The Broadview Anthology of British Literature Volume 2: The Renaissance and the Early Seventeenth Century - Third Edition Joseph Black, Leonard Connolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J. McGann, Anne Lake Prescott, Barry V. Qualls, Claire Waters, 2016-03-14 In all six of its volumes The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser known writers The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race gender class and sexual orientation It includes comprehensive introductions to each period providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors extensive explanatory annotations and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials Innovative authoritative and comprehensive The Broadview Anthology of British Literature has established itself as a leader in the field The full anthology comprises six bound volumes together with an extensive website component the latter has been edited annotated and designed according to the same high standards as the bound book component of the anthology and is accessible by using the passcode obtained with the purchase of one or more of the bound volumes For the third edition of this volume a considerable number of changes have been made Newly prepared for example is a substantial selection from Baldassare Castiglione's The Courtier presented in Thomas Hoby

s influential early modern English translation Thomas Kyd's The Spanish Tragedy is another major addition. Also new to the anthology are excerpts from Thomas Dekker's plague pamphlets. We have considerably expanded our representation of Elizabeth I's writings and speeches as well as providing several more cantos from Edmund Spenser's Faerie Queene and adding selections from Sir Philip Sidney's Arcadia. We have broadened our coverage too to include substantial selections of Irish Gaelic, Scottish and Welsh literature. Perhaps most notable of the numerous authors in this section are two extraordinary Welsh poets Dafydd ap Gwilym and Gwerful Mechain. Mary Sidney Herbert's writings now appear in the bound book instead of on the companion website. Margaret Cavendish, previously included in volume 3 of the full anthology, will now also be included in this volume; we have added a number of her poems with an emphasis on those with scientific themes. The edition features two new Contexts sections: a sampling of Tudor and Stuart Humor and a section on Levellers, Diggers, Ranters and Covenanters. New materials on emblem books and on manuscript culture have also been added to the Culture A Portfolio contexts section. There are many additions to the website component as well, including Thomas Deloney's Jack of Newbury, also published as a stand-alone BABL edition. We are also expanding our online selection of transatlantic material with the inclusion of writings by John Smith, William Bradford and Anne Bradstreet.

The Cambridge Companion to World Literature Ben Etherington, Jarad Zimble, 2018-10-31. The Cambridge Companion to World Literature introduces the significant ideas and practices of world literary studies. It provides a lucid and accessible account of the fundamental issues and concepts in world literature, including the problems of imagining the totality of literature, comparing literary works across histories, cultures and languages, and understanding how literary production is affected by forces such as imperialism and globalization. The essays demonstrate how detailed critical engagements with particular literary texts call forth differing conceptions of world literature and conversely how theories of world literature shape our practices of readings. Subjects covered include cosmopolitanism, transnationalism, internationalism, scale and systems, sociological criticism, translation, scripts and orality. This book also includes original analyses of genres and forms ranging from tragedy to the novel and graphic fiction, lyric poetry to the short story and world cinema.

The Threshold of Forever: Essays and Reviews Darrell Schweitzer, 2017-03-24. Darrell Schweitzer's third collection of essays and reviews, a successor to the well-received Windows of the Imagination and The Fantastic Horizon, is a balanced mixture of scholarship and entertainment ranging over the entire spectrum of imaginative literature from the oldest novel in the world, 1st century B.C. to classic and not-so-classic pulp fiction to childhood reading to examinations of the works of such masters as H.P. Lovecraft, M.R. James, Robert Bloch, Stanley Weinbaum, John W. Campbell and Thomas M. Disch. In between we encounter such surprising topics as a proposal for an H.P. Lovecraft biopic, The Whole Wide Lovecraft, the eccentricities of William Beckford, the author of Vathek, and even a report from Blobfest, an annual street fair devoted to the famous 1958 cult film at which Schweitzer, as a member of the press, was allowed to touch the original Blob. Many of these pieces have been published in the prestigious The New York Review of Science Fiction.

Schweitzer writes in an informative style that is knowledgeable, witty and highly accessible. This is the finest kind of criticism it makes you want to read more both of the critic's own prose and that of the writers he is discussing. Highly recommended.

Robert Reginald Darrell Schweitzer is a novelist, short story writer and critic, a former editor of the legendary Weird Tales magazine and a four-time World Fantasy Award finalist and one-time winner. His previous book of essays The Fantastic Horizon was a finalist for the Mythopoeic Award. The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review, 1914. Northern Lights

Byron Rempel-Burkholder, Dora Dueck, 2010-03-18. Canada is known for its wild and diverse physical geography. But do Canadians have a spiritual geography, an identity uniquely shaped by their land, their history, their people? This first of its kind collection brings together writings from within the Christian heritage to help Canadians explore that question. The forty-six contributors include award-winning literary figures, religious and political leaders, and social activists from one end of Canada to the other. Their traditions range from evangelical to Catholic, mainline Protestant to Orthodox, Pentecostal to Mennonite. Some still have family connections beyond Canada's borders; others have ancestors who were here long before Europeans came. These writers do not analyze, define, or argue about Christianity in Canada. They simply showcase it through their memoir, or poetry, fiction, or meditation, mapping into words something of what it means to be Christian in this country. The spiritual landscape they paint is diverse, inspiring, and provocative. It's a colourful dance of words, a wonderful Canadian celebration. The Nation, 1895. Surpassing Wonder. Donald H. Akenson, 2001-09-29. Elegant and inventive. Surpassing Wonder uncovers how the ancient Hebrew scriptures, the Christian New Testament, and the Talmuds of the Rabbis are related and how collectively they make up the core of Western consciousness. Donald Harman Akenson provides an incisive critique of how religious scholars have distorted the holy books and argues that it was actually the inventor of the Hebrew scriptures who shaped our concept of narrative history, thereby founding Western culture. The Congregationalist, 1922. Saturday Review of Literature, 1926. The Bookman, 1903. The United States Catalog. Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928. The Bystander, 1905. The Black Prairie Archives. Karina Vernon, 2020-02-19. The Black Prairie Archives. An anthology recovers a new regional archive of black prairie literature and includes writing that ranges from work by nineteenth-century black fur traders and pioneers, all of it published here for the first time, to contemporary writing of the twenty-first century. This anthology establishes a new black prairie literary tradition and transforms inherited understandings of what prairie literature looks and sounds like. It collects varied and unique work by writers who were both conscious and unconscious of themselves as black writers or as prairie people. Their letters, recipes, oral literature, autobiographies, rap, and poetry provide vivid glimpses into the reality of their lived experiences and give meaning to them. The book includes introductory notes for each writer in non-specialist language and notes to assist readers in their engagement with the literature. This archive and its supporting text offer new scholarly and pedagogical possibilities by expanding the nation's and the region's archives. They enrich our understanding of black Canada by bringing to light the prairies black histories cultures and presences
