Mosaic Madness Pluralism Without A Cause:

The Millennial Mosaic Reginald W. Bibby, Joel Thiessen, Monetta Bailey, 2019-07-13 The Millennial Mosaic provides an unmatched examination of Canada's youngest adults unveiling the news that they are an upgrade on older Canadians and what it means for the future of Canada Canada on the Threshold of the 21st Century Cornelius H. W.

Remie, Jean-Michel Lacroix, 1991-01-01 This collection contains a selection of papers presented at the very First All European Canadian Studies Conference that took place in The Hague October 24-27 1990 This unique meeting took place for the first time in the history of Canadian Studies The focus of the papers is on the future rather than the past and it took place at a moment in time when Canada went through major crises that raised serious doubts about the country's future The papers of this volume explore the main issues and problems that Canada faces The volume contains sections on demography environmental problems economic transformations Canadian identity political power structure aboriginal issues and Canada's international relations As a whole the book takes stock where Canada stands and where it is going Revisiting Multiculturalism in Canada Shibao Guo, Lloyd Wong, 2015-12-01 In 1971 Canada was the first nation in the world to establish an official multiculturalism policy with an objective to assist cultural groups to overcome barriers to integrate into Canadian society while maintaining their heritage language and culture Since then Canada's practice and policy of multiculturalism have endured and been deemed as successful by many Canadians As well Canada's multiculturalism policy has also enjoyed international recognition as being pioneering and effectual Recent public opinion suggests that an increasing majority of Canadians identify multiculturalism as one of the most important symbols of Canada's national identity On the other hand this apparent successful record has not gone unchallenged Debates critiques and challenges to Canadian multiculturalism by academics and politicians have always existed to some degree since its policy inception over four decades ago In the current international context there has been a growing assault on and subsequent retreat from multiculturalism in many countries In Canada debates about multiculturalism continue to emerge and percolate particularly over the past decade or so In this context we are grappling with the following questions What is the future of multiculturalism and is it sustainable in Canada How is multiculturalism related to egalitarianism interculturalism racism national identity belonging and loyalties What role does multiculturalism play for youth in terms of their identities including racialization How does multiculturalism play out in educational policy and the classroom in Canada These central questions are addressed by contributions from some of Canada's leading scholars and researchers in philosophy psychology sociology history education religious studies youth studies and Canadian studies The authors theorize and discuss the debates and critiques surrounding multiculturalism in Canada and include some very important case studies Speculative Fictions Herb Wyile, 2002-02-18 Herb Wyile provides a comparative analysis of the historical concerns and textual strategies of twenty novels published since the appearance of Rudy Wiebe's groundbreaking The Temptations of Big Bear in 1973 Drawing on the work of theorists and critics such as Hayden White

