Singleton, 2008 The Aftermath of Hurricane Katrina examines the hurricane s effects on traumatized children s academic progression socialization life opportunities and social consciousness Professor Dorothy Singleton presents improved teaching strategies and methodologies for working with traumatized children in any grade level As writers gathered information for this book several realized the need to better comprehend how this environmental tragedy has disrupted the lives of groups already politically and economically marginalized This study features a range of information about these social groups including history culture family life and the day to day challenges faced by those still suffering from the hurricane s aftermath Book jacket Retired Pacific Hurricanes , Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel,United States Board on Books for Young People,2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children s literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson s Children s Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children s literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan s The World Through Children s Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children s books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity Category 5 Pacific Hurricanes , Storm World Chris Mooney,2008-08-04 An investigation into climate change and increasingly dangerous hurricanes from the New York Times bestselling author of The Republican War on Science A leading science journalist delves into a red hot debate in meteorology whether the increasing ferocity of hurricanes is connected to global warming In the wake of Katrina Chris Mooney follows the careers of leading scientists on either side of the argument through the 2006 hurricane season tracing how the media special interests politics and the weather itself have skewed and amplified what was already a fraught scientific debate As Mooney puts it Scientists like hurricanes do extraordinary things at high wind speeds Mooney a New Orleans native host of the Point of Inquiry podcast and author of The Republican Brain has written a well researched nuanced book that closely examines whether we as a society should be held responsible for making hurricanes even bigger monsters than they already are The New York Times Mooney serves his readers as both an empiricist who gathers data and an analyst who puts it into context The result is an important book whose author succeeds admirably in both his roles The Plain Dealer Engaging and readable Mooney catches real science in the act and in so doing weaves a story as intriguing as it is important Los Angeles Times Book Review Mooney has hit upon an important and controversial topic and attacks it with vigor The Boston Globe An absorbing informed account of the politics behind a pressing contemporary controversy Kirkus Reviews Teaching Young Children Social Studies Gayle Mindes,2006-09-30 By linking theory to practice with an emphasis on national and state standards Head Start Performance Standards No Child Left Behind and IDEA the authors coherently combine principles of child development and social studies content to create a solid program for preschool through grade three The authors maintain the overriding idea throughout the Teaching Young Children series that strategies derived from knowledge of child development are used to teach content knowledge It is this concern that makes this volume an excellent resource for teachers and parents In addition to specific discussions of how to build and conduct a social studies curriculum the work includes vignettes of teachers and children in the classroom graphics illustrating concepts and methods and matrices charts and tables to enhance understanding The authors effectively intertwine social learning in young children and development of self concept with the theme based curriculum of the National Council for Social Studies the principles of multicultural education parent collaboration to support learning and creating connections between classroom and community Geo Year Book 2007 Unep,United Nations Environment Programme, Mariners Weather Log ,1979 November issue includes abridged index to yearly volume Geo Year Book 2007 United Nations Environment Programme, 21st-Century Anthology Tamu Chambers,2022-07-01 21st Century Anthology Higher Education Pride Purpose and Passion Understanding and Overcoming Adversity Volume 1 By Tamu Chambers Either write something worth reading or do something worth writing Benjamin Franklin 21st Century Anthology Higher Education Pride Purpose and Passion Understanding and Overcoming Adversity combines intellectual and emotional exposes of the connection between historical and contemporary inequalities in higher education Monthly Weather Review ,1979 Handbook of Caribbean Economies Robert Looney,2020-11-10 This volume aims to illustrate the uniqueness of the economies of the countries and territories of the Caribbean as well as the similarities they share with other regions While most countries in the region share many of the characteristics of middle income countries theirs is a matter of extremes Their generally small size suggests a fragility not found elsewhere While much of the world is beginning to feel some effects of climate change the Caribbean is ground zero These factors suggest a difficult road ahead but the chapters presented in this volume aim to help to spur the search for creative solutions to the region s problems The chapters written by expert contributors examine the Caribbean economies from several perspectives Many break new ground in questioning past policy mindsets while developing new approaches to many of the traditional constraints limiting growth in the region The volume is organized in four sections Part I examines commonalities including issues surrounding small economies tourism climate change and energy security Part II looks at obstacles to sustained progress for example debt natural disasters and crime In Part III chapters consider the specific role of external influences including the USA and the European Union the People s Republic of China as well as regional co operation The volume concludes in Part IV with country case studies intended to provide a sense of the diversity that runs through the region Summary of The Great Displacement by Jake Bittle:Climate Change and the Next American Migration thomas francis,2023-11-30 The Great Displacement by Jake Bittle Greenville a mountain village with a population of approximately one thousand residents nestled in the mountainous wilderness of northeastern California On August 4 2021 an enormous wildfire one of the largest in US history breached the valley surrounding the town devastating three quarters of its buildings within minutes The catastrophe didn t end when the fire was extinguished it took months for the federal government to provide emergency trailers for the displaced residents The summer of the Dixie Fire witnessed a series of climate related disasters across the US displacing thousands of people due to storms fires and floods This serves as a warning of what the next century of climate change might bring to the rest of the country as one in three Americans has already experienced some form of weather related disaster This book narrates the stories of individuals affected by climate change who have lost their homes and histories to a crisis that millions more will soon face Grab a copy and learn more

1994 Pacific Hurricane Season , Teaching Strategies for Ethnic Studies James A. Banks,2003 The text is designed to help teachers conceptualize and implement a democratic thoughtful and just curriculum that honors and reflects the experiences hopes and dreams of all Americans It describes the knowledge concepts strategies and resources that teachers need to implement a democratic curriculum by transforming the mainstream curriculum and incorporating content and concepts about diverse racial ethnic and cultural groups Son of Samson and the Witch of Endor Gary Martin,2008 Stopping from his journey to rest his camel Branar learns how the presence of the stolen Serpent Staff of Moses has brought ruin to a Philistine town What he doesn't realize is that the young woman he agrees to help retrieve the relic from a powerful warrior is actually the Witch of Endor Joining Branar as he descends dark tunnels and fights his way through a heavily guarded fortress Son of Samson fans will learn that divine power and strength do not reside in objects and relics but come from the Creator
