and the desire for existential meaning when confronted with pain and suffering In pain we suffer a fear of non existence and want to forget but in the anxiety of forgetting we risk denying life From the FOREWORD by John F Lennon PAIN AND MEMORY refuses to shy away from looking at those tender moments of pain Whether it is unflinchingly writing about the moment of death Mack the Hermit or trying to come to grips with the loss of a loved one Cartography or the reeling that happens at the end of a relationship Heartless or attempting to understand an injury After the Accident or finding the exact words to discuss the feeling of being abandoned Kiribiri this anthology does not Hollywoodize pain or sanitize its imprint on those who are affected by it Instead these stories pull back the gauze that hides the day to day wounds of our lives and with surgical precision allows us to viscerally experience them In the process what this anthology will allow us to do as readers is revisit our own stories that we comfortably tell and retell forcing us to dissect our own memories under the harsh light of truth And if we are brave enough to look at this pain as these authors do what we might discover is a strength that reveals itself at the core of our humanity After all if it is true that from our birth to our death we are wrestling with pain then as these stories can attest we are also spending every second of this time persevering as well
