Erotic Love in Sociology, Philosophy and Literature Finn Bowring, 2019-08-22. Why is love taken for granted as a part of human experience? And why is sexual or romantic love in particular so important to us? This book aims to find out, tracing the intellectual history of sexual love from the ancient Greeks to the modern day. Erotic Love in Sociology, Philosophy and Literature shows how discourses of love have intersected with social and cultural trends as well as with personal events and experiences. Beginning with the queering of love in Greek antiquity, it looks at how sexual love has been sung about, fictionalized and theorized as a cornerstone of the formation of Western culture. From the courtly love of twelfth-century troubadours and the rise of affective individualism in the eighteenth century to the way the novel helped catalyze and crystallize the hopes and contradictions of love and marriage, these are decisive episodes in the history of romantic love. Lastly, the book deals with how sociologists and feminist theorists have made sense of the liberalization of sexuality over the last fifty years, especially given the post-romantic pragmatism of commercialized dating practices. Arguing against the over-rationalism of intimate life, Erotic Love in Sociology, Philosophy and Literature recognizes the need to liberate love from patriarchal, racist and homophobic prejudices and highlights the value of literary and sociological traditions to emphasize how they dignify the rhapsodies and the sufferings of love.

Psychoanalysis, Catastrophe & Social Action Robin McCoy Brooks, 2021-09-28. Winner of the IAJS Book Award 2023 for Best Applied Book. This fascinating volume uses psychoanalytic theory to explore how political subjectivity comes about within the context of global catastrophe via the emergence of collective individuations through trans subjectivity. Serving as a jumping-off point to address the structural linkage between collective catastrophe, subject group and political transformation, trans subjectivity is the central tenet of the book, conceptualized as a psyche-social dynamic that initiates social transformation and which may be enhanced in the clinical setting. Each chapter investigates a distinct manifestation of trans subjectivity in relation to various real-world events as they manifest clinically in the analytic couple and within group processes. The author builds her conceptual arguments through a psyche social reading of Kristeva's theory of signifiante sublimation Lacan's 1945 essay on collective logic Heidegger's secular reading of the apostle Paul's Christian revolution and i ek Badiou and Jung's conception of the neighbor within a differentiated humanity The book features clinical illustrations an auto ethnographic study of the emergence of an AIDS clinic an accounting of trans subjectivity in Black revolutionary events in the U S and an examination of some expressions of care that arose in response to the COVID 19 pandemic Psychoanalysis Catastrophe Social Action is important reading for psychoanalysts psycho dynamic based therapists psychologists group therapists philosophers and political activists Truths versus Shadows, or the Real and the False F.
