

MARKETS AND STATES IN TROPICAL AFRICA

The Political Basis of Agricultural Policies

WITH A NEW PREFACE

"Robert Bates's book manages the difficult task of speaking to the specialist and nonspecialist alike. It explains the historical, political, and economic roots of Africa's challenges. Best of all, it gives context to why easy prescriptions haven't worked in the past, and some hope for what might work in the future."

Markets States In Tropical Africa With New Preface Rev:

Markets and States in Tropical Africa Robert H. Bates, 2005-03-04 Most Africans live in rural areas and derive their incomes from farming but because African governments follow policies that are adverse to most farmers interests these countries fail to produce enough food to feed their populations Markets and States in Tropical Africa analyzes these and other paradoxical features of development in modern Africa and explores how governments have intervened and diverted resources from farmers to other sectors of society A classic of the field since its publication in 1981 this edition includes a new preface by the author The Analysis of Household Surveys (Reissue Edition with a New Preface) Angus Deaton, 2019-01-14 Two decades after its original publication The Analysis of Household Surveys is reissued with a new preface by its author Sir Angus Deaton recipient of the 2015 Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences This classic work remains relevant to anyone with a serious interest in using household survey data to shed light on policy issues The book reviews the analysis of household survey data including the construction of household surveys the econometric tools useful for such analysis and a range of problems in development policy for which this survey analysis can be applied Chapter 1 describes the features of survey design that need to be understood in order to undertake appropriate analysis Chapter 2 discusses the general econometric and statistical issues that arise when using survey data for estimation and inference Chapter 3 covers the use of survey data to measure welfare poverty and distribution Chapter 4 focuses on the use of household budget data to explore patterns of household demand Chapter 5 discusses price reform its effects on equity and efficiency and how to measure them Chapter 6 addresses the role of household consumption and saving in economic development The book includes an appendix providing code and programs using STATA which can serve as a template for users own analysis

African Successes, Volume I Sebastian Edwards, Simon Johnson, David N. Weil, 2016-09-23 Studies of African economic development frequently focus on the daunting challenges the continent faces From recurrent crises to ethnic conflicts and long standing corruption a raft of deep rooted problems has led many to regard the continent as facing many hurdles to raise living standards Yet Africa has made considerable progress in the past decade with a GDP growth rate exceeding five percent in some regions The African Successes series looks at recent improvements in living standards and other measures of development in many African countries with an eye toward identifying what shaped them and the extent to which lessons learned are transferable and can guide policy in other nations and at the international level The first volume in the series African Successes Governments and Institutions considers the role governments and institutions have played in recent developments and identifies the factors that enable economists to predict the way institutions will function The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan, Patrick Ukata, 2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria s very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria s socio political evolution and experience by covering broad range of political issues and historical eras The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history political institutions civil society economic and social policy identity and insecurity and Nigeria in a globalized world By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa s most populous country The chapters are interdisciplinary introducing readers to classic debates and key research on Nigeria as well as new methodologies new data and a compelling corpus of research questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa

The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga, Justin Yifu Lin, 2015-07-02 For a long time economic research on Africa was not seen as a profitable venture intellectually or professionally few researchers in top ranked institutions around the world chose to become experts in the field This was understandable the reputation of Africa centered economic research was not enhanced by the well known limitations of economic data across the continent Moreover development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this lhandbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and Africa s contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists

Nationalism and Conflict Management Eric Taylor Woods, Robert Schertzer, Eric Kaufmann, 2013-09-13 Ethno national conflict is one of the central issues of modern politics Despite the emergence of approaches to managing it from nation building to territorial autonomy in recent years the application of these approaches has been uneven Old conflicts persist and new ones continually emerge The authors of this book contend that what is needed to drive forward the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management is a more nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism The book addresses this issue by linking theories of ethnicity and nationalism to theories of conflict management Its contributors share a common goal of demonstrating that a nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism can beneficially inform conflict management in theory and practice To do so they analyse both hot and cold conflict zones as well as cases that have been important in the development of the most widely used conflict management models The book is aimed at those interested in the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management as well as the study of ethnicity and nationalism It is well suited for undergraduate and advanced research students experts and policy makers This book was originally published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

