Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present. As the only reference volume of its kind available, this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature, whether one is a student, a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection, or a scholar of children's literature. The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children's literature and books for young adults. The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author/illustrator entries, the addition of approximately 50 new profiles, and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children's literature.

Creating Critical Classrooms Mitzi Lewison, Christine Leland, Jerome C. Harste, 2014-08-07 This popular text articulates a powerful theory of critical literacy in all its complexity. Critical literacy practices encourage students to use language to question the everyday world, interrogate the relationship between language and power, analyze popular culture and media, understand how power relationships are socially constructed, and consider actions that can be taken to promote social justice. By providing both a model for critical literacy instruction and many examples of how critical practices can be enacted in daily school life in elementary and middle school classrooms, Creating Critical Classrooms meets a huge need for a practical, theoretically based text on this topic. Pedagogical features in each chapter: Teacher researcher Vignette, Theories that Inform Practice, Critical Literacy Chart, Thought Piece, Invitations for Disruption, Lingering Questions. New in the Second Edition: End of chapter Voices from the Field, More upper elementary grade examples. New text sets drawn from Classroom Resources. Streamlined, restructured, revised and updated throughout. Expanded Companion Website now includes annotated Classroom Resources Text Sets, Resources by Chapter, Invitations for Students, Literacy Strategies, Additional Resources. America

Comes of Age Donna Koren Wells, 2000-09 Recounts the stories of the French, English, and Dutch in the New World, their reasons for settlement, and their relations with the native Americans. Slavery Krista Warnock-Carman, 2000-03 Literature-based curriculum-wide teaching materials focusing on the history of slavery. Belle Teal Ann M. Martin, 2012-10-01 Newbery Honor author Ann M. Martin's gripping, widely acclaimed novel of a girl confronting the perils of friendship and the conflicts of community. Belle Teal's life isn't easy, but she gets by. She lives with her mother and grandmother far out in the country. They don't have much money, but Belle Teal feels rich with their love. As school begins, Belle Teal faces unexpected challenges. Her best friends are up against some big problems. And there are two new students in Belle Teal's class: a shy boy caught in the town's furor over desegregation, and a snob who has problems of her own. As her world falls apart, Belle Teal discovers the importance of sticking together. Brown V.
