and pastoral counselors Familiar Quotations John Bartlett, 1891 Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible: Proverbs Ronald E. Clements, 2019-06-18 This extract from the Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible provides Clements' introduction to and concise commentary on Proverbs. The Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible presents in nontechnical language the best of modern scholarship on each book of the Bible, including the Apocrypha. Reader-friendly commentary complements succinct summaries of each section of the text and will be valuable to scholars, students, and general readers. Rather than attempt a verse-by-verse analysis, these volumes work from larger sense units, highlighting the place of each passage within the overarching biblical story. Commentators focus on the genre of each text: parable, prophetic oracle, legal code, and so on, interpreting within the historical and literary context. The volumes also address major issues within each biblical book, including the range of possible interpretations and refer readers to the best resources for further discussions.

Greek Laughter and Tears Margaret Alexiou, 2017-06-05 Explores the range and complexity of human emotions and their transmission across cultural traditions. What makes us laugh and cry sometimes at the same time? How do these two primal, seemingly discrete and non-verbal modes of expression intersect in everyday life and ritual, and what range of emotions do they evoke? How may they be voiced, shaped, and coloured in literature and liturgy, art and music? Bringing together scholars from diverse periods and disciplines of Hellenic and Byzantine studies, this volume explores the shifting shapes and functions of laughter and tears. With a focus on the tragic, the comic, and the tragicomic dimensions of laughter and tears in art, literature, and performance, as well as on their emotional, socio-cultural, and religious significance, it breaks new ground in the study of ancient and Byzantine affectivity. Key features: Includes an international cast of 25 distinguished contributors. Prominence is given to performative arts and to interactions with other cultures. Transitions from Late Antiquity to Byzantium and from Byzantium to the Renaissance form focal points from which contributors look backwards, forwards, and sideways.
