Marriage and Family Enrichment Herbert Arthur Otto,1976      Marriage and Family Enrichment Wallace Denton,1986 A comprehensive overview of the history present status and future directions of the marriage and family enrichment movement

Christian Marriage David Michael Thomas,1992 This book represents a theology of marriage It is not intended as a manual for solving marital problems or as a self help guide on how to improve one s marriage Rather its basic goal is to bring forward into our time with all its uniqueness and peculiarities major insights of the Christian faith as they relate to married life Through the love of wife and husband woman and man through loving words pronounced in public in formal ceremony and unfolded in the time that ensues through the couple s collaboration with God s creative power in brining new life into the world through the spirituality lived in transforming creation the sacrament of marriage brings the Spirit of God into the world Each couple has the power to block this process but what is more important to affirm is their capacity to advance it

And it happens From Chapter 1      The Second Handbook on Parent Education Marvin J. Fine,2014-06-28 This book should enhance the reader s understanding of the contemporary scene in parenting education including effective programming important issues and future trends      Handbook Of Family Therapy Alan S. Gurman,David P.

Kniskern,2014-07-22 First published in 1981 This volume is unique as to date no previous book and no collection of papers one could assemble from the literature addresses or achieves for the field of family therapy what is accomplished in this handbook It responds to a pressing need for a comprehensive source that will enable students practitioners and researchers to compare and assess critically for themselves an array of major current clinical concepts in family therapy      Marriage Enrichment Richard A. Children, Youth, and Families Robert N. Rapoport, 1985-10-31 This book first published in 1986 examines the connections between social science research and actions to improve the situations of children and families

Research and Practice in Social Skills Training A.S. Bellack, M. Hersen, 2013-11-11 It is perhaps trite to refer to human beings as social animals but nevertheless it is true A substantial portion of our lives is spent in interactions with other people Moreover the nature quality and quantity of those interactions have a tremendous impact on behavior mood and the adequacy of adjustment Faulty interpersonal relationship patterns have reliably been associated with a wide variety of behavioral psychological dysfunctions ranging from simple loneliness to schizophrenia Most traditional analyses of interpersonal failures have viewed them as consequences or by products of other difficulties such as anxiety depression intrapsychic conflict or thought disorder Consequently remedial efforts have rarely been directed to interpersonal behavior per se Rather it has been expected that interpersonal relationships would improve when the source disorder was eliminated While this model does account for some interpersonal dysfunctions e.g. social anxiety can inhibit interpersonal behavior it is not adequate to account for the vast majority of interpersonal difficulties In fact in many cases those difficulties either are independent of or underlie other dysfunctions e g repeated social failure may produce depression or social anxiety

