Global Families Catherine Ceniza Choy,2013-10-11 In the last fifty years transnational adoption specifically the adoption of Asian children has exploded in popularity as an alternative path to family making Despite the cultural acceptance of this practice surprisingly little attention has been paid to the factors that allowed Asian international adoption to flourish In Global Families Catherine Ceniza Choy unearths the little known historical origins of Asian international adoption in the United States Beginning with the post World War II presence of the U S military in Asia she reveals how mixed race children born of Japanese Korean and Vietnamese women and U S servicemen comprised one of the earliest groups of adoptive children Based on extensive archival research Global Families moves beyond one dimensional portrayals of Asian international adoption as either a progressive form of U S multiculturalism or as an exploitative form of cultural and economic imperialism Rather Choy acknowledges the complexity of the phenomenon illuminating both its radical possibilities of a world united across national cultural and racial divides through family formation and its strong potential for reinforcing the very racial and cultural hierarchies it sought to challenge

Freedom in the World Adrian Karatnycky,2001-06-20 Freedom House s survey of freedom is the most systematic most comprehensive and most reliable survey of the individual's status in the world's political systems Freedom in the World provides an invaluable baseline in assessing the significance of world events Robert L Bartley Editor of The Wall Street Journal Freedom in the World is an institutional effort by Freedom House to monitor the progress and decline of political rights and civil liberties in 192 nations and 17 related and disputed territories These year end reviews of freedom began in 1955 when they were called the Balance Sheet of Freedom and still later the Annual Survey of the Progress of Freedom This program was expanded in the early 1970s and has been issued in a more developed context as a yearbook since 1978 Since 1989 the Survey project has been a year long effort produced by regional experts consultants and human rights specialists It derives its information from a wide range of sources Most valued of these are the many human rights activists journalists editors and political figures who keep the world informed of the human rights situation in their own countries Throughout the year Freedom House personnel regularly conduct fact finding missions to gain in depth knowledge of the vast political transformations affecting our world These investigations make every effort to meet a cross section of political parties and associations human rights monitors religious figures representatives of both the private sector and trade union movement academics and journalists Freedom in the World is now the standard reference work for measuring progress or the lack thereof in the process of regime democratization Adrian Karatnycky has directed the annual survey of political rights for Freedom House where he has served as president for the past decade This year's survey team includes Martin Edwin Andersen Kristen Guida Aili Piano Arch Puddington Leonard R Sussman Edward R McMahon Cindy Shiner Amy Wong Amanda Schnetzer Charles Graybow Kendra Zaharescu Gordon Bardos and Michael Goldfarb

The Children of the Stars, 2007 International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity
