Marvelous Encounters:

Marvelous Encounters Willard Bohn, 2005 The concept of poés critique poetry that possesses both a poetic and a critical function has an extensive history in modern literature Written in response to another work of art be it a painting a film a poem or a piece of music the critical poem comments on the latter in various ways but refuses to abandon its poetic mission Marvelous Encounters examines surrealist poets writing in French Spanish and Catalan who experimented with this intriguing genre The first three chapters are concerned with the French surrealists who began to cultivate critical poetry toward the end of World War I Chapter 2 considers how Louis Aragon and Philippe Soupault appropriated the critical poem as they reviewed books of poetry and films starring Charlie Chaplin Chapter 3 which examines how Benjamin Peret and Paul Eluard conceived of critical poetry analyzes their response to poems by Tristan Tzara and paintings by Giorgio de Chirico and Joan Miro Chapter 4 is devoted entirely to Andre Breton

Foreign encounters Mara R. Wade, 2005 Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism

Exploring Written Artefacts Jörg B. Quenzer, 2021-10-25 This collection presented to Michael Friedrich in honour of his academic career at the Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures traces key concepts that scholars associated with the Centre have developed and refined for the systematic study of manuscript cultures At the same time the contributions showcase the possibilities of expanding the traditional subject of manuscripts to the larger perspective of written artefacts

Culture Martin Puchner, 2023-02-07 A writer of genius William Dalrymple Can anyone really own a culture This magnificent account argues that the story of global civilisations is one of mixing sharing and borrowing It shows how art forms have crisscrossed continents over centuries to produce masterpieces From Nefertiti's lost city and the Islamic Golden Age to twentieth century Nigerian theatre and Modernist poetry Martin Puchner explores how contact between different peoples has driven artistic innovation in every era whilst cultural policing and purism have more often undermined the very societies they tried to protect Travelling through Classical Greece Ashoka's India Tang dynasty China and many other epochs this triumphal new history reveals the crossing points which have not only inspired the humanities but which have made us human

Missions of Interdependence, 2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender

Literature, Religion, and East/West Comparison Anthony C. Yu, 2005 This book pays critical homage to the eminent comparatist of Chinese and Western literature and religion Anthony C Yu of The University of Chicago Broadly comparative cross cultural and interdisciplinary in scope the volume consists of an introductory essay on Yu's scholarly career and thirteen additional essays on topics such as literary texts and traditions of varying provenance and periods ranging from ancient Greece medieval Europe and nineteenth and twentieth century England and America to China from the classical to modern periods The disciplines and areas of research that the essays draw into constructive engagement with one another include comparative literature religion and literature history of religions or comparative religion religion and social thought and the study of myth Eric Ziolkowski is Professor and Head of the Department of Religious Studies at Lafayette College

Heroic Poets, Poetic Heroes Dwight F.

Reynolds,2018-03-15 An astonishingly rich oral epic that chronicles the early history of a Bedouin tribe the Sirat Bani Hilal has been performed for almost a thousand years In this ethnography of a contemporary community of professional poet singers Dwight F Reynolds reveals how the epic tradition continues to provide a context for social interaction and commentary Reynolds s account is based on performances in the northern Egyptian village in which he studied as an apprentice to a master epic singer Reynolds explains in detail the narrative structure of the Sirat Bani Hilal as well as the tradition of epic singing He sees both living epic poets and fictional epic heroes as figures engaged in an ongoing dialogue with audiences concerning such vital issues as ethnicity religious orientation codes of behavior gender roles and social hierarchies The Cambridge History of Latin American Women's Literature Ileana Rodríguez,Mónica

Szurmuk,2015-11-12 The Cambridge History of Latin American Women s Literature is an essential resource for anyone interested in the development of women s writing in Latin America Ambitious in scope it explores women s literature from ancient indigenous cultures to the beginning of the twenty first century Organized chronologically and written by a host of leading scholars this History offers an array of approaches that contribute to current dialogues about translation literary genres oral and written cultures and the complex relationship between literature and the political sphere Covering subjects from cronistas in Colonial Latin America and nation building to feminicide and literature of the indigenous elite this History traces the development of a literary tradition while remaining grounded in contemporary scholarship The Cambridge History of Latin American Women s Literature will not only engage readers in ongoing debates but also serve as a definitive reference for years to come Chance, Literature, and Culture in Early Modern France Ms Kathleen Wine,Professor

John D Lyons,2013-04-28 In the Renaissance and early modern periods there were lively controversies over why things happen Central to these debates was the troubling idea that things could simply happen by chance In France a major terrain of this intellectual debate the chance hypothesis engaged writers coming from many different horizons the ancient philosophies of Epicurus the Stoa and Aristotle the renewed reading of the Bible in the wake of the Reformation a fresh emphasis on direct empirical observation of nature and society the revival of dramatic tragedy with its paradoxical theme of the misfortunes that befall relatively good people and growing introspective awareness of the somewhat arbitrary quality of consciousness itself This volume is the first in English to offer a broad cultural and literary view of the field of chance in this period The essays by a distinguished team of scholars from the U S Britain and France cluster around four problems Providence in Question Aesthetics and Poetics of Chance Law and Ethics and Chance and its Remedies Convincing and authoritative this collection articulates a new and rich perspective on the culture of sixteenth and seventeenth century France Surprising Bedfellows Sushil Mittal,2003-01-01

Surprising Bedfellows Hindus and Muslims in Medieval and Early Modern India argues that religious and cultural identities in medieval and early modern India were marked by fluid and constantly shifting relationships rather than by the binary model of opposition that is assumed in so much scholarship

Building on the pioneering work of scholars such as Cynthia Talbot and Brajadulal Chattopadhyaya these chapters seek to understand identity perception through romances historical documents ballads and historical epics inscriptions and even architecture The chapters in this volume urge readers to reconsider the simple and rigid application of categories such as Hindu and Muslim when studying South Asia s medieval and early modern past It is only by doing this that we can understand the past and perhaps help prevent the dangerous rewriting of Indian history
