Eisenstein on the Audiovisual Robert Robertson, 2011-03-24 The pioneering film director and theorist Sergei Eisenstein is known for the unequalled impact his films have had on the development of cinema Less is known about his remarkable and extensive writings which present a continent of ideas about film Robert Robertson presents a lucid and engaging introduction to a key area of Eisenstein's thought his ideas about the audiovisual in cinema which are more pertinent today than ever before With the advent of digital technology music and sound now act as independent variables combined with the visual medium to produce a truly audiovisual result Eisenstein explored in his writings this complex exciting subject with more depth and originality than any other practitioner and this is an accessible and original exploration of his ideas Winner of the Kraszna Krausz Foundations And Or Award for Best Moving Image Book of 2009 Eisenstein on the Audiovisual is essential reading for students and practitioners of the audiovisual in cinema and related audiovisual forms including theatre opera dance and multimedia

The Eisenstein Reader Sergei Eisenstein, 2019-07-25 For the first time in one volume this book presents in concise chronological form Sergei Eisenstein's most significant work including his famous theories of montage and articles on subjects as diverse as sound film language and Russian history The selection ranges from early writings on his silent masterpieces The Strike October and The Battleship Potemkin to later works hatched in the hostile and paranoid environment of Stalin's Soviet Union Drawn from the acclaimed four volume Selected Works this collection which includes a new introduction and explanatory notes by Richard Taylor as well as many illustrations further illuminates the startling originality diversity and power of the greatest and most flamboyant of all Russian film makers Legendary director Sergei Eisenstein has emerged as cinema's most influential theorist and author of some of the most important aesthetic writings of the twentieth century Modernism, Media, and Propaganda Mark Wollaeger, 2008-09-15 Though often defined as having opposite aims means and effects modernism and modern propaganda developed at the same time and influenced each other in surprising ways The professional propagandist emerged as one kind of information specialist the modernist writer as another Britain was particularly important to this double history By secretly hiring well known writers and intellectuals to write for the government and by exploiting their control of new global information systems the British in World War I invented a new template for the manipulation of information that remains with us to this day Making a persuasive case for the importance of understanding modernism in the context of the history of modern propaganda Modernism Media and Propaganda also helps explain the origins of today's highly propagandized world Modernism Media and Propaganda integrates new archival research with fresh interpretations of British fiction and film to provide a comprehensive cultural history of the relationship between modernism and propaganda in Britain during the first half of the twentieth century From works by Joseph Conrad to propaganda films by Alfred Hitchcock and Orson Welles Mark Wollaeger traces the transition from literary to cinematic propaganda while offering compelling close readings of major fiction by Virginia Woolf Ford Madox Ford and James Joyce After Kubrick Jeremi Szaniawski, 2020-02-20 Taking at its starting point the idea that Kubrick's cinema has constituted an intellectual cerebral and philosophical maze in which many filmmakers as well as thinkers and a substantial fringe of the general public have gotten lost at one point or another this collection looks at the legacy of Kubrick's films in the 21st century The main avenues investigated are as follows a look at Kubrick's influence on his most illustrious followers Paul Thomas Anderson the Coen Brothers Christopher Nolan Ridley Scott and Lars von Trier to name a few Kubrick in critical reception Kubrick in stylistic camera movements set designs music thematic artificial intelligence new frontiers large and small aesthetic the question of genre pastiche stereoscopy and political terms paranoia democracy and secret societies conspiracy theories The contributions coalesce around the concept of a Kubrickian substrate rich and complex which permeates our Western cultural landscape very much to this day informing and sometimes announcing reflecting it in twisted ways 21 years after the director's death Theorising National Cinema Valentina Vitali, Paul Willemsen, 2019-07-25 Why do we think of clusters of films as national cinema Why has the relationship between the nation and film become so widely and uncritically accepted Theorising National Cinema is a major contribution to work on national cinema by many of the leading scholars in the field It addresses the knotty and complex relationship between cinema and national identity showing that the nationality of a cinema production company and the films that it made have not always been seen as pertinent. The volume begins by reviewing and rethinking the concept of national cinema in an age of globalisation and it goes on to chart the parallel developments of national film industries and the idea of a nation state in countries as diverse as Japan, South Korea, Russia, France and Italy. The issues of a national cinema for nation states of contested status with disputed borders or displaced peoples is discussed in relation to film making in Taiwan, Ireland and Palestine. The contributors also consider the future of national cinema in an age of trans national cultural flows exploring issues of national identity and cinema in Latin America, Asia, the Middle East, India, Africa and Europe. Theorising National Cinema also includes a valuable bibliography of works on national cinema.

