The Correspondence of Erasmus Desiderius

Erasmus, 2018-04-13 Volume 18 in the Collected Works of Erasmus series covers the period from 1 April 1531 to 30 March 1532 The most persistent theme in the letters is the fear to which Erasmus had long been prey that the religious strife in Germany and Switzerland would eventually lead to armed conflict His Catholic and Evangelical critics continued to annoy him In June 1531 Erasmus published his final apologia against Alberto Pio who had accused him of being the source of the Lutheran heresy Though Erasmus public controversy with the Strasbourg theologians had come to an end in 1530 he wrote a long letter to Martin Bucer emphasizing his doctrinal differences with the Strasbourgers and his low estimate of their moral character Erasmus financial affairs also figure prominently in the letters between him and his friend the banker Erasmus Schets The letters between them are testimony to his impatience with people who owed him money his frequent inability to understand the details of his own finances and his quickness to assume that people he trusted were cheating him Volume 18 of the Collected Works of Erasmus series

Calvin and the Early Reformation Brian C. Brewer, David M.

Whitford, 2019-12-09 Those who have a passing knowledge of John Calvin's theology and reforms in Geneva in the sixteenth century may picture the confident and mature theologian and preacher without appreciating the various events people and circumstances that shaped the man Before there was Protestantism's first and eminent systematic theologian there was the French youth the law student and humanist the Protestant convert and homeless exile the reluctant reformer and anguished city leader Snapshots of the young Calvin create a collage that give a bigger picture to the grey bearded Protestant reformer Eleven scholars of early modern history have joined in this volume to depict the people movements politics education sympathizers nemeses and controversies from which Calvin immersed in his young adulthood

Martin Bucer (1491-1551)

Marijn de Kroon, Willem van't Spijker, 2018-07-16 This present volume aims to stimulate Bucer research as it brings together a selection of the best of De Kroon's and Van't Spijker's articles some of which appear for the first time in English translation In the first section Bucer is described as taking his independent stand in the patristic and scholastic tradition The next five articles go into the close personal and theological relation between Bucer and John Calvin and make clear how much of Bucer works through in Calvin and Calvinism Bucer's efforts to bridge theological and ecclesiastical gaps brought him often in discussion with Catholic as well as Protestant theologians How he dealt with this is the topic of the third section in this volume The two following articles deal with his view on discipline and on the right of resistance The next articles deal with Bucer's doctrinal legacy and the last section focuses on sanctification as one of the most important characteristics of his theology. The most important issues of contemporary Bucer research and the outlines of his theology are convincingly presented in this volume by known experts for this topic.

Thomas Cranmer Diarmaid MacCulloch, 1996-01-01 The first major biography of its subject in more than thirty years makes use of new British manuscript sources to draw a rich portrait of Henry VIII's archbishop of Canterbury who guided England through the Reformation.

Un temps, une ville, Réforme Marc Lienhard, 2024-10-28 Professor Lienhard deals here primarily with the first half of the 16th century a momentous period which saw the rise and first triumphs of evangelical Christianity. His focus is upon the town of Strasbourg one of the places where the Reformation first left its mark and the articles combine to present an illuminating picture of the town's social and religious evolution over the period. Some approach the subject at an individual level with studies of the protagonists in the events such as Martin Bucer, Matthieu Zell or Thomas Murner and their differing religious viewpoints. Other articles take a broader perspective analysing the social and political background to the triumph of the Reform, the gradual emergence of a new order and local attitudes towards the new dissidents, the Anabaptists. An important section of additional notes and comments completes the volume.

Le Professeur Lienhard s'attache ici avant tout à la première moitié du XVI^e siècle période capitale qui vit la montée et les premiers triomphes du christianisme évangélique. Il se concentre sur Strasbourg un des lieux où la Réforme laissa très tôt sa marque. L'ensemble des articles présente une image clarifiante de l'évolution sociale et religieuse de la ville durant cette période. Certains abordent le sujet au travers de l'étude de plusieurs des protagonistes ayant pris part aux événements tels que Martin Bucer, Matthieu Zell ou Thomas Murner et examinent aussi leurs différents points de vue religieux. D'autres prennent une perspective plus large analysant le contexte politique et social à la base du triomphe de la Réforme et de la naissance d'un ordre nouveau ainsi que les prises de position locales envers les nouveaux dissidents, les Anabaptistes. Dans le présent recueil est accompagnée d'une importante section de notes additionnelles et de commentaires.
