Queen, 1998-09-22 A study of global giving The provocative information challenges the assumptions that philanthropy is a primarily Western or Christian tradition Choice This book is an investigation of how cultures outside the Western tradition understand philanthropy and how people in these cultures attempt to realize the good through giving and serving These essays study philanthropy in Buddhist Islamic Hindu Jewish and Native American religious traditions and in cultures from Latin America Eastern Europe the Middle East Africa and Asia Contributors include Steven Feierman John A Grim Leona Anderson Ananda W P Guruge G D Bond Leslie S Kawamura Said Amir Arjomand Joanna F Handlin Smith Mary Evelyn Tucker Derek J Penslar Amanda Porterfield Miroslav Ruica Mark Juergensmeyer Darrin M McMahon Gregory C Kozlowski Adele Lindenmeyr Vivienne Shue Andr s A Thompson Leilah Landim The cross cultural understandings this book provides can do much to help us determine the distinctive shape and form American religious philanthropy might take in the future Christian Century      Workers After Workers' States Stephen Crowley,David Ost,2001 Why given political freedom coupled with adverse economic change has labour been so quiescent since the fall of communism in Eastern Europe Through the use of case studies this text explores the extent of these weaknesses and the relationship between labour and politics in these countries      Crimes of State Past and Present David Crowe,2013-09-13 War Crimes and acts of genocide are as old as history itself but particularly during the 20th century Yet what are war crimes and acts of genocide And why did it take the world so long to define these crimes and develop legal institutions to bring to justice individuals and nations responsible such crimes Part of the answer lies in the nature of the major wars fought in the 20th century and in the changing nature of warfare itself This study looks at war crimes committed during the Second World War in the USSR Yugoslavia Germany and efforts to bring the perpetrators to justice This led to successful postwar efforts to define and outlaw such crimes and more recently the creation of two international courts to bring war criminals to justice This did not prevent the commitment of war crimes and acts of genocide throughout the world particularly in Asia and Africa And while efforts to bring war criminals to justice has been enhanced by the work of these courts the problems associated with civil wars command responsibility and other issues have created new challenges for the international legal community in terms of the successful adjudication of such crimes This book was based on a special issue of Nationalities Papers      Routledge Handbook of International Statebuilding David Chandler,Timothy D.
