Marshall McLuhan The Medium And The Messenger:

Marshall McLuhan Philip Marchand, 1998 A new look at the man who gave us ideas the medium is the message and global village Marshall McLuhan Philip Marchand, 1989-02-01 Some considered Marshall McLuhan the oracle of the electric age others dismissed him as a charlatan But many of his predictions came true with eerie accuracy It is impossible to ignore such McLuhan phrases as the global village the medium of the message as we surf the Net or pop a cassette into the VCR McLuhan's genius was in foreseeing such cultural upheavals it is uncanny the impact his studies have had on the way we view the world This fully revised updated edition of the award winning biographical classic traces the evolution of McLuhan's theories is the key to understanding this enigmatic media guru This is the first true narrative of McLuhan's life B W photos A brilliant eloquent discussion Marshall McLuhan Philip Marchand, 1990 Some considered him the oracle of the electronic age others dismissed him as a charlatan But his predictions are coming true with eerie accuracy It is impossible to ignore such McLuhan phrases as the global village and the medium is the message as we surf the Net or watch such momentous events as the Mars landing or the Hong Kong takeover live on our personal computers or TV screens His genius was in foreseeing such cultural upheavals and his studies continue to have an impact on the way we view the world Marshall McLuhan The Medium and the Messenger traces the evolution of McLuhan's theories and is the key to understanding this enigmatic media guru From the Trade Paperback edition Marshall McLuhan [sound Recording] : the Medium and the Messenger Philip Marchand, Samples, Mac, 1992 Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye B.W. Powe, 2014-04-30 Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye are two of Canada's central cultural figures colleagues and rivals whose careers unfolded in curious harmony even as their intellectual engagement was antagonistic Poet novelist essayist and philosopher B W Powe who studied with both of these formidable and influential intellectuals presents an exploration of their lives and work in Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye Apocalypse and Alchemy Powe considers the existence of a unique visionary tradition of Canadian humanism and argues that McLuhan and Frye represent fraught but complementary approaches to the study of literature and to the broader engagement with culture Examining their eloquent but often acid responses to each other Powe exposes the scholarly controversies and personal conflicts that erupted between them and notably the great commonalities in their writing and biographies Using interviews letters notebooks and their published texts Powe offers a new alchemy of their thought in which he combines the philosophical hallmarks of McLuhan's The medium is the message and Frye's the great code The Medium and the Light Michael McLuhan, 2010-03-01 Say the name Marshall McLuhan and you think of the great discoverer's explorations of the media But throughout his life McLuhan never stopped reflecting profoundly on the nature of God and worship and on the traditions of the Church Often other intellectuals and artists would ask him incredulously Are you really a Catholic He would answer Yes I am a Catholic the worst kind a convert leaving them more baffled than before Here like a golden thread lining his public utterances on the media are McLuhan's brilliant probes into the nature of conversion the church's understanding of media the shape of tomorrow's church religion and youth and the God making machines of the modern world This fascinating collection gathered from his many and scattered remarks essays and other writings shows the deeply Christian side of a man widely considered the most important thinker of our time a man whose insights into media and culture have revolutionized the field of media study and the way we see the world The Medium is the Massage Marshall McLuhan, Quentin Fiore, 2001 First published in 1967 this text is now more relevant than ever as McLuhan's foresights about the impact of new media is actualized at unprecedented speeds via the Internet It portrays technologies as an extension of man illustrating how our senses are massaged and our perceptions altered as these devices become integral parts of our lives McLuhan in Space Richard Cavell, 2002-01-01 Demonstrates how McLuhan extended insights derived from advances in physics and artistic experimentation into a theory of acoustic space which he then used to challenge the assumptions of visual space that had been produced through print culture Media, Structures, and Power

Robert E. Babe, 2011-01-01 Containing introductions and contributions by other prominent scholars this volume situates Babe's work within contemporary scholarship and underscores the extent to which he is one of Canada's most prescient thinkers

