Servants Of Globalization Women Migration And Domestic Work:

Servants of Globalization Rhacel Parreñas, 2015-08-26 Servants of Globalization offers a groundbreaking study of migrant Filipino domestic workers who leave their own families behind to do the caretaking work of the global economy. Since its initial publication the book has informed countless students and scholars and set the research agenda on labor migration and transnational families. With this second edition Rhacel Salazar Parreñas returns to Rome and Los Angeles to consider how the migrant communities have changed. Children have now joined their parents. Male domestic workers are present in significantly greater numbers. And perhaps most troubling the population has aged presenting new challenges for the increasingly elderly domestic workers. New chapters discuss these three increasingly important constituencies. The entire book has been revised and updated and a new introduction offers a global comparative overview of the citizenship status of migrant domestic workers. Servants of Globalization remains the defining work on the international division of reproductive labor.

Servants of Globalization Rhacel Salazar Parreñas, 2001 A poignant often troubling study of Filipina domestic workers who leave their own families behind to do the mothering and caretaking work of the global economy in countries throughout the world.

Critical Globalization Studies Richard P. Appelbaum, William I. Robinson, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company.

Reseña de "Servants of Globalization. Women, Migration and Domestic Work" de Rhacel Salazar Parreñas Claudia Rocío Rivera Kisines, 2003

The Force of Domesticity Rhacel Salazar Parreñas, 2008-08-10 The Force of Domesticity offers fresh perspectives on the complex linkages of gender and globalization that connect the world today. Through a multi site analysis of Filipino women Parreñas shows how domesticity, remittances and NGO and state imposed notions of morality conspire to create new structures of inequalities and opportunities for transnational migrant women. Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo author of Domestica Taking as her subjects migrant Filipina domestic workers in Rome and Los Angeles transnational migrant families in the Philippines and Filipina migrant entertainers in Tokyo Parreñas documents the social cultural and political pressures that maintain women's domesticity in migration as well as the ways migrant women and their children negotiate these adversities. Parreñas examines the underlying constructions of gender in neoliberal state regimes export oriented economies such as that of the Philippines protective migration laws and the actions and decisions of migrant Filipino women in maintaining families and communities raising questions about gender relations the status of women in globalization and the meanings of greater consumptive power that migration garners for women. The Force of Domesticity starkly illustrates how the operation of globalization enforces notions of women's domesticity and creates contradictory messages about women's place in society simultaneously pushing women inside and outside the home.

