anecdotes and analyses the readers will be enabled to discern the signs of divine transcendence in their lives and to apprehend or rather to be apprehended by the beauty of God's grace the abiding basis of our being and well being What has been written in this book reveals the heartbeat of a mentor who earnestly hungers for divine beauty and holiness a mentor whose hunger God eagerly fulfills just as he promises and a mentor who wishes this same fulfillment to happen for readers The basic assumption in this book is this a faith that is worth believing is a faith that is worth living and thus worth commending The book is also an exercise of faith seeking understanding understanding only God could supply It is written with the hope that it will lead readers from knowing God to loving him to enjoying him and finally to proclaiming him so that others will be brought into the orbit of God's inestimable grace Not until our hearts which God's heart touches touch the heart of others is our ministry complete and our life found pleasing to God Martin Luther and the Rule of Faith Todd R. Hains, 2022-10-11

Martin Luther is known for challenging the Roman Catholic church yet reading God's Word was what Luther considered his primary task Though he is often portrayed as reading the Bible with a bare approach Todd R Hains considers how Luther's interpretation of the text was actually guided by the church's established practice of hermeneutics

Dr. Martin Luther's Small Catechism Johann Michael Reu, 1929 Defending Faith Timothy J. Wengert, 2012 When in 1550 Andreas Osiander 1498-1552 advocated a different understanding of the central Lutheran doctrine of justification by faith alone most other Lutheran churches in Germany rejected his stance producing nearly one hundred opposing tracts Timothy J Wengert examines these reactions as a way of describing the theological side of confessionalization in Lutheran lands Back of dust jacket Martin Luther as Prophet, Teacher, and Hero (Texts and Studies in Reformation and Post-Reformation Thought) Robert Kolb, 1999-12-01

A study of Martin Luther's legacy explains how the view of Luther as prophet teacher and hero shaped the thought and action of his followers The Lutheran Witness, 1925 Faith and the Professions Thomas L. Shaffer, 1987-01-01 Thomas L Shaffer argues that the morals of modern American lawyers and doctors have been corrupted by misguided professionalism and weak philosophy He shows that professional codes exalt vocational principle over the traditional morals of character but that in practice America's professionals and business people cultivate the ethics of character The ethics of virtue have been neglected The ethical argument in Faith and the Professions is in part an application to professional life of the position taken by Alasdair MacIntyre in After Virtue and in Revisions and by Robert Bellah and his collaborators in Habits of the Heart It is also in part an argument for the relevance of religious ethics

Celebrating Nature by Faith H. Paul Santmire, 2020-09-09 Sometimes it is helpful to take one step backward in order to take two steps forward In this insightful volume H Paul Santmire draws on his long standing and widely recognized engagement with ecological theology to propose that the traditions of the Protestant Reformation rightly read offer rich resources today for those who are struggling to move forward to respond theologically to the crisis of a planet in peril and thereby to celebrate nature by faith Christian Faith and Life, 1903
