Broadcast Hysteria A. Brad Schwartz, 2015-05-05 In Broadcast Hysteria A Brad Schwartz examines the history behind the infamous radio play Did it really spawn a wave of mass hysteria Schwartz is the first to examine the hundreds of letters sent directly to Welles after the broadcast He draws upon them and hundreds more sent to the FCC to recapture the roiling emotions of a bygone era and his findings challenge conventional wisdom Relatively few listeners believed an actual attack was under way But even so Schwartz shows that Welles's broadcast prompted a different kind of mass panic as Americans debated the bewitching power of the radio and the country's vulnerability in a time of crisis Schwartz's original research gifted storytelling and thoughtful analysis make Broadcast Hysteria a groundbreaking work of media history Managing Martians Donna Shirley, 2010-06-09 Donna Shirley's 35 year career as an aerospace engineer reached a jubilant pinnacle in July 1997 when Sojourner the solar powered self guided microwave oven sized rover was seen exploring the Martian landscape in Pathfinder's spectacular images from the surface of the red planet The event marked a milestone in space but for Donna Shirley the leader of the mostly male team that designed and built Sojourner and the first woman ever to manage a NASA program it marked a triumph of another kind Managing Martians is Shirley's captivating memoir of a life and career spent reaching for the stars From her seemingly outlandish aspiration at age ten to build aircraft to abandoning high school Home Ec in favor of mechanical drawing and at sixteen becoming a licensed pilot Shirley defied expectations from the beginning In a vivid narrative rich with anecdotes and thrilling turning points Shirley recounts the intense battles she waged to defend her vision and the ingenuity and resourcefulness of her committed team Her moment by cliffhanging moment account of Pathfinder's landing and Sojourner's first tentative foray across the sands of Mars brilliantly captures the fulfillment of a lifelong dream as it heralds a brave new era of space exploration Space Research, 2001 Beyond
