expressing sympathy at the death of Martha's father Chauncey J Hamlin 4 Oct 1963 and enclosing a copy of a speech given by John B Olmsted before the Thursday Club 1936 The speech details Olmsted's political experiences including his

1950-1973 J. Benjamin Townsend, Martha Visser 't Hooft, 1973      Think to New Worlds Joshua Blu Buhs, 2024-06-24 How a writer who investigated scientific anomalies inspired a factious movement and made a lasting impact on American culture Flying saucers Bigfoot Frogs raining from the sky Such phenomena fascinated Charles Fort the maverick writer who scanned newspapers journals and magazines for reports of bizarre occurrences dogs that talked vampires strange visions in the sky and paranormal activity His books of anomalies advanced a philosophy that saw science as a small part of a larger system in which truth and falsehood continually transformed into one another His work found a ragged following of skeptics who questioned not only science but the press medicine and politics Though their worldviews varied they shared compelling questions about genius reality and authority At the center of this community was adman writer and enfant terrible Tiffany Thayer who founded the Fortean Society and ran it for almost three decades collecting and reporting on every manner of oddity and conspiracy In Think to New Worlds Joshua Blu Buhs argues that the Fortean effect on modern culture is deeper than you think Fort's descendants provided tools to expand the imagination explore the social order and demonstrate how power is exercised Science fiction writers put these ideas to work as they sought to uncover the hidden structures undergirding reality Avant garde modernists including the authors William Gaddis Henry Miller and Ezra Pound as well as Surrealist visual artists were inspired by Fort's writing about metaphysical and historical forces And in the years following World War II flying saucer enthusiasts convinced of alien life raised questions about who controlled the universe Buhs's meticulous and entertaining book takes a respectful look at a cast of oddballs and eccentrics plucking them from history's margins and spotlighting their mark on American modernism Think to New Worlds is a timely consideration of a group united not only by conspiracies and mistrust of science but by their place in an ever expanding universe rich with unexplained occurrences and visionary possibilities      LIFE ,1951-01-15 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that

Poetic Community Stephen Joyce, 2013-01-01 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War. In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina, the Caribbean Artists Movement in London, the Women's Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US, and the Toronto Research Group in Canada, the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models: small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era. Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials, Stephen Joyce offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage, Charles Olson, Adrienne Rich, Kamau Brathwaite, and bpNichol. In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid-century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism, Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post-war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War's ideological enclosures.

Contextual Practice Stephen Fredman, 2010 Fredman makes the original argument that some of the most innovative works of poetry and art in the postwar period (1945-1970) engaged in a contextual practice, a term that refers both to a way of making art characterized by assemblage and to a new relationship between art and life: an erotic poetics.

Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft Jurjen Albert Zeilstra, 2020-11-01 Er gehörte zu den bekanntesten Protestanten seiner Zeit und wurde sogar als Diplomat Gottes oder auch als Papst der kumene bezeichnet. Der niederländische Theologe Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft (1900-1985), der von 1948 bis 1966 der erste Generalsekretär des kumenischen Rates der Kirchen war, wird erstmals in einer wissenschaftlichen Biografie vorgestellt. Eng verwoben mit den großen Herausforderungen des 20. Jahrhunderts wie dem Aufstieg Hitlers und des Nationalsozialismus, des Zweiten Weltkrieges, der Nachkriegszeit, der Entkolonialisierung und dem Kalten Krieg, zeichnet Jurjen Zeilstra ein vielschichtiges Bild des Menschenfischers Visser 't Hooft, der immer wieder junge Menschen für die kumene zu begeistern wusste.

Form, Power, and Person in Robert Creeley's Life and Work Stephen Fredman, Steve McCaffery, 2010-03-15 By any measure, international reputation, influence upon fellow writers, and later generations' number of books published, scholarly and critical attention, Robert Creeley (1926-2005) is a literary giant, an outstanding, irreplaceable poet. For many decades, readers have remarked upon the almost harrowing emotional nakedness of Creeley's writing. In the years since his death, it may be that the disappearance of the writer allows that nakedness to be observed more readily and without embarrassment. Written by the foremost critics of his poetry, Form, Power, and Person in Robert Creeley's Life and Work is the first book to treat Creeley's career as a whole. Masterfully edited by Stephen Fredman and Steve McCaffery, the essays in this collection have been gathered into three parts. Those in Form consider a variety of characteristic formal qualities that differentiate Creeley from his contemporaries. In Power, writers reflect on the pressure exerted by emotions, gender issues, and politics in Creeley's life and work. In Person, Creeley's unique artistic and psychological project of constructing a person reflected in his correspondence teaching interviews collaborations and meditations on the concept of experience is excavated While engaging these three major topics the authors remain as Creeley does intent upon the ways such issues appear in language for Creeley s nakedness is most conspicuously displayed in his intimate relationship with words Contributors Charles Altieri Rachel Blau DuPlessis Stephen Fredman Benjamin Friedlander Alan Golding Michael Davidson Steve McCaffery Peter Middleton Marjorie Perloff Peter Quartermain Libbie Rifkin     Windows Robert Creeley,1990 Windows is Robert Creeley s first collection of poems since Memory Gardens 1986 It marks as its title implies a framing of realities that is neither simply passive nor reflective For Creeley age and travel have served to highlight the foreignness of everyday circumstances so that the window passages between inside and out have become increasingly more necessary for survival     Fifteen Minutes Michael F. Rizzo,2023-11-05 Are we allowed to scrutinize public art even if the public doesn t pay for it It only took the city of Buffalo 15 minutes to shut it off and five days for Mayor Jimmy Griffin to tear down Billie Lawless sculpture Green Lightning in 1984 It may have had something to do with dancing neon figures that resembled Mr Peanut But to this day it s unclear if the artist tricked the city or the city acted hastily For the first time through interviews court documents and press clippings the story of Green Lightning is told The story of Green Lightning is a cautionary tale about the importance of public art education If the public is not aware of the different meanings and interpretations of art they are more likely to react to it in a negative way It is important for people to understand that art is subjective and that what one person finds offensive another person may find beautiful     National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases     ARTnews ,1953
