Eder,2023-10-19 How did sexual relationships work before in and outside of marriage in the pre modern era What problems did contraception and sexually transmitted diseases pose How did people deal with prostitution and pornography back then What were the possibilities for same sex and queer desire and practice Using numerous examples and sources from across the continent Sexuality in Premodern Europe shows that even in earlier centuries sexual life had an elementary significance for the coexistence of couples and communities It was just as decisive for how individuals saw themselves and others as it was for maintaining the social economic and political order Franz X Eder interestingly emphasises the socio historical view of sexuality offering an apt foil for the cultural perspective which is so prevalent in the field In this book sexual behaviour is understood and thought about as social practice From this vantage point Eder deals with the function of the sexual in upbringing and socialization its significance for the image of men and women its role in marriage initiation and the importance of sexual life for marital relationships and concubinage Deviant and discriminated sexual forms such as prostitution pornography and same sex acts are also addressed throughout The book explores the ways in which many people gained sexual experiences before besides or beyond marriage even if these experiences were forbidden in former societies While research into the history of sexuality has so far dealt with such forms of the sexual primarily from the point of view of regulation and sanctioning here they are understood as positive practices that allowed people to understand and take ownership of their sexual desire Queering the Medieval Mediterranean: Transcultural Sea of Sex, Gender, Identity, and Culture, 2021-07-26 In ten essays authored by an international team of scholars this volume explores queer readings of Western and Eastern Mediterranean Europe Northern Africa Islam and Arabic traditions The contributors enter into a dialogue comparing cases from opposite sides of the Mediterranean in order to analyze the forgotten exchange of sexualities that was brought forth through the Mediterranean and its bordering landmasses during the Middle Ages This collection questions the hypothesis that distinct cultures treated sexuality and the other differently. The volume initiates the conversation around gueerness and sexuality on these trade routes and problematizes the differences between various Mediterranean cultures in order to argue that through both queerness and sexuality neighboring civilizations had access to and knowledge of common shared experiences Contributors are Sahar Amer Israel Burshatin Robert L A Clark Denise K Filos Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Edmund Hayes Gregory S Hutcheson Vicente Lled Guillem Leyla Rouhi and Robert S Sturges The Routledge History of Women in Early Modern Europe Amanda L. Cascardi, Leah Middlebrook, 2012 Poetic making from Cervantes and Gongora to Descartes and Locke Words Made Flesh Caroline Egan, 2025-11-25 Examines the role of the body in Indigenous language religious texts from colonial Latin America Words Made Flesh examines the role played by corporeality in a series of missionary linguistic and poetic projects from Brazil Peru and Mexico in early colonial Latin America Caroline Egan analyzes how works produced in Indigenous languages for the purpose of evangelization were shaped by and in turn transformed native understandings of embodiment Egan follows the trajectories of specific understudied words in the colonial corpus tracing their usage through grammars dictionaries doctrinal translations and hymns in Tupi Quechua and Nahuatl These words however might not be the first to come to mind when thinking about missionary projects in the colonial world such as God and trinity heaven and hell angel and demon Instead the book examines words like the Tupi uk to kill and man to die the Quechua sungu now often translated as heart and the Nahuatl ch ca to weep cu ca to sing and ihuinti to get drunk With complementary emphases on regional specificity and comparative ramifications Words Made Flesh argues that the changing fortunes of these words speak to significant areas of dialogue and debate between Indigenous communities and missionary writers in the late sixteenth century Cartographies of Madrid Silvia Bermudez, Anthony L. Geist, 2021-04-30 One of this book s goals is to evaluate the complex ways that Madrid has served as the political economic and cultural capital of the Global South from the end of the Franco dictatorship to the present The other is to examine the city as lived experience where citizens contest capital s push to shape urban space in its own image through activities of the imagination Scholars investigative journalists political activists and a filmmaker combine to document the vast array of Madrid s Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization Ivonne del Valle, Anna More, Rachel Sarah grassroots movements O'Toole, 2020-01-15 Through interdisciplinary essays covering the wide geography of the Spanish and Portuguese empires Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization investigates the diverse networks and multiple centers of early modern globalization that emerged in conjunction with Iberian imperialism Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization argues that Iberian empires cannot be viewed apart from early modern globalization From research sites throughout the early modern Spanish and Portuguese territories and from distinct disciplinary approaches the essays collected in this volume investigate the economic mechanisms administrative hierarchies and art forms that linked the early modern Americas Africa Asia and Europe Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization demonstrates that early globalization was structured through diverse networks and their mutual and conflictive interactions within overarching imperial projects To this end the essays explore how specific products texts and people bridged ideas and institutions to produce multiple centers within Iberian imperial geographies Taken as a whole the authors also argue that despite attempts to reproduce European models early Iberian globalization depended on indigenous agency and the agency of people of African descent which often undermined or changed these models The volume thus relays a nuanced theory of early modern globalization the essays outline the Iberian imperial models that provided templates for future global designs and simultaneously detail the negotiated and conflictive forms of local interactions that characterized that early globalization The essays here offer essential insights into historical continuities in regions colonized by Spanish and Portuguese monarchies Motherhood, Childlessness and the Care of Children in Atlantic Slave Societies Camillia Cowling, Maria Helena Pereira Toledo Machado, Diana Paton, Emily West, 2020-05-21 This book provides critical perspectives on the multiple forms of mothering that took place in Atlantic slave societies Facing repeated child death mothering was a site of trauma and grief for many even as slaveholders romanticized enslaved women s work in caring for slaveholders children Examining a wide range of societies including medieval Spain Brazil and New England and including the work of historians based in Brazil Cuba the United States and Britain this collection breaks new ground in demonstrating the importance of mothering for the perpetuation of slavery and the complexity of the experience of motherhood in such circumstances This pathbreaking collection on all aspects of the experience politics and representations of motherhood under Atlantic slavery analyses societies across the Atlantic world and will be of interest to those studying the history of slavery as well as those studying mothering throughout history This book comprises two special issues originally published in Slavery Abolition and Women's History Review