Mikhail Bakhtin Fredric Jameson Linda Hutcheon and Michel De Certeau Speculative Fictions examines the nature of these novels engagement with Canadian history historiography and the writing of historical fiction In the 1970s and early 1980s writers such as Wiebe Joy Kogawa and Timothy Findley set the stage for a predominantly postcolonial and postmodern interrogation of traditional conceptions of Canadian history the writing of history and fiction and the idea of nation Through his comparative approach Wyile emphasizes the ways in which this spirit has been sustained in more recent historical novels by Jane Urquhart Guy Vanderhaeghe Tom Wharton Margaret Atwood and others He concludes that the writing of history in English Canadian fiction over the last thirty years makes a substantial contribution to a revisioning of history and to a postcolonial renegotiation of Canada and Canadian society as we enter into a new century Diversity and Unity in Federal Countries John Kincaid,César Colino,2010 In Diversity and Unity in Federal Countries leading scholars and practitioners analyse the current political socio economic spatial and cultural diversity in the countries under consideration before delving into the role that social historical and political factors have had in shaping the balance of diversity and unity The authors assess the value placed on diversity by examining whether present institutional arrangements and public policies restrict or enhance diversity and address the future challenges of balancing diversity and unity in an increasingly populated and mobile world West Coast Mission Ross A. Lockhart,2024-10-15 Vancouver British Columbia now reports no religion as its leading religious identity putting it in the vanguard of a trend happening across North America What does this mean for the Christian communities that continue to worship work and witness in this mostly secular city West Coast Mission seeks to uncover where Christianity in Vancouver is headed now that it is a minority belief system in the broader culture Drawing on a five year study of fourteen sites including church plants congregations and para church agencies Ross Lockhart describes how Christians in Vancouver are organizing their communities shaping their beliefs and expressing themselves in mission He finds that rather than simply declining Christianity in the city is adapting in response to immigration decolonization pluralism and social crises Christians are focusing on friendship and social connection in a culture that identifies as spiritual not religious on affordable housing as a missional concern on the communal value of environmental stewardship and on sharing the gospel in light of the destructive legacies of colonialism and residential schools West Coast Mission explores the evolving spectrum of religious identity in Vancouver and the significant cultural shifts taking place in how Christian mission and witness are approached in a secular city Identity and Belonging B. Singh Bolaria,Sean Patrick Hier,2006 As Canada's ethno racial composition becomes more complex critical understandings of race ethnicity identity and belonging are increasingly important goals for social justice fairness and inclusion This edition addresses these concerns The Ever-Dying People? Robert Brym,Randal F. Schnoor,2023-02-27 Demise by assimilation or antisemitism is often held to be the inevitable future of Jews in Canada and other diaspora countries The Ever Dying People shows that the Jewish diaspora while often held to be in decline is influenced by a range of identifiable sociological and historical forces some of which breathe life into Jewish communities including Canada's Bringing together leading Canadian and international scholars The Ever Dying People provides a landmark report on Canadian Jewry based on recent surveys censuses and other contemporary data sources from Canada and around the world This collection compares Canada's Jews with other Canadian ethnic and religious groups and with Jewish communities in other diaspora countries including the United States the United Kingdom France and Australia It also sheds light on social divisions within Canadian Jewry across cities sub ethnic groups denominations genders economic strata and political orientations These bases of comparison usefully explain variation in a wide range of sociological phenomena including ethnic identity religiosity acculturation intermarriage discrimination economic achievement and educational attainment Church on the Way Nell Becker Sweeden,2015-07-17 The practice of Christian hospitality reaches back to the early centuries of Christian life as well as deep into Jewish history life and Scripture This practice is alive today in Christian churches and in parachurch organizations within the United States but new contextual realities in particular twenty first century global migration patterns have altered the conditions under which hospitality is practiced The reality of migration and its effect on human lives disrupts static conceptions of hospitality and challenges ecclesial communities toward contextual appropriation of hospitality practice This volume explores Christian hospitality practice in light of twenty first century U S Latino a migration and it develops the notion of a journeying hospitality of accompaniment with and among persons migrating which fosters deeper relationships and formation The shifting identities of persons on the move challenge assumptions about what it means to welcome another in hospitality and ultimately what it means to be church from within these new relationships In turn the new conceptions and expressions of hospitality offered in this book press how the nature and mission of the church will be oriented toward new ecclesial patterns and alternative forms of residing on earth The Tabernacled Presence of God Susan Booth,2015-09-18 Although a large majority of believers agree that they should share their faith most report that they in fact do not That's not really all that surprising given today's pluralistic cultural setting But maybe this same culture's longing for transcendence community and a place to call home points to a backstory that makes sense of it all If such a narrative exists it deserves a hearing and those who know and live this story have both the responsibility and privilege of sharing its message of hope The narrative of the Bible tells just such a story where God's purpose from the beginning has been to dwell or tabernacle in the midst of the people he has created This book traces the theme of God's tabernacling presence across Scripture reading the story afresh through a missional lens in order to gain insights for mission and gospel witness The hope is that readers will awaken wide eyed to the wonder of God's tabernacling presence in our midst that we will live in such a way that others recognize this reality and that we will boldly and joyfully share the good news of Jesus under the direction and power of his indwelling Spirit The Punjabis in British Columbia Kamala Elizabeth Nayar,2012 Contrasting immigrant experiences in remote regions and metropolitan centres of Canada The Church on the World's Turf Paul A. Bramadat,2000-06-29 Is it possible for conservative Protestant groups to survive in secular institutional settings Here Bramadat offers an ethnographic study of the Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship IVCF at McMaster University a group that espouses fundamentalist interpretations of the Bible women s roles the age of the earth alcohol consumption and sexual ethics In examining this group Bramadat demonstrates how this tiny minority thrives within the overwhelmingly secular context of the University How Am I Going to Grow Up? Enoch Wong,2022-01-04 Second generation Chinese Canadian evangelicals inhabit a complex liminal space positioned between the world of their parents and broader Canadian society In this study Dr Enoch Wong explores the silent exodus of these Canadian born Chinese from their parents churches tracing their journeys to negotiate their cultural ethnic and faith identities for themselves Utilizing both sociology of religion and leadership studies Wong s research engages Robert Greenleaf s concept of foresight in servant leadership to examine the role of church leaders in mediating or failing to mediate these transitions for children raised in immigrant churches This multi case inquiry offers insight into the concerns of Canadian born Chinese evangelicals and the cultural and generational conflicts that prompt them to search for new communities capable of understanding their identities and supporting their yearnings whether inside or outside of the church

