Italian Fifteenth- to Seventeenth-century Drawings Anna Forlani Tempesti, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1991 Perhaps more than any other collector of his generation in the United States Robert Lehman was interested in acquiring early drawings He made a great effort to add drawings to the collection of paintings sculpture ceramics glass and other objects that his father Philip Lehman had begun assembling The 116 Italian drawings analyzed and discussed in this volume are among the more than 2 000 works of art from the collection now housed in the Robert Lehman Wing of The Metropolitan Museum of Art Robert Lehman's collection demonstrates the variety of drawings produced in Italy from the fifteenth to the seventeenth century a period when the purposes and techniques of drawings as well as the aims and abilities of the artist who made them became increasingly sophisticated The volume includes an elaborate design for an equestrian monument by Antonio Pollaiuolo a magnificent study of a bear by Leonardo da Vinci a cartoon by Luca Signorelli a study for a vault fresco by Taddeo Zuccaro and many other drawings that are among the best Italian examples to have survived from that era Most types of drawings in a wide variety of techniques are represented figure studies grand compositions landscapes cartoons modelli and even sculptors studies Metropolitan Museum of Art website

Provenance Gail Feigenbaum, Inge Jackson Reist, 2012 This volume of essays offers new arguments regarding the significance of the social biography of art and the transformative power of ownership It realigns the traditional art historical paradigm that focuses on the moment of an object's origin and instead considers the long duration of ownership Whereas the term provenance may call to mind little more than a list of owners or the legal questions raised by competing entitlement claims the essays in this book demonstrate that a nuanced approach recuperates important even dramatic aspects of the history of art The authors present a broad perspective on provenance investigating examples from Europe Asia Africa and the Americas and from ancient archaeology to conceptual art They explore how stories of ownership are attached to objects analyze important distinctions between provenance and provenience and show how provenance can be monetized politicized suppressed or otherwise instrumentalized Page 4 of cover

European Drawings 4 Nicholas Turner, 2001-01-03 The collection of drawings at the Getty Museum was started in 1981 with the purchase of Rembrandt's Nude Woman with a Snake and has steadily expanded since then so that now at the turn of the new millennium it stands at more than six hundred drawings and is sheer for sheer one of the best anywhere The Getty goal is to create from the finest examples a collection of the different Western European schools of drawing before 1900 with special emphasis on the work of the most important and accomplished draftsmen The collection now contains superb examples of the work of Leonardo da Vinci Raphael Michelangelo Durer Rembrandt Claude Lorraine Watteau Gainsborough David Millet Manet Van Gogh and Degas This is the fourth in the series of catalogues describing the drawings in the Getty Museum Most of the drawings discussed in the present volume were chosen for the collection in the period of 1994 to 1998 and include examples from the Italian German Dutch and Flemish French Spanish and British schools Also included are several gifts from private collectors which mark the start of a tradition that it is hoped will continue in the future The catalogue entries for these new acquisitions are organized first by national school and then by artist The book also includes a bibliography and indexes of artists former owners related drawings prints and works in other media

French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Old Master Prints and Drawings Carlo James, Marjorie B. Cohn, 1997 This long awaited English edition of Manuale per la conservazione e il restauro di disegni e stampe antichi 1991 offers a clear and complete manual for the preservation and conservation of old master prints and drawings The authors throw light on the historical and scientific backgrounds concerning the problems of restoration techniques of arts on paper from 1150 when paper was first introduced in Europe until the middle of the nineteenth century The book is indispensable for anyone occupied with the study and conservation of old prints and drawings This richly illustrated first English edition is revised and brought fully up to date
