Marx's Theories Today Ryszard Panasiuk, Leszek Nowak, 1998

Fetishism and the Theory of Value Desmond McNeill, 2020-11-12 This book demonstrates the continuing relevance of Marx's critique of the capitalist system in which value is simply equated with market price It includes chapters specifically on the environment and financialisation and presents Marx's qualitative theory of value and the associated concept of fetishism in a clear and comprehensive manner Section I demonstrates how fetishism developed in Marx's writing from a journalistic metaphor to an analytical device central to his critique In Section II commodity fetishism is distinguished from other forms of money capital and interest bearing capital There follows an analysis of Marx's complex attempt to distinguish his argument from that of Ricardo and Samuel Bailey The section ends with a discussion of the ontological status of value as a social rather than a natural phenomenon Section III considers the merits of understanding value by analogy with language and critically assesses the merits of structural Marxism Section IV challenges Marx's emphasis solely on production and considers also exchange and consumption as social relations Section V critically assesses recent Marx inspired literature relating to the two key crises of our time finance and the environment and identifies strong similarities between the key analytical questions that have been debated in each case Marx for Today Marcello Musto, 2013-09-13 Since the onset of global crisis in recent years academics and economic theorists from various political and cultural backgrounds have been drawn to Marx's analysis of the inherent instability of capitalism The rediscovery of Marx is based on his continuing capacity to explain the present In the context of what some commentators have described as a Marx renaissance the aim of this book is to make a close study of Marx's principal writings in relation to the major problems of our own society and to show why and how some of his theories constitute a precious tool for the understanding and critique of the world in the early twenty first century The book brings together varied reflections on the Marxian oeuvre drawing on different perspectives and fields and argues its case in two different parts The first will encompass such diverse areas and themes as political thought economics nationalism ethnicity post capitalist society freedom democracy emancipation and alienation showing in each case how Marx has still today an invaluable contribution to make The second presents a complete and rigorous account of the dissemination and the reception of Marx's work throughout the world in the last decade Both parts make a significant contribution to the current research on Marx and Marxism's This book was originally published as a special issue of Socialism and Democracy Friedrich Engels for the 21st Century Terrell Carver, 2022-05-16 This edited volume presents an interdisciplinary and international revaluation of Friedrich Engels as much more than junior partner to Karl Marx or second fiddle in the Marxist orchestra The nineteen critical essays in this collection are the work of scholars from Germany USA UK Italy China India Mexico and the Philippines Together they present and evaluate archival material and scholarly commentary that covers epistemology political economy political theory gender studies cultural studies political geography philosophy of social science and sociological studies of class conflict Students activists and specialists will find fresh consideration of familiar works such as The Condition of the Working Class in England The Origin of the Family Private Property and the State and The Dialectics of Nature They will also be able to explore Engels's less familiar pamphleteering literary criticism and political commentary through detailed contextualization and careful analysis Friedrich Engels for the 21st Century Perspectives and Problems is unique in putting different intellectual and political receptions of Engels's work into productive conversation particularly from non Anglophone scholars translated here into English Readers will appreciate why Engels has been so widely celebrated some two hundred years after his birth Reading Marx in the Information Age Christian Fuchs, 2015-10-23 Renowned Marxist scholar and critical media theorist Christian Fuchs provides a thorough chapter by chapter introduction to Capital Volume 1 that assists readers in making sense of Karl Marx's most important and groundbreaking work in the information age exploring Marx's key concepts through the lens of media and communication studies via contemporary phenomena like the Internet digital labour social media the media industries and digital class struggles Through a range of international current day examples Fuchs emphasises the continued importance of Marx and his work in a time when transnational media companies like Amazon Google and Facebook play an increasingly important role in global capitalism Discussion questions and exercises at the end of each chapter help readers to further apply Marx's work to a modern day context Confronting Capitalism in the 21st Century Marc Silver, 2019-06-04 Marx200: The Significance of Marxism in the 21st Century John McDonnell, Vijay Prashad, 2019-06-03 Marx200 examines the significance of Marxism for today Leading scholars and activists from different countries including Cuba India and the UK show that Marx's ideas provide us with the analysis we need to understand our world in order to change it The book is based on a conference mark the 200th anniversary of Karl Marx's birth The Marx of Communism Alexandros Chrysis, 2022-06-30 Following Marx's own itinerary from Paris to London from politics to the critique of political economy The Marx of Communism delves into a creatively unfolding international debate on the democracy communism relation while supporting a 21st century communism as a social alternative to capitalism Taking into consideration Marx's analysis of communism both as a movement and a social formation this study focuses on the dialectics of transition from capitalism to communism Dealing with communism as the outcome of a long term cultural and political process the author defends Marxian communism as the open ended constitution of a self governed demos whose citizens create their own way of life on the ground of a stateless and classless society From this point of view the end of the state does not mean the end but the revival of politics in terms of a communist bios Reshaping their collective and personal values and setting limits to the production technology dynamics of their economy this book argues the citizens of a communist polis form a promising antithesis to the private individuals of a capitalist society Marx, Alienation and Techno-Capitalism Lelio Demichelis, 2022-08-05 In this book translated into English for the first time Lelio Demichelis takes on a modern perspective of the concept process of alienation This concept much more profound and widespread today than first described and denounced by Marx has largely been forgotten and erased Using the characters of Narcissus Pygmalion and Prometheus the author reinterprets and updates Marx Nietzsche Anders Foucault and in particular critical theory and the Frankfurt School views on an administered society where everything is automated and engineered manifest today in algorithms AI machine learning and social networking showing that in a world where old and new forms of alienation come together man is increasingly led to delegate i.e. alienate sovereignty freedom responsibility and the awareness of being alive Marx, Spinoza and Darwin Mauricio Vieira Martins, 2022-10-09 Marx Spinoza and Darwin presents a common thread in its argument it shows how these authors certainly with differences among themselves consolidated a field of investigation that does not resort to transcendent or religious premises in approaching the phenomena they analyze Thus when Spinoza declared that the will of God is the sanctuary of ignorance when Marx provocatively maintained that criticism of religion is the premise of all criticism or when Darwin polemicized against a millennial creationist approach all were taking a stand that invited us to view our world through a secular and immanent lens In addition to this common thread Martins discusses other issues present in the works of these thinkers for instance the space that exists for human subjectivity from a Marxist perspective which is not to be confused with philosophical objectivism men and women are encouraged to act in the world With this conceptual background the concluding chapters of the book address the proliferation of some less examined Christian fundamentalisms in contemporary world presenting an explanatory hypothesis for the phenomenon