Migration, Domestic Work and Affect Encarnación Gutiérrez-Rodríguez, 2010-12-22 Drawing upon several years of research in Germany the UK Spain and Austria and over 100 interviews with Peruvian Ecuadorian and Chilean women working as domestic and care workers this book examines hitherto unexplored areas of the interpersonal relationships between domestic and care workers and their employers Domestic Workers of the World Unite! Jennifer N. Fish, 2017-07-25 From grassroots to global activism the untold story of the world's first domestic workers movement Domestic workers exist on the margins of the world labor market Maids nannies housekeepers au pairs and other care workers are most often off the books working for long hours and low pay They are not afforded legal protections or benefits such as union membership health care vacation days and retirement plans Many women who perform these jobs are migrants and are oftentimes dependent upon their employers for room and board as well as their immigration status creating an extremely vulnerable category of workers in the growing informal global economy Drawing on over a decade's worth of research plus interviews with a number of key movement leaders and domestic workers Jennifer N. Fish presents the compelling stories of the pioneering women who while struggling to fight for rights in their own countries mobilized transnationally to enact change The book takes us to Geneva where domestic workers organized negotiated and successfully received the first ever granting of international standards for care work protections by the United Nations International Labour Organization This landmark victory not only legitimizes the importance of these household laborers demands for respect and recognition but also signals the need to consider human rights as a central component of workers rights Domestic Workers of the World Unite chronicles how a group with so few resources could organize and act within the world's most powerful international structures and give voice to the wider global plight of migrants women and informal workers For anyone with a stake in international human and workers rights this is a critical and inspiring model of civil society organizing Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations, 2013-05-02 Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations connects the 19th and 20th century labor migrations and migration systems in global transcultural perspective It emphasizes macro regional internal continuities or discontinuities and interactions between and within macro regions The essays look at migrant workers experiences in constraining frames and the options they seize or constraints they circumvent It traces the development from 19th century proletarian migrations to industries and plantations across the globe to 20th and 21st century domestics and caregiver migrations It integrates male and female migration and shows how women have always been present in mass migrations Studies on historical development over time are supplemented by case studies on present migrations in Asia and from Asia A systems approach is combined with human agency perspectives Contributors include Rochelle Ball Shelly Chan Dennis D Cordell Michael Douglass Christiane Harzig Dirk Hoerder Muhamad Nadrattuzaman Hosen Hass ne Kassar Kamel Kateb Amarjit Kaur Kiranjit Kaur Gijs Kessler Akram Khater Elizabeth A Kuznesof Vera Mackie Adam McKeown Tomoko Nakamatsu Ooi Keat Gin Aswatini Raharto Marlou Schrover and Patcharawalai Wongboonsin EXPLOITED, UNDERVALUED - AND ESSENTIAL: DOMESTIC WORKERS AND THE REALISATION OF THEIR RIGHTS Darcy du Toit, 2013-11-18 Millions of domestic workers experience exploitation in the privacy of their employers homes also in South Africa they are to a large extent beyond the reach of legal protection This book sums up four years of research on ways of realising their rights It highlights their essential role both as care givers and in enabling their employers to work outside the home Against the background of the Constitution and international law it examines ways of adapting the legal framework as well as alternative mechanisms including new forms of organisation for translating basic rights into effective regulation Handbook of Migration and Globalisation Anna Triandafyllidou,2024-04-12 This thoroughly revised and updated Handbook brings together an international range of contributors to highlight the deep interdependence between migration and globalisation and explore the impact of economic social and political globalisation on international population flows It provides an interdisciplinary perspective on a discussion that has been intensifying and diversifying over the past 25 years This title contains one or more Open Access chapters The Middle East and North Africa Alasdair Drysdale,2024-10-15 This contemporary text the first in over a decade on the region presents the geography of the Middle East and North Africa defined as the Arab World Israel Turkey Iran and Afghanistan Thematically organized the book s eleven chapters focus on the region s physical and climatic setting demographic characteristics migration patterns religious and linguistic diversity political map offshore claims oil and gas resources and subregions and states Within this framework Drysdale emphasizes pressing current problems the impact of climate change in a region where some areas already suffer from extreme summer heat and aridity the challenge of providing additional water in a region where per capita availability of freshwater is already the lowest in the world the impact of high fertility and rapid population growth in a fragile environment where economies are often unable to absorb young workers entering the labor force the looming prospect of an aging population the effects of out and in migration the diverse impact and role of Islam in daily and public life the integrative consequences of linguistic and ethnic diversity the evolution and imperfections of the political map ongoing territorial and boundary disputes that often have global repercussions external dependence on the region s prolific oil and gas resources and the extreme regional inequalities associated with their presence or absence This timely and insightful analysis is essential reading for students of the region who need a better understanding of key regional characteristics challenges and issues Domestica Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo,2007-03-20 In this enlightening and timely work Pierrette Hondagneu Sotelo highlights the voices experiences and views of Mexican and Central American women who care for other people s children and homes as well as the outlooks of the women who employ them in Los Angeles The new preface looks at the current issues facing immigrant domestic workers in a global context Home Care for Sale Brigitte Aulenbacher,Helma Lutz,Ewa Palenga-Möllenbeck,Karin Schwiter,2024-02-01 The world of senior care provision and care work is changing rapidly Across Europe brokering agencies for live in care workers have become powerful players in reshaping welfare systems transnational care chains and working conditions This volume draws together the latest research on live in home care for seniors in Europe exploring processes of commodification and marketisation the transnationalisation of care work the private household as a

Handbook on Development and Social Change G. Honor Fagan,Ronaldo Munck,2018-03-30 This Handbook provides an accessible critical review of the complex issues surrounding development and social change today With chapters from recognized experts examining economic political and social aspects and covering key topics and developing regions it goes beyond current theory and sets out the debates which will shape an approach better suited to the modern world

From Crisis to Catastrophe Mignon Duffy,Amy Armenia,Kim Price-Glynn,2023-05-12 The COVID pandemic has shaken the material and social foundations of the world more than any event in recent history and has highlighted and exacerbated a longstanding crisis of care While these challenges may be freshly visible to the public they are not new Over the last three decades a growing body of care scholarship has documented the inadequacy of the social organization of care around the world and the effect of the devaluation of care on workers families and communities In this volume a diverse group of care scholars bring their expertise to bear on this recent crisis In doing so they consider the ways in which the existing social organization of care in different countries around the globe amplified or mitigated the impact of COVID They also explore the global pandemic s impact on the conditions of care and its role in exacerbating deeply rooted gender race migration disability and other forms of inequality

