The dictionary contains entries keyed by author and works; the length of each entry determined by the relative significance of the writer or movement being discussed. Each biographical entry identifies the author's literary contribution by including facts about his or her life and works; a chronological list of works; a supplementary bibliography; and when appropriate, critical notes. Authors are listed alphabetically and cross-referenced both within the text and the index to facilitate easy access to information. Violent Acts Severino João Medeiros Albuquerque, 1991. Albuquerque analyzes the use of violence in Latin American theatre from the 1950s through the 1980s. He argues that in the face of repression and torture, some playwrights counter victimization with art as urgent as street confrontation. A study from both Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries. Staging Words, Performing Worlds Gail A. Bulman, 2007. Staging Words presents new perspectives on Argentina, Cuba, Mexico, and Venezuela and their theater by postulating that nation can be imagined and reconstructed through the deliberate performance of intertexts. The book shows how past artistic texts, other plays, stories, newspaper articles, songs, or paintings can be manipulated and translated to create a new theatrical script and that this new script can expose an innovative space for interpreting the nation. The introduction reviews theories of intertextuality, nation, and nationalism and applies them to Latin America. Each chapter studies two to three plays and shows how the intertexts open up hidden connections and border spaces within texts and between texts that the new writer and reader fill with significance, replacing the meaning of the pretext with their own. This new textual voice permits texts to be restaged, reconfigured, and imagined in a way that is purely Latin American.