The Routledge Companion to Film History William Guynn, 2010-09-13. The Routledge Companion to Film History is an indispensable guide for anyone studying film history for the first time. Incorporating a series of 11 introductory critical essays on key subject areas with a dictionary of key names and terms, it serves to introduce the reader to the field of film history in a comprehensive and well rounded manner.

Explorations in Cinema through Classical Indian Theories Gopalan Mullik, 2020-06-26. This book explores cinema and film theory through classical Indian theories. While non Western philosophies have largely been ignored by existing paradigms, Gopalan Mullik responds through an interrogation of how audio visual images are processed by the audiences at the basic level of their being outside of Western experience. In the process, this book moves away from the heavily Eurocentric film discourse of today while also detailing how this new platform for understanding cinema at the most basic level of its meaning can build upon existing film theories rather than act as a replacement for them.

The Early Film Music of Dmitry Shostakovich Joan Titus, 2016. New Babylon 1928, 1929 and scoring for the silent film Alone 1929, 1931 and the beginnings of sound film Golden Mountains 1931 and the new Soviet sound film Counterplan 1932 and the socialist realist film Youth of Maxim 1934, 1935 and the minimal score Girlfriends 1935, 1936 and the girls of the future.

The Spectre of Tradition and the Aesthetic-Political Movement of Theatre and Performance Min Tian, 2022-10-25. This book interrogates anew the phenomenon of tradition in a dialogical debate with a host of Western thinkers and critical minds. In contrast to the predominantly Western approaches which look at traditions Western and non Western from a predominantly Western modernist perspective, this book interrogates from an intercultural perspective the transnational and transcultural consecration, translation, re-invention and displacement of traditions theatrical and cultural in the aesthetic political movement of twentieth century theatre and performance as exemplified in the case studies of this book. It looks at the question of traditions and modernities at the centre of this aesthetic political space as modernities interculturally evoke and are haunted by traditions and as traditions are interculturally refracted, reconstituted, refunctioned and reinvented. It also looks at the applicability of its intercultural perspective on tradition to the historical avant garde in general, postmodern, postcolonial and postdramatic theatre and performance and to the twentieth century.

classical intercultural theatre and the twenty first century new interculturalisms in theatre and performance To conclude it looks at the future of tradition in the ecology of our globalized theatrum mundi and considers two important interrelated concepts future tradition and intercultural tradition This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies

Esfir Shub Ilana Shub Sharp,2021-12-30 Esfir Shub was the only prominent female director of nonfiction film present at the dawning of the Soviet film industry She was in fact the first woman both to write critical texts on cinema and then practically apply these theorisations in her own films As such her syncretism of cinema theory and praxis inspired her to ask questions regarding both the nature of nonfiction film such as the problem of authenticity and reality and the function of the artist in society issues which are still relevant in contemporary discussions about the documentary Accordingly this book demonstrates Shub s position not only as a significant filmmaker and recognised member of the early Soviet avant garde but also as a key figure in global cinema history Shub deserves recognition both as the founder and ardent promoter of the compilation film genre and as a pioneer of the theory and practice of documentary filmmaking

The Battleship Potemkin Richard Taylor,2001-01-12 The KINO Russian Cinema series has been expanding to provide students and general readers with readable companion handbooks to important and interesting films of Russian cinema from its beginnings to the late 1990s This volume investigates the production context and reception of the film Battleship

Potemkin the people who made it and the film itself including its place in Russian and World cinema