Treating Stress In Families..... Charles Figley,2013-05-24 Provides an overview of the causes and treatment approaches for counseling families under stress and focuses on several examples of extreme tension      Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard John Clinebell,Howard Clinebell,Bridget Clare McKeever,2011 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish      Lifelong Education for Adults C.J. Titmus,2014-06-28 Lifelong Education for Adults An International Handbook is the first work intended to offer international encyclopedic coverage of research and studies in the whole field of adult education With 127 articles written by international specialists this work will be an invaluable reference source for all those who are engaged in educational activities for adults either as full time planners administrators of educational programmes or part time adult educators There are for example articles on education for work and for living on population education peace and environmental education and on learning for personal development and role fulfilment Conceptual frameworks practical issues relating to instructional methods counselling curriculum and evaluation and developments in distance learning group learning and adult learning are some of the topics discussed Systems of adult education worldwide as well as adult education processes and practices are covered region by region The problems and initiatives of the developing countries are given attention alongside those of advanced countries The collection of articles assembled in this Handbook is unique in the range and depth of treatment given to the field of adult education This volume will thus be of great interest to all engaged in educational activities for adults in adult schools community centres institutions of higher education as well as educationalists planners and decision makers throughout the world who are involved in adult education at all levels      Basic Concepts In Family Therapy Linda Berg-Cross,2014-05-12 First published in 1987 Basic Concepts in Family Therapy An Introductory Text presents seventeen basic psychological concepts that you may use in understanding your family or if you are a member of the helping professions your clients families Each chapter focuses on a single concept using material from three sources family therapy literature basic psychological and clinical research studies and cross cultural research studies By combining the findings of family therapy practitioners with the empirical findings of basic psychological researchers and cross cultural researchers we can deepen our understanding of the usefulness of each of these constructs as well as their limitations      Handbook of Prevention Barry A. Edelstein,Larry Michelson,2012-12-06 Americans are healing themselves Heckler 1985 and prevention has taken root McGinnis 1985a We are altering our lifestyle to reduce physical and mental health risks Perhaps as important is the fact that the science of prevention is beginning to catch up with the practices of prevention although some might argue that the popularity of these practices far outstrips sound theoretical and empirical foundations The chapter authors in this volume examine the theoretical and empirical foundations of many current prevention practices and where data exist discuss the status of prevention efforts Where substantial prevention is not yet on the horizon the authors attempt to point us in the right direction or at least share with the reader some of the risk factors that should be addressed in our research We hope that readers will be stimulated to discuss the issues raised advance the current research and where possible adopt the prevention and health promotion strategies that are supported by sound theoretical and empirical work This volume can in no way be comprehensive with respect to the current work in prevention however we hope that we have provided a sampling of prevention activities and issues that appear together in one volume for perhaps the first time The primary intent of this volume is modest and the reader should not attempt to find continuity among the various chapters The only binding among these contributions is their focus on prevention

Pastoral Counseling: A Ministry of the Church John H. Patton, 2002-08-27 Pastoral counseling is unique and John Patton widely known practitioner and teacher explains that uniqueness in the context of other forms of therapy available He then determines what pastoral counseling is and how it is done His theory focuses on the centrality of the pastoral relationship reclaiming pastoral counseling as a legitimate ministry of the church He shows that the pastoral relationship is common to both the generalist and the specialist in counseling and explains how his concept of relational humanness is the norm for Christian pastoral counseling The accountability of the pastoral counselor in regard to the story of Jesus in terms of his her role and function as minister and in relation to the community the church which ordains and the peers in ministry is discussed How to structure a pastoral counseling interview how to determine the unit of care and how healing occurs in pastoral counseling are all important facets of this excellent book Case studies an index and notes are included

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Marvin B. Sussman, 2013-11-11 The lucid straightforward Preface of this Handbook by the two editors and the comprehensive perspectives offered in the Introduction by one of them leave little for a Foreword to add It is therefore limited to two relevant but not intrinsically related points vis a vis research on marriage and the family in the interval since the first Handbook Christensen 1964 appeared namely the impact on this research of the politicization of the New Right and of the Feminist Enlightenment beginning in the mid sixties about the time of the first Handbook In the late 1930s Willard Waller noted Fifty years or more ago about 1890 most people had the greatest respect for the institution called the family and wished to learn nothing whatever about it Everything that concerned the life of men and women and their children was shrouded from the light Today much of that has been changed Gone is the concealment of the way in which life begins gone the irrational sanctity of the home The aura of sentiment which once protected the family from discussion clings to it no more We want to learn as much about it as we can and to understand it as thoroughly as possible for there is a rising recognition in America that vast numbers of its families are sick from internal frustrations and from external buffeting We are engaged in the process of reconstructing our family institutions through criticism and discussion 1938 pp 3 4      Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 2008-11-19 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production      Religious Education in the Small Membership Church Dr. Nancy T. Foltz, 2013-08-01 RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE SMALL MEMBERSHIP CHURCH is a comprehensive resource aimed at making religious education more effective all along the line in small churches From a living ecology of solid theory and proven research this book develops exciting possibilities and helpful procedures to maximize religious education opportunities in small church settings Packaged with this volume is a huge wall chart summarizing highly important information on religious education in small membership churches
