The Minder Brain Joe Herbert, 2007 Ambition genius thought imagination love hate greed and above all consciousness ourselves as alive and as part of our world all this is somehow enabled by the brain The brain is the person and if it goes wrong a person is ruined This book is about part of what the brain does a role of which many of us are hardly aware but one that has ensured the survival of mankind Despite famine drought wars cold infections and hostile environments we survive as a species though not always as individuals All this time our brains have been coping with what fate throws at us a process that some call adaptation How does the brain do it How does it know what's needed How does it enable us to provide that need How much do we depend on our own brains or on those of others This book is different from other books on the brain It deals with the brain's role in survival rather than higher cognitive functions such as language or thought It describes the special part of the brain that keeps you alive that makes you feel hungry when you need energy makes you feel thirsty when you need water drives you to reproduce so that your species survives makes you fearful of things or individuals that might harm you and defends you against adversity Jonathan Coe Vanessa Guignery, 2015-12-01 Jonathan Coe is one of the most popular and critically acclaimed contemporary British writers This comprehensive introduction places his work in clear historical and theoretical context offering extensive readings of the author's ten novels from The Accidental Woman to Expo 58 including the remarkable What a Carve Up The book explores Coe's biography and his experimentations with narrative genre and comedy as well as his thematic preoccupations with history memory loss and nostalgia The first volume devoted entirely to Coe this book includes A supporting timeline of key dates in literature and current events An examination of the critical reception to Coe's works An exclusive interview with Jonathan Coe himself British Book News British Council, 1986

Pomfret Towers Angela Thirkell, 2013-11-21 Pomfret Towers Barsetshire seat of the earls of Pomfret was constructed with great pomp and want of concern for creature comforts in the once fashionable style of Sir Gilbert Scott's St Pancras station It makes a grand setting for a house party at which gamine Alice Barton and her brother Guy are honoured guests mixing with the headstrong Rivers family the tally ho Wicklows and most charming of all Giles Foster nephew and heir of the present Lord Pomfret But whose hand will Mr Foster seek in marriage and who will win Alice's tender heart Angela Thirkell's classic 1930s comedy is lively witty and deliciously diverting

Harriet Said... Beryl Bainbridge, 2012-12-06 Harriet Said is a highly plotted horror tale that turns the Obstinate Questionings of puberty into deadly weapons NEW YORK TIMES An extremely original and disconcerting story DAILY TELEGRAPH A sharp chilling novel The ending has real shock effect SUNDAY TIMES A girl returns from boarding school to her sleepy Merseyside hometown and waits to be reunited with her childhood friend Harriet chief architect of all their past mischief She roams listlessly along the shoreline and the woods still pitted with wartime trenches and encounters the Tsar almost old unhappily married both dangerously fascinating and repulsive Pretty malevolent Harriet finally arrives and over the course of the long holidays draws her friend into a scheme to beguile then humiliate the Tsar with disastrous shocking consequences A gripping portrayal of adolescent transgression Beryl Bainbridge's classic first novel remains as subversive today as when it was written

The Mask of Apollo Mary Renault, 2015-08-06 Mary Renault is a shining light to both historical novelists and their readers She does not pretend the past is like the present or that the people of ancient Greece were just like us She shows us their strangeness discerning sure footed challenging our values piquing our curiosity she leads us through an alien landscape that moves and delights us HILARY MANTEL Mary Renault's portraits of the ancient world are fierce complex and eloquent infused at every turn with her life long passion for the Classics Her characters live vividly both in their own time and in ours MADELINE MILLER Combining the scholarship of a historian with the imagination of a novelist Mary Renault brings the ancient Greek stage thrillingly to life Set in fourth century B C Greece The Mask of Apollo is narrated by Nikeratos a tragic actor who takes with him on all his travels a gold mask of Apollo a relic of the theatre's golden age which is now past At first his mascot the mask gradually becomes his conscience and he refers to it his gravest decisions when he finds himself at the centre of a political crisis in which the philosopher Plato is also involved Much of the action is set in Syracuse where Plato's friend Dion is trying to persuade the young tyrant Dionysios the Younger to accept the rule of law Through Nikeratos eyes the reader watches as the clash between the two unleashes all the pent up violence in the city All my sense of the ancient world its values its style the scent of its wars and passions comes from Mary Renault I turned to writing historical fiction because of something I learned from Renault that it lets you shake off the mental shackles of your own era all the categories and labels and write freely about what really matters to you EMMA DONOGHUE There's much to wonder at in the way she fills in the large dark spaces where we know next to nothing about the times she describes an important and wonderful writer she set a course into serious minded psychologically intense historical fiction that today seems more important than ever Sam Jordison Guardian
