Sabina Spielrein and the Poetry of Psychoanalysis Michael Plastow, 2018-12-07 Sabina Spielrein who has been mostly known for her relation with her analyst Carl Jung came to the attention of the wider public following the discovery and publication of some of her diaries and personal letters some 40 years ago The focus on her relationship with Jung and her personal story have consequently led to a neglect of her writings with many of her crucial texts even remaining untranslated into English Sabina Spielrein and the Poetry of Psychoanalysis seeks to re address this distortion of her legacy by examining her original contribution to the field such as her early analytical work with children Spielrein referred to moments of intimacy between herself and Jung as poetry Indeed as a response to what can be considered the inevitable failure in her relationship to Jung Spielrein wrote poetry and songs notes and theoretical papers These writings are examined here as her means of finishing her own analysis She was the first person to become a psychoanalyst through her own psychoanalysis a path that would later be recognised as a necessary part of the training for any analyst The book traces the poetry of Sabina Spielrein s writing through both its content and style examining the effect of these writings upon psychoanalysis and inserting them into a lineage of what Lacan would later call the passee a device that is open for the analysand to finish his or her analysis and accede to the place of psychoanalyst This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners of psychoanalysis and other clinicians including those who work with children those interested in the early history of psychoanalysis and those concerned with women s writing more generally

Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Se n Riord in to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet M irt n Dire in In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Dire in This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell s concept of the zig zag movement of a country s culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala N Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language The End of the Poet , The New Monthly Magazine and Universal Register ,1822
