Sculpture With A Torch:

Sculpture With a Torch John Rood, 1968-06-01 The Encyclopedia of Sculpting Techniques John Plowman, 2003 A guide to the techniques of sculpture covers such topics as materials equipment assemblage kiln firing moldmaking welding and use of color Creating Welded Sculpture Nathan Cabot Hale, 2012-07-12 In this generously illustrated guide newly revised and updated a well known American sculptor shares his forty years of experience working with welded sculpture techniques Nathan Cabot Hale begins with the basic assumption that it is necessary for a sculptor welder to have the same professional skills as a good job welder To help readers gain those skills he demonstrates both traditional and comparatively new welding methods step by step including the oxyacetylene technique in modeling small scale figurative sculpture Mr Hale first discusses the basic tools and techniques of welded sculpture then addresses the construction of abstract and organic shapes and modeling solid figures This is followed by detailed coverage of finishing techniques arc welding and welding large scale commissioned works He even dispenses helpful practical advice on the economics of fine art exhibiting work staying alive searching out public and private support and more Over 80 helpful diagrams and more than 100 photographs accompany the text demonstrating techniques and procedures and depicting works in progress as well as finished works In a new chapter written specially for this edition Mr Hale shares the heartening artistic philosophy he has developed over his long and distinguished career Sculptors at many levels of accomplishment will find his book instructive and inspiring The Townley Gallery of Classic Sculpture in the British Museum British Museum, Henry Ellis, 1846 Classical Sculpture University of Pennsylvania. Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, Irene Bald Romano, 2006 Romano describes each piece completely with measurements accession data where known report of condition a list of the published sources and commentary reflecting the most recent scholarship Photographs provide additional information for each entry An accompanying CD includes 54 color images many of which are of the pieces Various audiences will appreciate the accessibility of the scholarship presented here students may engage in further study on some of the topics raised by individual pieces or groups of sculptures and the scholarly community will welcome a work that provides an up to date and comprehensive examination of a significant Classical sculpture collection BOOK JACKET Art Hand-book, Sculpture, Architecture, Painting David Gray, 1901 Hellenistic Sculpture Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway, 1990 This is the final volume in Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway's series of books covering the entire range of Greek sculpture from its inception to its virtual end as it merged into the production of the Roman Imperial world Volume III discusses sculptural works both architectural and free standing from approximately 100 B C to the Battle of Actium 31 B C which removed from power the last Hellenistic ruler Although some monuments may belong to the years just before or just after this timespan Ridgway's aim is to concentrate on works plausibly dated to the first century B C even those with highly controversial chronologies Famous sculptures the Laocoon the epic groups from the Sperlonga cave the Belvedere Torso the bronze Boxer in the Terme Museum and many others are discussed together with less well known pieces Ridgway gives special emphasis to the finds from two shipwrecks the Mahdia and the Antikythera wrecks that provide a reasonable terminus ante quem and argues that many of the stylistic trends and decorative objects usually considered typically Roman instead have their roots in the Greek world This last Hellenistic phase is perhaps the most interesting of the three because it documents to a great extent the transformation of the products of one culture into those of another with different interests and priorities Far from being an unimaginative inferior output driven by commercial considerations the statuary of the first century B C is vibrant and inventive drawing from many sources in a stylistic eclecticism An Art-lover's Guide to the Exposition Sheldon Cheney,1915 Volume includes an explanation of the symbolism of the architecture sculpture and painting of the Panama Pacific International Exposition The Army Communicator ,1989 Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture Norman Ridley,2024-07-30 When the Nazis came to power in January 1933 they began a program of transforming Germany from a democracy into a totalitarian state but it was not a matter of simply enforcing compliance The people had to be coaxed into believing in the new regime Hearts and minds had to be won over and one of the ways the Nazis did that was to create an ideal of German nationhood in which everyone could feel proud This was especially the case with art which came to be used as a powerful tool of propaganda both to disseminate the myth amongst the population and indicate to the Nazi administrators the sort of cultural environment they should create It was not an easy thing to do While the nation was being re created as a dynamic modern and powerful industrial giant all the signals coming from Hitler indicated that his own idyllic view of the German nation was of a traditional rural people deep rooted in a romantic mystical aesthetic Hitler s own experience as an artist in Vienna before the First World War had shown that while technically proficient his work was detached and impersonal Despite being rejected by the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts he continued to see himself as artistically gifted especially in the field of architecture This book looks at how the artistic side of Hitler s personality dominated Nazi aesthetics and the ways in which the Third Reich manipulated public opinion and advanced its political agenda using the power of art Despite his early setbacks Hitler always thought of himself first and foremost an artist He would frequently break off discussions with diplomats and soldiers to veer off on a lecture about his ideas on art and architecture which had been formed during his time in Vienna Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture explores how Hitler s artistic and architectural vision for Germany led to the monumental structures which we now associate with the Third Reich alongside the rural idyl he sought to espouse and how they came to symbolise the re emergent power of a German nation which would dominate Europe Sculpting Doughboys Jennifer Wingate,2017-07-05 Redressing the neglect of World War I memorials in art history scholarship and memory studies Sculpting Doughboys considers the hundreds of sculptures of American soldiers that dominated the nation s sculptural commemorative landscape after World War I To better understand these doughboys the name given to both members of the American Expeditionary Forces and the memorials erected in their image this volume also considers their sculptural alternatives including depictions of motherhood nude male allegories and expressions of anti militarism It addresses why doughboy sculptures came to occupy such a significant presence in interwar commemoration even though art critics objected to their unrefined realism by considering the social upheavals of the Red Scare America s burgeoning consumer and popular culture and the ambitions and idiosyncrasies of artists and communities across the country In doing so this study also highlights the social and cultural tensions of the period as debates grew over art s changing role in society and as more women and immigrant sculptors vied for a place and a voice in America s public sphere Finally Sculpting Doughboys addresses the fate of these memorials nearly a century after they were dedicated and poses questions for reframing our relationship with war memorials today

