California California. Legislature. Senate, 1923 Treasure, Treason and the Tower Paul R. Sellin, 2016-12-05 In this remarkable book the oft told narrative of Sir Walter Raleigh is blown apart through the chance discovery of hitherto neglected Dutch correspondence found in a Swedish archive Following an exciting paper trail through Jacobean history to modern day Venezuela Professor Sellin makes a convincing case for Raleigh's innocence of the charges that led him to the block in 1618 Spurred on by these documents Sellin undertook two excursions up the Orinoco river in Raleigh's wake using Raleigh's 1596 book The Discoverie of Guiana as a guide These trips convinced him that far from being a fanciful blend of fact and fiction the Discoverie is a remarkably accurate and verifiable document which allowed him to locate Raleigh's gold lode on Cerro Redondo a short distance inland from present day Los Castillos Venezuela In place of a deceitful and scheming Raleigh Sellin demonstrates how the Duke of Buckingham manoeuvred to have Raleigh executed on trumped up charges This left the way open for him to conspire with foreign powers to try to acquire the very mine he claimed Raleigh had invented to justify his actions against Spanish interests in Venezuela It is rare for a scholarly book to profoundly shake widely accepted views of so well known an historical figure as Sir Walter Raleigh but that is exactly what Paul Sellin achieves here Crammed with tales of treasure treason murder and international intrigue this book makes us think afresh of one of the greatest Elizabethan heroes Written in a relaxed and engaging style it will be of interest not only to specialists of the period but to anyone with a sense of the romance of history The Discoverie of the Large, Rich and Bewtiful Empyre of Guiana Sir

 America from the pre Columbian period up to the present      Historical Affects and the Early Modern Theater Ronda Arab, Michelle Dowd, Adam Zucker, 2015-05-15 This collection of original essays honors the groundbreaking scholarship of Jean E Howard by exploring cultural and economic constructions of affect in the early modern theater While historicist and materialist inquiry has dominated early modern theater studies in recent years the historically specific dimensions of affect and emotion remain underexplored This volume brings together these lines of inquiry for the first time exploring the critical turn to affect in literary studies from a historicist perspective to demonstrate how the early modern theater showcased the productive interconnections between historical contingencies and affective attachments Considering well known plays such as Shakespeare s Antony and Cleopatra and Thomas Dekker s The Shoemaker s Holiday together with understudied texts such as court entertainments and examining topics ranging from dramatic celebrity to women s political agency to the parental emotion of grief this volume provides a fresh and at times provocative assessment of the historical affects financial emotional and socio political that transformed Renaissance theater Instead of treating history and affect as mutually exclusive theoretical or philosophical contexts the essays in this volume ask readers to consider how drama emplaces the most personal unspeakable passions in matrices defined in part by financial exchange by erotic desire by gender by the material body and by theatricality itself As it encourages this conversation to take place the collection provides scholars and students alike with a series of new perspectives not only on the plays emotions and histories discussed in its pages but also on broader shifts and pressures animating literary studies today      9th Circuit Update , 1993
