Sacraments The Word Of God At The Mercy Of The Body:

The Sacraments Louis-Marie Chauvet, 2016-03-24 Why from its very beginnings has the Church celebrated the sacraments in particular baptism and Eucharist Why from its origin has faith in Christ which is expressed in a human free just loving way of living ruled by the gospel also been expressed in the language of rites The Sacraments by Louis Marie Chauvet offers reflections on the theology celebration and pastoral usage of the sacraments It is a textbook version of Chauvet s Symbol and Sacrament published by The Liturgical Press in 1995 that was acclaimed by theologians as offering a fresh theology of the sacraments from a perspective other than scholastic theology Liturgy and Life Timothy M. Brunk, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph The Morally Divided Body Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2012-09-01 At the same time as Catholic and evangelical Christians have increasingly come to agree on issues that divided them during the sixteenth century reformation they seem increasingly to disagree on issues of contemporary morality and ethics Do such arguments doom the prospects for realistic full communion between Catholics and evangelicals Or are such disagreements a new opportunity for Catholics and evangelicals to convert together to the triune God s word and work on the communion of saints for the world Or should our hope be different than simple pessimism or optimism In this volume eight authors address different aspects of these questions hoping to move Christians a small step further toward the visible unity of the church

Wilson, 2022-11-18 Christians have an increasingly complex and often conflicted relationship with technology As Genesis 1 succinctly and profoundly declares God created humanity in his image and as part of that vocation we are called to make something of the world Technology is one of the most important and powerful ways that human beings exercise this dominion But while technology can extend our humanity in powerful and exciting ways many of us feel that it can compromise or fracture our humanity at its core As a result questions quickly emerge What does it mean to be human How does our creation in the image of God affect the way we use design and understand technology Should our general posture toward technology be cautious or optimistic This collection of scholarly and pastoral essays drawn from the 2019 annual theology conference of the Center for Pastor Theologians offers substantive Christian reflection on a wide range of issues pertinent to a distinctly Christian vision of technology today and in the future Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan
