Martin Rivas:

, Martin Rivas, 1983 Martín Rivas Alberto Blest Gana, 2000-01-13 Widely acknowledged as the first Chilean novel Martin Rivas 1862 by Alberto Blest Gana 1830 1920 is at once a passionate love story and an optimistic representation of Chilean nationhood Written shortly after a decade of civil conflict it is an indispensable source for understanding politics and society in nineteenth century Chile The hero of the story is Martin Rivas an impoverished but ambitious youngster from the northern mining region of Chile who is entrusted by his late father to the household of a wealthy and influential member of the Santiago elite While living there he falls in love with his guardian's daughter The tale of their tortuous but ultimately successful love affair represents the author's desire for reconciliation between Chile's antagonistic regional and class interests Indeed many critics have interpreted Martin Rivas as a blueprint for national unity that emphasizes consensus over conflict In addition to providing commentary about the mores of Chilean society Blest Gana documents the enormous gap that existed between the rich and poor classes An invaluable text for its portrayal of contemporary social political and class conditions Martin Rivas illustrates the enriching influence that romanticism had on nineteenth century Chilean literature

Blest Gana via Machiavelli and Cervantes Patricia Vilches, 2017-01-06 This book analyzes the work of iconic Chilean author Alberto Blest Gana 1830 1920 through the lens of Machiavelli and Cervantes Transatlantic in scope it uses literary studies and cultural history to delve into Chile's emergence as a nation and to illustrate a set of conflicts among the political parties and social classes in the early days of independence the 1830s and 1850s With a focus on Martin Rivas Novela de costumbres politico sociales Martin Rivas A Novel of Socio Political Manners 1862 El ideal de un calavera The Ideal of a Rogue Libertine 1863 and Durante la Reconquista During the Reconquest 1897 this study examines the political and social exchanges and the place of social order in a critical period in Chile's national development Blest Gana's three novels vividly depict the whys and hows of Chile's early political struggles dramatically underscoring the painfully real and very deep disagreements about the nation's early direction and sense of identity and showing how political and cultural antagonisms resulted from social hierarchies For some patria was synonymous with order itself order needed to be established and maintained no matter how severe the measures The book is informed by a desire to use early narrative expressions of Chile's national identity to illuminate the political and cultural heritage of the twentieth century especially the disruptions that occurred during the government and ultimate ousting of Salvador Allende Gossens 1908 1973 president of Chile from 1970 to 1973 In Blest Gana's three texts the enmities among Chileans reveal a fundamental and ongoing social political and cultural disunity This crack in the national foundation accounts in part for what erupted during the government of Allende an idealist and a quixotic individual who believed in socialism via democracy and fought for equality in society Betrayed from all sides Allende was violently removed from power by a military junta led by Augusto Pinochet Ugarte 1915 2006 who ruled from 1973 to 1990 Under Pinochet's dictatorship books and print materials were scrutinized and censored in a way that was not unlike the period when Cervantes published the first and second parts of Don Quijote Mart n Rivas however continued to be read in schools but mostly as a love story with its political commentary effectively concealed Martin Rivas Alberto Blest Gana,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1918 edition Excerpt

CHAPTER XL Let Us return to Dona Bernarda Coldero as she went back to her house after hearing from Don Damaso the revelation of the secret which her son had hidden from her During her walk the irritation that this news had caused her increased as may be well imagined This revelation destroyed so many ambitious hopes fostered by Amador that on seeing them vanish her rancour against the deceit which had obliged her to relinquish them increased in proportion to the value that these hopes acquired when they were lost It was thus that on entering her room she threw her mantle on a chair and called to her eldest daughter in a harsh voice Adelaida came immediately Where is your brother asked Dona Bernarda He is in his room replied the girl Call him I have to speak to you both A few moments after they both arrived in the room where Dona Bernarda was waiting for them Dona Bernarda looked at her son with an expression of concentrated rage So you have deceived me she said putting both her hands on her hips with a peculiar movement of her head I Why What is it replied Amador who like all those who have a guilty conscience on account of a fault suspected on the moment the meaning of this question and he turned pale You don t know then Am I a fool that my children deceive me Here is what is the matter Is Adelaida married or not But mother have I not been telling you all these last days that everything is arranged That for the arrangement Have you nothing else to say Truly arranged treating us like negroes What do you care if we have to wander in the street Even little children will point us out Are things as bad as that said Amador dumfounded Dona Bernarda was exasperated at this