The African Exception Ulf Engel, 2017-11-28 Governance has become an important concept in the politics of African development It is therefore a crucial concept for social science analyses focusing on Africa In public discourse Africa s future is being shaped by a combination of external interventions backed by African elites who cooperate with the donors whose understanding of the importance of good governance they share This groundbreaking book disentangles the analytical aspects of governance from its political and normative connotations The African exception the difference in development between Africa and other regions of the South can be understood by analysis focusing upon the specific forms of governance played out in politics and economics The perspective of neo patrimonialism is crucial but not sufficient here The first section of the book explores African governance in two functional spheres the political realm and the economic Section two looks at new areas of governance in Africa violent social spaces HIV AIDS and entrepreneurial urban governance

The Entrepreneurial State in China Jane Duckett, 2006-10-19 Jane Duckett describes in detail new state business activities in China and explains why they have appeared Using research on the northern city of Tianjin during the 1990s she argues that individual departments within the Chinese state are involved in the market economy through the establishment of their own businesses The book demonstrates that many of these businesses are genuinely entrepreneurial in the sense of profit seeking risk taking and productive rather than rent seeking speculative or profiteering This entrepreneurialism is an important new dimension of state activity in China with implications for our understanding of the Chinese state This book develops an alternative to the local government state model and emphasises instead the State's dynamic entrepreneurial role in the process of economic reform

Ansell, 2010-03-22 From the Ballot to the Blackboard provides the first comprehensive account of the political economy of education spending across the developed and developing world The book demonstrates how political forces like democracy and political partisanship and economic factors like globalization deeply impact the choices made by voters parties and leaders in financing education The argument is developed through three stories that track the historical development of education first its original expansion from the elite to the masses second the partisan politics of education in industrialized states and third the politics of higher education The book uses a variety of complementary methods to demonstrate the importance of redistributive political motivations in explaining education policy including formal modeling statistical analysis of survey data and both sub national and cross national data and historical case analyses of countries including the Philippines India Malaysia England Sweden and Germany Technology, Institutions and Labor Fulya Apaydin, 2018-05-02 In this book Fulya Apaydin argues that labor responses to dramatic technological change are influenced by the political institutions of the Global South more than any other factor In addressing vocational education programs which are highly relevant in understanding how labor unrest is governed in developing settings she makes two important contributions Firstly she offers a new theoretical framework to understand labor mobilization and de mobilization patterns rethinking vocational education as a key transmission belt for manufacturing labor consent Secondly she provides a systematic comparison of skill formation schemes and their implications on labor mobilization in federal and unitary systems With a focus on Argentina and Turkey two case studies are provided in which technology has provoked differing levels of strikes walkouts and extended protest Political

Brett, 2009-07-08 The book provides a systematic assessment of the evolution of development theory its relationship to orthodox social science analysis and the liberal pluralistic orthodoxy that now dominates the mainstream approach to international development showing how we can transcend its failure to address some key problems of late and uneven development

Political Science in Theory and Practice Ruth Lane, 1997 This text demonstrates that there is a politics model that unifies the discipline and structures its relationship to the other social sciences It shows how this model underlies important works of applied research in all the main political science subfields

African Studies Review ,2005 Institutions and Development in Africa John Mukum Mbaku, 2004 A significant contribution to the debate on poverty alleviation in Africa Professor Mbaku offers practical policies for economic growth He argues that the most important contributor to poverty and deprivation in Africa is the absence of institutional structures that enhance indigenous entrepreneurship and wealth creation He explains that these are so vital that living standards will continue to deteriorate unless these building blocks are put in place