Home economics Sacha Hepburn,2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa's post colonial and post apartheid history

Women's Labor in the Global Economy Sharon Harley, 2007-06-05 Globalization is not a new phenomenon women throughout the world have been dealing with the circumstances and consequences of an international economy long before the advent of the transnational corporate conglomerate However in a mercenary example of the tried cliché the more things change the more they stay the same women particularly those of color continue to be relegated to the lowest rung of the occupational ladder where their indispensable contributions to global market capitalism are downplayed or invalidated completely through the perpetuation of stereotypes and the denial of access to better job opportunities and resources How women of color around the world adapt and challenge the economic political and social effects of globalization is the subject of this broad minded and incisive anthology From Mexico Jamaica Ghana Zimbabwe and Sri Lanka to immigrant and non immigrant communities in the United States the women documented in these essays are agricultural and factory workers artists and entrepreneurs mothers and activists Their stories bear stark witness to how globalization continues to develop new sites and forms of exploitation while its apparent victims continue to be women men and children of color

Knowledge, Power, and Migration Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Mireille Paquet, Ethel Tungohan, 2025-06-17 As the field of migration studies has grown the asymmetrical relationship between researchers in the Global North and in the South has produced a body of work that centres the concerns of the former Those from the Global North and wealthier countries continue to produce the greater portion of this research while research from Global South scholars with lived experiences as migrants is received as anecdotal or too niche to have universal application Knowledge Power and Migration assembles researchers from across the divide to question the ways in which research practices can change the conversation on immigration It encourages a necessary curiosity about how scholarship in the field can shape global social and epistemic justice Migration is a constant in human history but the sharp decline in permanent resettlement options increasingly selective criteria and violent enforcement measures of the twenty first century constitute a crisis of immigration policy Only by redressing the inequalities it shares with global governance structures can the discipline confront this historic challenge Research on immigration can occasion reflections and practices that challenge epistemic injustices Knowledge Power and Migration contributes to this ongoing project while offering insights on the practical organization of new forms of dialogue on migration in a largely unequal world

Everyday Women's and Gender Studies Ann Braithwaite, Catherine Orr, 2016-08-11 Everyday Women's and Gender Studies is a text reader that offers instructors a new way to approach an introductory course on women's and gender studies This book highlights major concepts that organize the diverse work in this field Knowledges Identities Equalities Bodies Places and Representations Its focus on the everyday speaks to the importance this book places on students understanding the taken for granted circumstances of their daily lives Precisely because it is not the same for everyone the everyday becomes the ideal location for cultivating students intellectual capacities as well as their political investigations and interventions In addition to exploring each concept in detail each chapter includes up to five short recently published readings that illuminate an aspect of that concept Everyday Women s and Gender Studies explores the idea that People are different and the world isn t fair and engages students in the inevitably complicated follow up question Now that we know how shall we live Migrants Who

Care Fumilayo Showers,2023-09-15 As the U S population ages and as health care needs become more complex demand for paid care workers in home and institutional settings has increased This book draws attention to the reserve of immigrant labor that is called on to meet this need Migrants Who Care tells the little known story of a group of English speaking West African immigrants who have become central to the U S health and long term care systems With high human capital and middle class pre migration backgrounds these immigrants hailing from countries as diverse as Cameroon Sierra Leone Ghana Nigeria and Liberia encounter blocked opportunities in the U S labor market They then work in the United States as home health aides certified nursing assistants qualified disability support professionals and licensed practical and registered nurses This book reveals the global political social and economic factors that have facilitated the entry of West African women and men into the health care labor force home and institutional care for older adults and individuals with physical and intellectual disabilities and skilled nursing It highlights these immigrants role as labor brokers who tap into their local ethnic and immigrant communities to channel co ethnics to meet this labor demand It illustrates how West African care workers understand their work across various occupational settings and segments in the health care industry This book reveals the transformative processes migrants undergo as they become produced repackaged and deployed as health care workers after migration Ultimately this book tells the very real and human story of an immigrant group surmounting tremendous obstacles to carve out a labor market niche in health care providing some of the most essential and intimate aspects of care labor to the most vulnerable members of society
