Readings On Black Children And Youth:

Readings on Black Children and Youth Lula A. Beatty, 1986 Readings on the Development of Children Mary Gauvain, Michael Cole, 2008-11-21 This collection of readings can be used as a superb supplement in child and adolescent development courses or as the primary text in graduate level seminars The new edition offers 36 readings 12 new to the collection Publisher's website Journal of African Children's & Youth Literature, 1994 Handbook of Individual Differences in Reading Peter Afflerbach, 2015-08-11 The central unifying theme of this state of the art contribution to research on literacy is its rethinking and reconceptualization of individual differences in reading Previous research focused on cognitive components of reading signaled the need for ongoing work to identify relevant individual differences in reading to determine the relationships of individual differences to reading development and to account for interactions among individual differences Addressing developments in each of these areas this volume also describes affective individual differences and the environments in which individual differences in reading may emerge operate interact and change The scant comprehensive accounting of individual differences in reading is reflected in the nature of reading instruction programs today the outcomes that are expected from successful teaching and learning and the manner in which reading development is assessed An important contribution of this volume is to provide prima facie evidence of the benefits of broad conceptualization of the ways in which readers differ The Handbook of Individual Differences in Reading moves the field forward by encompassing cognitive non cognitive contextual and methodological concerns Its breadth of coverage serves as both a useful summary of the current state of knowledge and a guide for future work in this area The Educational Work of Women's Organizations, 1890-1960 A. Knupfer, C. Woyshner, 2008-03-18 This book explores women's organizations and their various educational contributions through local state and national networks from 1890 to 1960 Contributors investigate how women united to support and sustain education in both formal and informal settings and examine various associations The Unfinished Business of the Civil Rights Movement Frank Simpkins, 2014-02 The Unfinished Business of the Civil Rights Movement Failure of America's Public Schools to Properly Educate its African American Student Populations by Frank Simpkins The Unfinished Business of the Civil Rights Movement Failure of America's Public Schools to Properly Educate its African American Student Population vividly describes the current crisis of America's inability to properly educate its African American students Many of the details and cited statistics indicate alarming illiteracy rates and high dropout rates for disadvantaged Black and Latino students across the country These rates stand in sharp contrast to those of their White peers and the Black White academic achievement gap continues to widen The author mentions other problems that afflict the Black community including the horrendous incarceration rates of young Black males the shocking rates of Black abortions and the precarious and imploding condition of the Black family in America He contends that the core of these problems lay with America's failure to properly educate its Black students These alarming figures are more than just statistics they have widespread consequences upon American society The author highlights a proven and scientifically tested dialect reading program that showed promising results for Black functionally illiterate inner city students in grades 7-12 He urges that a Second Civil Rights movement is needed to gain equal quality educational opportunities for all of America's children We cannot deny these rights to some children without disparaging all children and the nation About the Author Frank Simpkins co-authored the book Between the Rhetoric and Reality with his brother Gary Simpkins He has served a number of years in the K-12 system and as Director of Educational Opportunities Programs and Services at Barstow Community College District Exploring Culturally Diverse Literature for Children and Adolescents Darwin L.

Henderson, Jill P. May, 2005 This collection of original essays concentrates on the meaning of cultural aesthetics in children's and adolescent literature and uniquely tackles the particular issues teachers face today Discusses beginning literary patterns of a particular group stereotypic representations of American cultures imagery in American adolescent and children's literature and issues of literary inclusion Theory and practice come together throughout the three sections of the text

Critical Content Analysis of Visual Images in Books for Young People Holly Johnson, Janelle Mathis, Kathy G. Short, 2019-05-31 Extending the discussion of critical content analysis to the visual realm of picturebooks and graphic novels this book provides a clear research methodology for understanding and analyzing visual imagery Offering strategies for reading illustrations in global and multicultural literature chapter authors explore and bring together critical theory and social semiotics while demonstrating how visual analysis can be used to uncover and analyze power ideologies inequity and resistance in picturebooks and graphic novels This volume covers a diverse range of texts and types of books and offers tools and procedures for interpreting visual images to enhance the understandings of researchers teachers and students as they engage with the visual culture that fills our world These methods are significant not only to becoming a critical reader of literature but to also becoming a critical reader of visual images in everyday life Black Children's Literature Got de Blues

Nancy Tolson, 2008 Here is an innovative exploration of the blues aesthetic that reflects the literary work created by Black authors and illustrators for the Black child reader This book examines literature written for Black children using critical and creative writings by artists scholars and critics that define the blues within Black adult literature poetry and the visual arts The book identifies Black children's literature published in the past forty years by authors and illustrators who can be classified as blues artists and whose work reflects social political economical and historical developments of the Black experience throughout the United States Referencing work created by Jacqueline Woodson Walter Dean Myers John Steptoe Tom Feelings Sherley Anne Williams and others this book demonstrates how the blues aesthetic now includes the literature dedicated to Black children Reading Children's Literature: A Critical Introduction - Second Edition Carrie

Hintz, Eric L. Tribunella, 2019-03-28 Reading Children's Literature offers insights into the major discussions and debates currently animating the field of children's literature Informed by recent scholarship and interest in cultural studies and critical theory it is a compact core text that introduces students to the historical contexts genres and issues of children s literature A beautifully designed and illustrated supplement to individual literary works assigned it also provides apparatus that makes it a complete resource for working with children s literature during and after the course The second edition includes a new chapter on children s literature and popular culture including film television and merchandising and has been updated throughout to reflect recent scholarship and new offerings in children s media Handbook of Reading Research Michael L. Kamil, Peter B. Mosenthal, P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, 2014-04-08 In Volume III as in Volumes I and II the classic topics of reading are included from vocabulary and comprehension to reading instruction in the classroom and in addition each contributor was asked to include a brief history that chronicles the legacies within each of the volume s many topics However on the whole Volume III is not about tradition Rather it explores the verges of reading research between the time Volume II was published in 1991 and the research conducted after this date The editors identified two broad themes as representing the myriad of verges that have emerged since Volumes I and II were published 1 broadening the definition of reading and 2 broadening the reading research program The particulars of these new themes and topics are addressed
