

and a majestic scorn for risk and danger to establish a reign of freedom and rule of justice. . . .

"I come as a trustee, for in the depths of my heart I am aware that this prize is much more than an honor to me personally. . . . You honor the ground crew without whose labor and sacrifices the jet flights to freedom could never have left the earth. Most of these people will never make the headline. . . . Yet when the years have rolled past and the blazing light of truth is focused on this marvelous age in which we live—men and women will know, and children will be taught, that we have a finer land, a better people, a more noble civilization—because these humble children of God were willing to suffer for righteousness' sake."
