Marriage Procedure In Islam The:

The History of Women's Mosques in Chinese Islam Maria Jaschok, Shui Jingjun Shui, 2013-10-11 This is a study of Chinese Hui Muslim women's historic and unrelenting spiritual educational political and gendered drive for an institutional presence in Islamic worship and leadership a mosque of one's own as a unique feature of Chinese Muslim culture The authors place the historical origin of women's segregated religious institutions in the Chinese Islamic diaspora's fight for survival and in their crucial contribution to the cause of ethnic religious minority identity and solidarity Against the presentation of complex historical developments of women's own site of worship and learning the authors open out to contemporary problems of sexual politics within the wider society of socialist China and beyond to the history of Islam in all its cultural diversity

Islamic Divorce in North America Julie Macfarlane, 2012-04-30 Policy makers and the public are increasingly attentive to the role of shari'a in the everyday lives of Western Muslims with negative associations and public fears growing among their non-Muslim neighbors in the United States and Canada The most common way North American Muslims relate to shari'a is in their observance of Muslim marriage and divorce rituals recourse to traditional Islamic marriage and to a lesser extent divorce is widespread Julie Macfarlane has conducted hundreds of interviews with Muslim couples as well as with religious and community leaders and family conflict professionals Her book describes how Muslim marriage and divorce processes are used in North America and what they mean to those who embrace them as a part of their religious and cultural identity The picture that emerges is of an idiosyncratic private ordering system that reflects a wide range of attitudes towards contemporary family values and changes in gender roles Some women describe pervasive assumptions about restrictions on their role in the family system as well as pressure to accept these values and to stay married Others of both genders describe the gradual modernization of Islamic family traditions and the subsequent emergence of a Western shari'a but a continuing commitment to the rituals of Muslim marriage and divorce in their private lives Readers will be challenged to consider how the secular state should respond in order to find a balance between state commitment to universal norms and formal equality and the protection of religious freedom expressed in private religious and cultural practices

The Islamic Traditions of Cirebon A.G. Muhaimin, 2006-11-01 This work deals with the socio-religious traditions of the Javanese Muslims living in Cirebon a region on the north coast in the eastern part of West Java It examines a wide range of popular traditional religious beliefs and practices The diverse manifestations of these traditions are considered in an analysis of the belief system mythology cosmology and ritual practices in Cirebon In addition particular attention is directed to the formal and informal institutionalised transmission of all these traditions

Islam, Law and Identity Marinos Diamantides, Adam Gearey, 2011-08-12 The essays brought together in Islam Law and Identity are the product of a series of interdisciplinary workshops that brought together scholars from a plethora of countries Funded by the British Academy the workshops convened over a period of two years in London Cairo and Izmir The workshops and the ensuing papers focus on recent debates about the nature of sacred and secular law and most engage case studies from specific countries including Egypt Israel Kazakhstan Mauritania Pakistan and the UK Islam Law and Identity also addresses broader and over arching concerns about relationships between religion human rights law and modernity Drawing on a variety of theoretical and empirical approaches the collection presents law as central to the complex ways in which different Muslim communities and institutions create and re create their identities around inherently ambiguous symbols of faith From their different perspectives the essays argue that there is no essential conflict between secular law and Shari a but various different articulations of the sacred and the secular Islam Law and Identity explores a more nuanced and sophisticated understanding of the tensions that animate such terms as Shari a law modernity and secularization

The Cambridge Companion to American Islam Juliane Hammer,Omid Safi,2013-08-12 The Cambridge Companion to American Islam offers a scholarly overview of the state of research on American Muslims and American Islam The book presents the reader with a comprehensive discussion of the debates challenges and opportunities that American Muslims have faced through centuries of American history This volume also covers the creative ways in which American Muslims have responded to the myriad serious challenges that they have faced and continue to face in constructing a religious praxis and complex identities that are grounded in both a universal tradition and the particularities of their local contexts The book introduces the reader to some of the many facets of the lives of American Muslims that can only be understood in their interactions with Islam s entanglement in the American experiment

Islamic Law and Society Emine Enise Yakar,2021-09-30 This book places context at the core of the Islamic mechanism of ift to better understand the process of issuing fatw s in Muslim and non Muslim countries thus highlighting the connection between context and contemporaneity on one hand and the adaptable perception of Islamic law on the other The practice of ift is one of the most important mechanisms of Islamic law that keeps Islamic thought about ethical and legal issues in harmony with the demands exigencies and developments of time This book builds upon the existing body of work related to the practice of ift but takes the discussion beyond the current debates with the intent of unveiling the interaction between Islamic legal methodologies and different environmental contexts The book specifically addresses the three institutions Saudi Arabia s D r al Ift Turkey s Diyanet and America s FCNA and their Islamic legal opinions fatw s in a comparative framework This demonstrates the existence of complex and diverse ideas around similar issues within contemporary Islamic legal opinions that is further complicated by the influence of international social political cultural and ideological contexts The book thus unveils a more complicated range of interactive constituents in the process of the practice of ift and its outputs fatw s The work will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of Islamic law Middle Eastern studies religion and politics

Israeli Constitutional Law in the Making Gideon Sapir,Daphne Barak-Erez,Aharon Barak,2014-07-18 In the domain of comparative constitutionalism Israeli constitutional law is a fascinating case study constituted of many dilemmas It is moving from the old British tradition of an unwritten