Marx and Contemporary Critical Theory Antonio Oliva, Ángel Oliva, Iván Novara, 2020-07-10 This edited volume brings together an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars to explore the traces of the idea of Real Abstraction in Marx's thought from the early to late writings as well as the theoretical and practical consequences of this notion in the capitalist social system Divided into two main parts Part One reconstructs Marx's notion of Real Abstraction and the influences of earlier thinkers Berkley Petty Franklin Feuerbach Hegel on his thoughts as well as the further elaborations of this concept in later Marxist thinkers Sohn Rethel Lukács Lefebvre Adorno and Postone Part Two then considers the reverberations of the notion in the field of critical theory from a more abstract critique of capitalist social relations to a more concrete understanding of historical movements Taken together the chapters in this volume offer a focused look at the concept of Real Abstraction in Marx

Marx, Marxism and the Question of Eurocentrism Kolja Lindner, 2022-04-13 This book mediates between postcolonial positions that criticize Marxist approaches and Marx's writings for their Eurocentrism and defenders of Marx who claim that this accusation is a myth In different contributions to this volume Kolja Lindner pleads for a differentiated assessment of the whole of Marx's work including less known manuscripts and a theoretical reconstruction of various elements that have come into the focus of postcolonial critique ethnocentrism Orientalism false universalism and the oblivion of modernity's global entanglement Against this background two opportunities simultaneously arise Marx's Eurocentrism can be deconstructed and his growing awareness of global developments and cosmopolitan struggles established