Reflecting God's Glory Together A. Scott Moreau,Beth Snodderly,2011-09-15 The true story of mission has been deeper wider and far more diverse than many Christians in countries with long histories of church presence have realized The authors in Reflecting God s Glory Together Diversity in Evangelical Mission drive that point home in a variety of ways From Filipino and Ghanaian missionary work in North American cities to Canadian work among the Chinese diaspora to African American work in Zimbabwe the authors help us begin to grasp just how many ways evangelicals in mission are truly going from and coming to everywhere as they follow Christ s mandate to reach the nations Diverse voices utilizing diverse strategies pursuing a common call these result in a mosaic whose larger pattern glorifies the God who came to live among us and who continues to send us out in the pattern God so clearly established As editors Beth and Scott invite you to explore the stories embedded in that marvelous mosaic that we have been privileged to collect for this volume Compassionate

Mission and Evangelism in a Secularizing World Narry F. Santos,Mark Naylor,2019-02-14 Secularization as a movement away from a religious orientation to life is strong in Canada and has influence worldwide In this volume missiologists and practitioners across Canada consider how an agenda of Christian mission and evangelism can be advanced in a secularizing environment How can believers be curious and engaged rather than defensive and fearful What changes are required from the evangelical community so that there is productive dialogue and action in ways that maintain faithfulness to the cause of Christ What should the approach of mission be to a new generation steeped in secular narratives How do we answer negative caricatures of Christian mission in light of the history of Residential Schools What examples from the past teach us about developing an irenic approach What positive trends are currently evident in Canada and around the world that counter the secularizing narrative These questions and more are considered in this volume by Canadian scholars who recognize the importance of being relevant to society while maintaining integrity with the Gospel message The essays address secularism in Canadian and worldwide contexts with seriousness insight and an underlying theme of hope recognizing that God's mission has been accomplished is being accomplished and will be accomplished

Beyond a Border Peter Kivisto, Thomas Faist, 2009-12-08 The most up to date analysis of today's immigration issues As the authors state in Chapter 1 the movement of people across national borders represents one of the most vivid dramas of social reality in the contemporary world This comparative text examines contemporary immigration across the globe focusing on 20 major nations Noted scholars Peter Kivisto and Thomas Faist introduce students to important topics of inquiry at the heart of the field including Movement Explores the theories of migration using a historical perspective of the modern world Settlement Provides clarity concerning the controversial matter of immigrant incorporation and refers to the varied ways immigrants come to be a part of a new society Control Focuses on the politics of immigration and examines the role of states in shaping how people choose to migrate Key Features Provides comprehensive coverage of topics not covered in other texts such as state and immigration control focusing on policies created to control migratory flow and evolving views of citizenship Offers a global portrait of contemporary immigration including a demographic overview of today's cross border movers Offers critical assessments of the achievements of the field to date Encourages students to rethink traditional views about the distinction between citizen and alien in this global age Suggests paths for future research and new theoretical developments Beyond a Border is a part of the SAGE Pine Forge Sociology for a New Century Series It offers professors a powerful and timely option to incorporate the topic of immigration in their courses Contributor to the SAGE Teaching Innovations and Professional Development Award

Resilient Gods Reginald W. Bibby, 2017-04-15 Are Canadians becoming less religious After playing a central role in our lives for nearly a century religion did seem to be losing its salience in Canada Many observers saw this trend as inevitable reflecting secularization patterns seen elsewhere in the Western world But there is more to the story Reginald Bibby's Resilient Gods takes an in depth look at the religious landscape in Canada today Pulling together extensive data he finds that a solid core of some 30 percent continue to embrace religion while a similar proportion is rejecting it The remaining 40 percent are somewhere in the middle The picture that emerges is not one of religious decline but rather of religious polarization with the numbers of pro religious no religious and low religious in flux Such proclivities are influenced by social and cultural factors one being increased immigration which is ensuring the viability of a pro religious core The gods are here to stay Bibby argues but so what Using the most current information available including unique national survey data he explores the implications of pro religious no religious and low religious choices for personal and social well being spirituality and attitudes towards death The questions he asks are compelling and the answers thought provoking whether one embraces the gods or not The World's Cities Andrew James Jacobs, 2013 The World's Cities offers instructors and students in higher education an accessible introduction to the three major perspectives influencing city regions worldwide City Regions in a World System Nested City Regions and The City Region as the Engine of Economic Activity Growth The book provides students with helpful essays on each perspective case studies to illustrate each major viewpoint and discussion questions following each reading The World's Cities concludes with an original essay by the editor that helps students understand how an analysis incorporating a combination of theoretical perspectives and factors can provide a richer appreciation of the world's city dynamics A Social Geography of Canada Guy M. Robinson, 2013-12-30 This collection of essays focus on subjects which formed the basis of his life's work the changing character of Canadian landscape and society and the urbanization of that society including aspects of its historical evolution its present spatial forms and current social issues
