Marking Time Prison:

Marking Time Nicole R. Fleetwood, 2020-04-28 Nicole Fleetwood enters American prisons to explore the creativity flourishing there Though isolated and degraded incarcerated artists produce bold works that testify to the economic and racial injustice of American punishment These pieces many published here for the first time offer a new vision of freedom for the twenty first century Jailtacht Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost, 2012-05-15 This book tells the dramatic and often surprising story of the learning of the Irish language by Irish Republican prisoners held in the infamous H block cells during the bloody political conflict in Northern Ireland Using research methods and techniques the author closely analyses the emergence of the Irish language amongst republican prisoners and ex prisoners in Northern Ireland from the 1970s up until the present This pioneering study shows how the language was used exclusively in parts of the prison despite the efforts of the prison authorities to suppress the language and the dramatic impact this had on Irish society Drawing on interviews with the prisoners and various other materials Mac Giolla Chríost shows how these developments gave rise to the popular coinage of the term Jailtacht a deformation of Gaeltacht the official Irish speaking districts of the Republic of Ireland to describe this unique linguistic phenomenon

Masculinities and the Adult Male Prison Experience Jennifer Anne Sloan, 2016-05-18 This book critically analyses how men in prison act out their masculine identities It considers how men negotiate their time in prison which can involve being placed into a feminine position relative to other men and particularly looks at the subversion of heteronormative gender positionings through bodies spaces time and relationships Vulnerability is also taken as a key consideration and men are shown to act out their masculinities for the benefit of an audience that matters to them However that audience is shown to be subject to change at any point in time Using extensive ethnographic data drawn from adult male prisoners the book adopts the viewpoint of the individual prisoner as a frame to consider masculinity It also advances ethnographic research in criminology by reflecting upon the identity of researchers in prisons particularly the female researcher s gendered identity in such environments It will be of great interest to scholars of penology gender and ethnography

Handbook of American Prisons and Reformatories Paul W. Garrett, Austin Harbutt MacCormick, 1929 The Puzzle of Prison Order David Skarbek, 2020-07-01 Many people think prisons are all the same rows of cells filled with violent men who officials rule with an iron fist Yet life behind bars varies in incredible ways In some facilities prison officials govern with care and attention to prisoners needs In others officials have remarkably little influence on the everyday life of prisoners sometimes not even providing necessities like food and clean water Why does prison social order around the world look so remarkably different In The Puzzle of Prison Order David Skarbek develops a theory of why prisons and prison life vary so much He finds that how they re governed sometimes by the state and sometimes by the prisoners matters the most He investigates life in a wide array of prisons in Brazil Bolivia Norway a prisoner of war camp England and Wales women s prisons in California and a gay and transgender housing unit in the Los Angeles County Jail to understand the hierarchy of life on the inside Drawing on economics and a vast empirical literature on legal systems Skarbek offers a framework to not only understand why life on the inside varies in such fascinating and novel ways but also how social order evolves and takes root behind bars

Ageing, Crime and Society Azrini Wahidin,Maureen Cain,2013-05-13 The relationship between ageing and crime has been a much neglected issue the focus rather being on youth This books aims to redress this imbalance bringing together a group of leading authorities to address key issues on the subject of crime and ageing considering older people as both victims and perpetrators of crime and looking too at conditions faced by older prisoners The book draws upon both criminology and gerontology as well as sociology and social policy to help understand the complex relationship between ageing and the criminal justice system and argues that the needs of elders must be far more firmly on the penal policy agenda than is the case currently Ageing Crime and Society will be concerned with unsilencing a group who because of their age and status have been muted by the criminal justice system

The Gospel of Mark R. T. Reaffirming Rehabilitation Francis T. Cullen, Karen E. Gilbert, 2013 Reaffirming Rehabilitation 2nd Edition brings fresh insights to one of the core works of criminal justice literature This groundbreaking work analyzes the rehabilitative ideal within the American correctional system and discusses its relationship to and conflict with political ideologies Many researchers and policymakers rejected the value of rehabilitation after Robert Martinson's proclamation that nothing works Cullen and Gilbert's book helped stem the tide of negativism that engulfed the U S correctional system in the years that followed the popularization of the nothing works doctrine Now Cullen traces the social impact on U S corrections policy This new edition is appropriate as a textbook in corrections courses and as recommended reading in related courses It also serves as a resource for researchers and policymakers working in the field of corrections
