Marketing to Schools Bob Stimolo, Lynn Stimolo, 1998 Selling School Catherine DiMartino, Sarah Butler Jessen, 2018-04-20 The authors present in depth research and analysis on the ways in which the educational landscape has been transformed by the presence of private and quasi private actors in the public education sector The use of aggressive marketing and branding campaigns to attract new consumers and create profit centers by charter school operators and their philanthropic benefactors forces traditional public schools to adopt similar tactics in order to attract students Practical Marketing for Schools Christopher Barnes, 1993 An introductory guide to drafting and implementing practical marketing strategies this workbook introduces key concepts such as marketing a nonprofit organization and drawing up marketing plans Management and Leadership of Educational Marketing Izhar Oplatka, Jane Hemsley-Brown, 2012-09-25 The introduction of educational markets into public and higher education in many countries has led to competitive environments for schools and higher education institutions This book presents the works of leading scholars and researchers in the field of educational marketing who handle issues of student retention How to Market Books Alison Baverstock, 2015-02-11 Baverstock is to book marketing what Gray is to anatomy the undisputed champion Richard Charkin Executive Director of Bloomsbury Publishing and President Elect of the International Publishers Association Over four editions Alison Baverstock's How to Market Books has established itself as the industry standard text on marketing for the publishing industry and the go to reference guide for professionals and students alike With the publishing world changing like never before and the marketing and selling of content venturing into uncharted technological territory this much needed new edition seeks to highlight the role of the marketer in this rapidly changing landscape The new edition is thoroughly updated and offers a radical reworking and reorganisation of the previous edition suffusing the book with references to online digital marketing The book maintains the accessible and supportive style of previous editions but also now offers a number of new case studies detailed coverage of individual market segments checklists and summaries of key points several new chapters a foreword by Michael J Baker Professor Emeritus of Marketing Strathclyde University International Book Publishing: An Encyclopedia Philip G. Altbach, Edith S. Hoshino, 2015-05-08 First Published in 1996 This encyclopedia is unique in several ways As the first international reference source on publishing it is a pioneering venture Our aim is to provide comprehensive discussion and analysis of key subjects relating to books and publishing worldwide The sixty four essays included here feature not only factual and statistical information about the topic but also analysis and evaluation of those facts and figures The chapters are significantly more comprehensive than those typically found in an encyclopedia Marketing Management for School Leaders Deidre Pettinga, Azure D. S. Angelov, David F. Bateman, 2019-07-12 Due to the changing competitive landscape in education it becomes vital for aspiring school leaders to understand how families select schools for their children Families today shop for a school in a manner consistent with how they research a new appliance or automobile prior to purchase

Unfortunately many public schools are unprepared to assist families in this decision making process Public schools need to become aware of the changing dynamics of education understand the reasons for telling others about what they do and then develop a comprehensive and coherent strategy for successfully marketing their program That is the purpose of this book Marketing Management for School Leaders The Theory and Practice for Effective Educational Practice will provide educational leadership students a theoretical understanding of marketing to equip them with sound principles upon which they can build actionable strategies in their professional practice

Marketing Schools, Marketing Cities Maia Bloomfield Cucchiara, 2024-05-31 Discuss real estate with any young family and the subject of schools is certain to come up in fact it will likely be a crucial factor in determining where that family lives Not merely institutions of learning schools have increasingly become a sign of a neighborhood s vitality and city planners have ever more explicitly promoted good schools as a means of attracting more affluent families to urban areas a dynamic process that Maia Bloomfield Cucchiara critically examines in Marketing Schools Marketing Cities Focusing on Philadelphia s Center City Schools Initiative she shows how education policy makes overt attempts to prevent or at least slow middle class flight to the suburbs Navigating complex ethical terrain she balances the successes of such policies in strengthening urban schools and communities against the inherent social injustices they propagate the further marginalization and disempowerment of lowerclass families By asking what happens when affluent parents become valued customers Marketing Schools Marketing Cities uncovers a problematic relationship between public institutions and private markets where the former are used to leverage the latter to effect urban transformations
