The 4Cs of Truth in Communications Isabelle Albanese, 2007

Baby Boomers and Their Parents George P. Moschis, Anil Mathur, 2007 Lots of marketers paint a rosy picture of the lifestyle of baby boomers as they enter the retirement years But authors Moschis and Mathur basing their findings on 20 years of surveys among baby boomers and their parents tell it like it is Many baby boomers have saved little money for retirement their health is worse than that of their parents and while both generations say travel is in their futures many will not have money enough to rent a budget motel a few miles from home But the picture is not all bleak Moschis and Mathur use their findings to discuss how people can live longer more satisfying lives In addition they apply those findings to marketing and advertising advising businesses how to use the attitudes and mindsets of mature consumers to create products and services for them as well as to make those products and services more appealing to older customers Latinization Cristina Benitez,2007 Although politicians discuss Latino immigration by the numbers there is another side to the impact of immigrants their influence on the culture and lifestyle of the countries they enter Cristina Benitez founder of Lazos Latinos focuses her book on the positive influences that Latinos have on their new country from culture to the high value Latinos place on their family relationships Readers will come away with a better understanding of how to craft marketing messages that resonate with Latino customers With a foreword by Henry Cisneros and insights from 20 Latino experts Latinization helps explain why Latino culture is here to stay

Hispanic Customers for Life M. Isabel Valdés,2008 Isabel Valdes most recent book features a completely new analysis of Latino segments based on how long Latinos have lived in the U S culture These new segments provide an understanding not just of acculturation but of how the length of time in country affects the way companies should position their products for Latinos These descriptions will help you quantify and differentiate among people who are recent arrivals in the U S those who are third generation and beyond and those who are second generation In reality a huge share of the Latino population was born in the United States and the majority of babies born today in the U S have Latino parents Hispanic Purchasing PowerThe Selig Center for Economic Growth at the University of Georgia estimates that U S Hispanic purchasing power increased dramatically during the 1990s and has continued to rise into the 21st century from 212 billion in 1990 to 736 billion in 2005 a 347 percent increase over the 15 year period By 2010 Jeffrey Humphrey director of the Selig Center projects Hispanic buying power will top 1 trillion By 2050 some estimates place the value of Hispanic consumer marketplace between 2.5 and 3.6 trillion With exciting new case studies and a focus on grassroots marketing and the internet Ms Valdes gives you the data and analysis you need to move your Latino marketing to the next level Consumer Behavior in Action Geoffrey Paul Lantos,2015-01-28 Consumer Behavior in Action is a down to earth highly engaging and thorough introduction to consumer behavior It goes further than other consumer behavior textbooks to generate student interest and activity through extensive use of in class and written applications exercises Each chapter presents several exercises in self contained units each with its own applications Learning objectives background and context are provided in an easy to digest format with liberal use of lists and bullet points Also included in each chapter are a key concepts list review questions and a solid summary to help initiate further student research The author's practical focus and clear conversational writing style combined with an active learning approach make this textbook the student friendly choice for courses on consumer behavior