Digital McLuhan Paul Levinson, 2003-09-02 Marshall McLuhan died on the last day of 1980 on the doorstep of the personal computer revolution Yet McLuhan's ideas anticipated a world of media in motion and its impact on our lives on the dawn of the new millennium Paul Levinson examines why McLuhan's theories about media are more important to us today than when they were first written and why the Wired generation is now turning to McLuhan's work to understand the global village in the digital age Marshall McLuhan: Theoretical elaborations Gary Genosko, 2005 This collection contains key critical essays and assessments of the writings of Canadian communications thinker Marshall McLuhan selected from the voluminous output of the past forty years McLuhan's famous aphorisms and uncanny ability to sense megatrends are once again in circulation across and beyond the disciplines Since his untimely death in 1980 McLuhan's ideas have been rediscovered and redeployed with urgency in the age of information and cybernation Together the three volumes organise and present some forty years of indispensable critical works for readers and researchers of the McLuhan legacy The set includes critical introductions to each section by the editor Forthcoming titles in this series include Walter Benjamin 0 415 32533 1 December 2004 3 vols Theodor Adorno 0 415 30464 4 April 2005 4 vols and Jean Francois Lyotard 0 415 33819 0 2005 3 vols The Toronto School of Communication Theory Rita Watson, Menahem Blondheim, 2008-02-23 While never formally recognized as a school of thought in its time the work of a number of University of Toronto scholars over several decades most notably Harold Adams Innis and Marshall McLuhan formulated a number of original attempts to conceptualize communication as a phenomenon and launched radical and innovative conjectures about its consequences This landmark collection of essays reassesses the existence and re-evaluates the contribution of the so called Toronto School of Communication While the theories of Innis and McLuhan are notoriously resistant to neat encapsulation some general themes have emerged in scholarly attempts to situate them within the discipline of communications studies that they helped to define Three such themes focus on the effects and consequences of communications emphasis on communications as a process rather than as structure and a sharp focus on the technology of communication or the medium are the most fundamental in characterizing the unique perspective of the Toronto School This collection not only represents a crucial step in defining the Toronto School it also provides close analysis of the ideas of its individual members Canada's 1960s Bryan D. Palmer,2009-01-01 Focusing on the major movements and personalities of the time as well as the lasting influence of the period Canada s 1960s examines the legacy of this rebellious decade s impact on contemporary notions of Canadian identity

Transforming McLuhan Paul Grosswiler, 2010 Transforming McLuhan explores the radical humanist line of descent in interpreting Canadian media and culture theorist Marshall McLuhan's work rejecting the dominant view of McLuhan as a conservative uncritical herald of technological determinism and capitalism This McLuhan is the oppositional critic of modernity resisting uncontrolled technological change who seeks new media forms with a human face Contributors from diverse international and academic perspectives include Douglas Kellner Nick Stevenson Gary Genosko Richard Cavell Lance Strate Glenn Willmott Patrick Brantlinger Donna Flayhan and Bob Hanke Marshall McLuhan was the first to theorize and to develop a concept of media indicating their importance to all areas of society and culture Today media are far more pervasive than in the 1950s and 1960s when he wrote Yet his work has still not received its due attention Transforming McLuhan will begin to correct this oversight Mark Poster University of California Irvine Author of What's the Matter with the Internet and Information Please Transforming McLuhan re-reads the McLuhan phenomenon in light of today's media saturated 24/7 news and smartphone world Here we meet again with the visionary Tiresias in the Underworld whose dark sayings once lit the late afternoon of the twentieth century These critical readings create a time out to question him again and to open space time interstices for alternate thoughts and alternate actions Michael Heim Mount St Mary's College Los Angeles Author of The Metaphysics of Virtual Reality and Virtual Realism Transforming McLuhan offers a rich and textured reconsideration of Marshall McLuhan's ideas demonstrating how McLuhan's work is a better match for current multi-dimensional and ambivalent understandings of media and culture than it was for the narrower conceptions that guided those who dismissed McLuhan in his own time These provocative and well-written essays persuasively engage in what I have called morphing McLuhan with other key theoretical frameworks As a result Transforming McLuhan illustrates that cultural theorists have much to learn from McLuhanism but that McLuhan's perspective also has much room for enrichment from critical media studies Joshua Meyrowitz University of New Hampshire Author of No Sense of Place The Impact of Media on Social Behavior