Animating the Antique

Sarah Betzer, 2022-01-28 Framed by tensions between figural sculpture experienced in the round and its translation into two dimensional representations Animating the Antique explores enthralling episodes in a history of artistic and aesthetic encounters Moving across varied locations among them Rome Florence Naples London Dresden and Paris Sarah Betzer explores a history that has yet to be written that of the Janus faced nature of interactions with the antique by which sculptures and beholders alike were caught between the promise of animation and the threat of mortification Examining the traces of affective and transformative sculptural encounters the book takes off from the decades marked by the archaeological art historical and art philosophical developments of the mid eighteenth century and culminates in fin de si cle anthropological psychological and empathic frameworks It turns on two fundamental and interconnected arguments that an eighteenth century ontology of ancient sculpture continued to inform encounters with the antique well into the nineteenth century and that by attending to the enduring power of this model we can newly appreciate the distinctively modern terms of antique sculpture s allure As Betzer shows these eighteenth century developments had far reaching ramifications for the making and beholding of modern art the articulations of art theory the writing of art history and a significantly queer Nachleben of the antique Bold and wide ranging Animating the Antique sheds light upon the work of myriad artists in addition to that of writers ranging from Goethe and Winckelmann to Hegel Walter Pater and Vernon Lee It will be especially welcomed by scholars and students working in eighteenth and nineteenth century art history art writing and art historiography

Historical and Philosophical Issues in the Conservation of Cultural Heritage

Nicholas Stanley-Price, Nicholas Price, M. Kirby Talley, Alessandra Melucco Vaccaro, 1996-09-26 This volume is the first comprehensive collection of texts on the conservation of art and architecture to be published in the English language Designed for students of art history as well as conservation the book consists of forty six texts some never before translated into English and many originally published only in obscure or foreign journals The thirty major art historians and scholars represented raise questions such as when to restore what to preserve and how to maintain aesthetic character Excerpts have been selected from the following books and essays John Ruskin The Seven Lamps

of Architecture Bernard Berenson Aesthetics and History in the Visual Arts Clive Bell The Aesthetic Hypothesis Cesare Brandi Theory of Restoration Kenneth Clark Looking at Pictures Erwin Panofsky The History of Art as a Humanistic Discipline E H Gombrich Art and Illusion Marie Cl Berducou The Conservation of Archaeology and Paul Philippot Restoration from the Perspective of the Social Sciences The fully illustrated book also contains an annotated bibliography and an index

Abstraction Matters Cristina Baldacci, Michele Bertolini, Stefano Esengrini, 2018-11-20 From the archaic funerary and sacred stones to the most recent three dimensional objects sculpture has been determined by a dualistic tension between the urge for imitation of natural forms mimesis and the desire to freely shape autonomous configurations abstraction Within such a complex history the second half of the 20th century has been a particularly intense period Besides their abstract works many sculptors developed an extraordinarily rich theoretical discourse This collection of essays presents some of the most eminent protagonists of this crucial historical moment by focusing on the artists own words In their analysis the contributors have followed three key notions Sensation Idea and Language that fruitfully collect different artists under a common conceptual arch and show the aesthetic relevance of abstraction in sculpture This book addresses high level undergraduate and graduate students as well as the scholarly community in the fields of aesthetics and art criticism art history and art theory visual cultural and media studies Leonardo ,1971 International journal of contemporary visual artists Popular Protest And Political Culture In Modern China Jeffrey N Wasserstrom, 2018-02-07 This innovative and widely praised volume uses the dramatic occupation of Tiananmen Square as the foundation for rethinking the cultural dimensions of Chinese politics Now in a revised and expanded second edition the book includes enhanced coverage of key issues such as the political dimensions of popular culture addressed in a new chapter on Chinese rock and roll by Andrew Jones and the struggle for control of public discourse in the post 1989 era discussed in a new chapter by Tony Saich Two especially valuable additions to the second edition are art historian Tsao Tsing yuan s eyewitness account of the making of the Goddess of Democracy and an exposition of Chinese understandings of the term revolution contributed by Liu Xiaobo one of China s most controversial dissident intellectuals The volume also includes an analysis by noted social theorist and historical sociologist Craig C Calhoun of the similarities and differences between the new social movements of recent decades and the old social movements of earlier eras TEXT CONCLUSION To facilitate classroom use the volume has been reorganized into groups of interrelated essays The editors introduce each section and offer a list of suggested readings that complement the material in that section The Ordensburg Vogelsang Franz Albert Heinen, 2014 Italian and Spanish Sculpture Peggy Fogelman, Peter Fusco, Marietta Cambareri, 2002-12-26 The catalogue is abundantly illustrated including multiple views of each sculpture BOOK JACKET Sculptures from Roman Syria II Mustafa Koçak, Detlev Kreikenbom, 2022-12-05 For the first time this publication comprehensively documents and analyzes the Greek and Roman statuary discovered to date in the greater area of Syria The text portion describes nearly all monuments in detail and classifies them in the context of the history of ancient sculpture The associated volume of plates documents every item in detail typically with four photographic views
