Separate Vision Isolation In Contemporary Womens Poetry:

A Separate Vision Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 The emergence of large numbers of women writers expressing a deliberately female consciousness has marked one of the significant directions of literature in this century. A central idea embraced by these writers has been the particular isolation or marginality felt by women. In A Separate Vision Deborah Pope focuses on four representative poets: Louise Bogan, Maxine Kumin, Denise Levertov, and Adrienne Rich to explore the ways in which women writers' treatment of isolation extends our perception of women's experience and our understanding of the alienated human sensibility. In the work of these poets, Pope identifies four distinct phases of isolation: split self and validation. These phases represent a progression from negation to affirmation from a sense of powerlessness and severe restriction to one of literal and psychological freedom. She shows how the dynamics of this progression have operated in each poet's development with each starting from the negative stance of victimization and moving in varying degrees toward validation. But Pope also finds that in each woman's work one phase of isolation is predominant. She sees the tension and confessionalism in the poetry of Bogan the earliest of the four as most representative of victimization. Kumin's poems on her alienation from familial and social experiences exemplify personalization. The split self is manifested most clearly in Levertov whose work shows a woman torn between her social female self and her inner artistic self. Rich the most committed feminist of this group is also the strongest exemplar of validation. Her recent poems are charged with personality and power and the isolation in her writing is the isolation of those in the forefront of exploration and change. This progress toward a positive sense of women's isolation is a significant movement in contemporary poetry. With what Pope describes as their vigorous revisioning of our patterns of human experience, women poets are today showing us new ways of understanding and realizing human dignity and worth.

A separate vision Deborah Pope, 1984 Denise Levertov Albert Gelpi, 1993 Illuminating reflections on the achievements of poet Denise Levertov Fashioning the Female Subject Sabine Sielke, 1997 Exploring the interrelatedness of the poetry of three American women writers Understanding Adrienne Rich Jeannette E. Riley, 2016-08-31 The journey of an important feminist writer through poetry, prose, and politics. Among the most celebrated American poets of the past half century, Adrienne Rich was the recipient of numerous awards including the Bollingen Prize, the National Book Award, and the Lannan Lifetime Achievement Award. In Understanding Adrienne Rich, Jeannette E. Riley assesses the full scope of Rich's career from 1957 to her death in 2012 through a chronological exploration of her poetry and prose. Riley details the evolution of Rich's feminist poetics as she investigated issues of identity, sexuality, gender, the desire to reclaim women's history, and what she terms the dream of a common language. Throughout the book, she documents Rich's gradually developing assertion that poetry can create social change and engage people in the democratic process. Interweaving explications of Rich's poetry with analysis of her prose, Riley offers a close look at the development of the author's voice from formalist poet to feminist visionary to citizen poet.

Falling Out of the Sky Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 While the poems of Deborah Pope's latest collection are rooted in the here and now, the place where tables are set, children play, and empty cans collect, they are also suffused with a spirit of transfiguration and the miraculous. They map an earthy, palpable yet oddly luminous landscape that embraces our most intimate relationships with lovers, with relatives, and with the body itself. Ranging over this terrain that is at once familiar and fearsome, Pope engages difficult questions and complex emotions, hard truths and fierce connections. Pope employs plain yet sensuous language, lyrical intensity, and startling images to deal with both the commonplace and the extraordinary. An angel has begun to speak to me. These poems are not passive in their perceptions or their passions. There is the anger of children, the clutch of illness, the rawness of love and grief alike, the strangeness of revelation. At times they literally wrestle with angels. In this mature, powerful collection, Pope boldly reveals her own grief, fears, and regrets, as well as the grace, mercy, and love she shows and is shown. Falling Out of the Sky beautifully communicates the profound and enigmatic relationship between love and desire, hate and betrayal, despair and hope.

Home Ground and Foreign Territory Janice Fiamengo, 2014-04-03 Home Ground and Foreign Territory is an original collection of essays on early Canadian literature in English. Aiming to be both provocative and scholarly, it encompasses a variety of sometimes opposing perspectives, subjects, and methods, with the aim of reassessing the field, unearthing neglected texts, and proposing new approaches to canonical authors. Renowned experts in early Canadian literary studies, including D. M. R. Bentley, Mary Jane Edwards, and Carole Gerson, join emerging scholars in a collection distinguished by its clarity of argument and breadth of reference. Together, the essays offer bold and informative contributions to the study of this dynamic literature. Home Ground and Foreign Territory reaches out far beyond the scope of early Canadian literature. Its multidisciplinary approach innovates literary studies and appeals to literature specialists and general readership alike. Book Review Digest, 1915

From Girl to Goddess Valerie Estelle Frankel, 2014-01-10 Many are familiar with Joseph Campbell's theory of the hero's journey, the idea that every man, from Moses to Hercules, grows to adulthood while battling his alter ego. This book explores the universal heroine's journey as she quests through world myth. Numerous stories from cultures as varied as Chile and Vietnam reveal heroines who battle for safety and identity, thereby upsetting popular notions of the passive, gentle heroine. Only after she has defeated her dark side and reintegrated can the heroine become the bestower of wisdom, the protecting queen, and arch crone.
