Marriage Alliance:

Marriage Alliance in Late Medieval Florence Anthony Molho, 1994 How did propertied families in late medieval and early modern Florence maintain their power and affluence while clans elsewhere were fatally undermined by the growth of commerce and personal freedom and the consequences of the Plague Molho suggests that the answer is found in the twin institutions of arranged marriage and the dowry

Flattering Alliances Peter Lindström, Svante Norrhem, 2015-01-01 Taking a fresh look at the history of diplomacy this book looks at the fight for hegemony between France and Austria after the Peace of Westphalia 1648 showing how their clashes dragged the Scandinavian kingdoms into European top level politics and forced them to take part in the play constantly negotiating risks and profits Historians Peter Lindström and Svante Norrhem discuss how the Great Powers were binding allies to their side and how the Scandinavian countries and their political elites responded Many of the diplomatic strategies were solidified through family alliances patronage and economic politics something quite different from what is expected from today's diplomatic neutralities

Caste and Equality in India Akio Tanabe, 2021-07-29 This book presents an alternative view of caste in Indian society by analysing caste structure and change in local communities in Orissa from historical and anthropological perspectives Focusing on the agricultural society in the Khurda district of Orissa between the eighteenth century and 2019 the book links discussions on the current transformation of society and politics in India with analyses of long term historical transformations The author suggests that beyond status and power there is another value which is important in Indian society namely ontological equality which functions as the politico ethical ground for asserting respect and concern for the life of others The book argues that the value of ontological equality has played an important role in creating and affirming the diverse society which characterises India It further contends that the movement towards vernacular democracy which has become conspicuous since the second half of the 1990s is a historically groundbreaking event which opens a path beyond the postcolonial predicament supported by the affirmation of diversity by subalterns based on the value of ontological equality This important contribution to the study of Indian society will be of interest to academics working on the social political and economic history sociology anthropology and political science of South Asia as well as to those interested in social and political theory

The Anthropology of Marriage in Lowland South America Paul Valentine, Stephen Beckerman, Catherine Alès, 2017-05-09

Foremost scholars of indigenous Amazonia explore the vast and interesting gap between rules and practice demonstrating how sociocultural systems endure and even prosper due to the flexibility creativity and resilience of the people within them

Jeremy M Campbell author of Conjuring Property Speculation and Environmental Futures in the Brazilian Amazon A landmark volume and a major contribution to the study of kinship and marriage in Amazonian societies an area of the world that has been pivotal to our understanding of the biocultural dimensions of cousin marriage and polygamy

Nancy E Levine author of The Dynamics of Polyandry Kinship Domesticity and Population on the Tibetan Border This volume reveals that individuals in Amazonian cultures often disregard or reinterpret the marriage rules of their societies rules that anthropologists previously thought reflected practice It is the first book to consider not just what the rules are but how people in these societies negotiate manipulate and break them in choosing whom to marry Using ethnographic case studies that draw on previously unpublished material from well known indigenous cultures

The Anthropology of Marriage in Lowland South America defies the tendency to focus only on the social structure of kinship and marriage that is so common in kinship studies Instead the contributors to this volume examine the people that conform to or deviate from that structure and their reasons for doing so They look not only at deviations in kinship behavior motivated by gender economics politics history ecology and sentimentality but also at how globalization and modernization are changing the ancestral norms and values themselves This is a richly diverse portrayal of agency and individual choice alongside normative kinship and marriage systems in a region that has long been central to anthropological studies of indigenous life

Paul Valentine is professor emeritus of anthropology at the University of East London Stephen Beckerman is adjunct professor at the University of Utah Together Valentine and Beckerman have coedited Revenge in the Cultures of Lowland South America and Cultures of Multiple Fathers The Theory and Practice of Partible Paternity in Lowland South America

Catherine Al s is director of research at the National Center for Scientific Research Paris and is the author of Yanomami l ire et le d sir Under the Bo Tree Nur Yalman,1971 Anthropological Perspectives On Kinship Ladislav Holy,1996-10-20 This authoritative introductory text takes into account the changes in the conceptualisation of kinship brought about by new reproductive technologies and the growing interest in culturally specific notions of personhood and gender Holy considers the extent to which Western assumptions have guided anthropological study of kinship in the past In the process he reveals a growing sensitivity on the part of anthropologists to individual ideas of personhood and gender and encourages further critical reflection on cultural bias in approaches to the subject Being Kammu Damrong Tayanin,2018-05-31 Combining autobiography and ethnography Damrong Tayanin examines the lifestyles customs practices and beliefs of the Kammu people by describing his own early experiences Ethnography of a Nomadic Tribe N. Sudhakar Rao,2002 Study with reference to Sriharikota India Caste and Capitalism in Colonial India David West Rudner,2023-11-15 David Rudner s richly detailed ethnographic and historical analysis of a South Indian merchant banking caste provides the first comprehensive analysis of the interdependence among Indian business practice social organization and religion Exploring noncapitalist economic formations and the impact of colonial rule on indigenous commercial systems Rudner argues that caste and commerce are inextricably linked through formal and informal institutions The practices crucial to the formation and distribution of capital are also a part of this linkage Rudner challenges the widely held assumptions that all castes are organized either by marriage alliance or status hierarchy and that caste structures are incompatible with the rational conduct of business This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994

Rethinking Civilizational Analysis Said Arjomand,Edward A Tiryakian,2004-05-19 At last a volume on civilization that truly reflects the complexity of multiple civilizations The wealth of contributions Arjomand and Tiryakian have assembled demonstrates the value of an old concept for understanding the awful dilemmas confronting human kind in the global age Its thoroughgoing renewal here establishes this book as the essential benchmark for future scholars of civilization Martin Albrow Founding Editor of International Sociology and author of The Global Age winner of the European Amalfi Prize 1997 In our tension filled world many are heralding and others fearing a clash of civilizations The contributors to this volume provides a healthy and persuasive argument about why this clash need not and certainly should not take place They do so moreover not by rejecting the concept of civilization but by developing a less primordial homogenous and essentialist concept of it An important collection that provides illumination in this sometimes frighteningly dark time Jeffrey Alexander Professor and Chair of Sociology at Yale University The concept of civilization may well replace the notions of globalization and identity as the core component in the vocabulary of 21st century sociology The authors contribute a great deal to the clarification of fashionable controversies around the clash of civilizations and multiculturalism They go a long way toward purging the concept of civilization of its ideological overtones and they succeed admirably in turning it into powerful analytic tool of an emerging field of macrosociology known already as civilizational analysis Piotr Sztompka President International Sociological Association Although the concept of civilization has deep roots in the social sciences there is an urgent need to re think it for contemporary times This book points to an exhaustion in using the nation state and world system as the basic macro units of social analysis because they do not get to grips with the soft power variable of cultural factors involved in global aspects of development Also globalization requires us to reconsider the link between civilization and a fixed or given territory This book focuses upon the dynamic aspect of civilizations Among the topics covered are Civilizational analysis and social theory Global civilization and local cultures Civilizational forms Rationalization and Civilization Civilizations as zones of prestige Historical and comparative dimensions of civilization The clash of civilizations