Space and Time in Artistic Practice and Aesthetics Sarah Lippert,2017-06-30 When the Enlightenment thinker Gotthold Ephraim Lessing wrote his treatise Laoco n An Essay on the Limits of Painting and Poetry in 1766 he outlined the strengths and weaknesses of each art Painting was assigned to the realm of space poetry to the realm of time Space and Time in Artistic Practice and Aesthetics explores how artists since the eighteenth century up to the present day have grappled with the consequences of Lessing s theory and those that it spawned As the book reveals many artists have been and continue to be influenced by Lessing like theories which have percolated into the art education and art criticism Artists from Jean Raoux to Willem de Kooning and Frances Bacon and art critics such as Clement Greenberg have felt the weight of Lessing s theories in their modes of creation whether consciously or not Should we sound the death knell for the theories of Lessing and his kind Or will conceptions of temporality spatiality and artistic competition continue to unfold This book the first to consider how Lessing s writings connect to visual art s production brings these questions to the fore

Montage of a Dream John Edgar Tidwell,Cheryl R. Ragar,2007 Over a forty six year career Langston Hughes experimented with black folk expressive culture creating an enduring body of extraordinary imaginative and critical writing Riding the crest of African American creative energy from the Harlem Renaissance to the onset of Black Power he commanded an artistic prowess that survives in the legacy he bequeathed to a younger generation of writers including award winners Alice Walker Paule Marshall and Amiri Baraka Montage of a Dream extends and deepens previous scholarship multiplying the ways in which Hughes s diverse body of writing can be explored The contributors including such distinguished scholars as Steven Tracy Trudier Harris Juda Bennett Lorenzo Thomas and Christopher C De Santis carefully reexamine the significance of his work and life for their continuing relevance to American African American and diasporic literatures and cultures Probing anew among Hughes s fiction biographies poetry drama essays and other writings the contributors assert fresh perspectives on the often overlooked Luani of the Jungles and Black Magic and offer insightful rereadings of such familiar pieces as Cora Unashamed Slave on the Block and Not without Laughter In addition to analyzing specific works the contributors astutely consider subjects either lightly explored by or unavailable to earlier scholars including dance queer studies black masculinity and children s literature Some investigate Hughes s use of religious themes and his passion for the blues as the fabric of black art and life others ponder more vexing questions such as Hughes s sexuality and his relationship with his mother as revealed in the letters she sent him in the last decade of her life Montage of a Dream richly captures the power of one man s art to imagine an America holding fast to its ideals while forging unity out of its cultural diversity By showing that Langston Hughes continues to speak to the fundamentals of human nature this comprehensive reconsideration invites a renewed appreciation of Hughes s work and encourages new readers to discover his enduring relevance as they seek to understand the world in which we all live

Flemish and Dutch Artists in Early Modern England MaryBryanH. Curd,2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London s changing art market Curd s exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu s model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today

The Montage Principle, 2016-08-29 This book of essays is quite unique in that it intervenes in a still contested area within many universities that of the relevance of film to literature critical theory politics sociology and anthropology The essays were commissioned by Jean Antoine Dunne whose research has explored the impact of Eisenstein's aesthetics on different areas of modernist literature and drama The essays in this collection use Eisenstein as a point of departure into divergent fields of analysis and are concerned with the principle of montage as a transforming idea They gather within the pages of one work contributions from Geoffrey Nowell Smith Richard Taylor Paul Willemsen and emerging scholars entering and altering the field of interdisciplinary scholarship film and literature These hitherto unpublished essays not only extend and elaborate on previous treatments of Eisenstein and montage in areas such as semiotics film theory and feminist film practice but also introduce his work to areas which have not yet been considered in relation to Eisenstein and montage such as Beckett scholarship Caribbean aesthetics Third Cinema and debates around digital imagery No other collection of essays has explored the idea of montage as a structuring cultural and critical principle and the elasticity of Eisenstein's legacy in quite this way

Anthropology and Beauty Stephanie Bunn, 2018-01-17

Organised around the theme of beauty this innovative collection offers insight into the development of anthropological thinking on art aesthetics and creativity in recent years The volume incorporates current work on perception and generative processes and seeks to move beyond a purely aesthetic and relativist stance The chapters invite readers to consider how people sense and seek out beauty whether through acts of human creativity and production through sensory experience of sound light or touch or experiencing architecture visiting heritage sites or ancient buildings experiencing the environment through places of outstanding natural beauty or through cooperative action machine engineering or designing for the future
