The Romantic and Fascinating Story of the Pilgrims and Puritans Joseph Dillaway Sawyer,1925      Stories of Persons and Places in America Helen Ainslie Smith,1888      Marine Physiology Down East: The Story of the Mt. Desert Island Biological Laboratory David H. Evans,2015-08-13

This volume offers a comprehensive history of the Mount Desert Island Biological Laboratory MDIBL one of the major marine laboratories in the United States and a leader in using marine organisms to study fundamental physiological concepts Beginning with its founding as the Harpswell Laboratory of Tufts University in 1898 David H Evans follows its evolution from a teaching facility to a research center for distinguished renal and epithelial physiologists He also describes how it became the site of major advances in cytokinesis regeneration cardiac and vascular physiology hepatic physiology endocrinology and toxicology as well as studies of the comparative physiology of marine organisms Fundamental physiological concepts in the context of the discoveries made at the MDIBL are explained and the social and administrative history of this renowned facility is described      Crossing: A True Story Glyn

Vincent,2025-06-24 In early Spring of 2022 the author boarded a 52 foot sailboat to cross the Atlantic with a close friend and a captain and sailor he did not know From the start of the 2 600 mile trip from St Martin in the Caribbean to the Azores off Portugal things went awry with the captain the boat the weather and most precipitously the author s state of mind As a recreational sailor with no experience of being out of sight of land the author s darkest fears materialized as the small crew sailed through squalls then gales and finally a tropical storm with near hurricane force winds In Crossing Glyn Vincent explores why he ventured into the middle of the ocean in the first place and how he first fell in love with the sea He describes his unsettled childhood in New York City his parents tabloid existence his mother was the Broadway and television actress Betsy von Furstenberg and the itinerant unstable lives of his grandparents and great grandparents whose troubled history goes back on his mother s side to a Gothic castle in Germany and on his father s side to an orphanage in Alexandria Egypt and a massacre in Damascus in 1860 In the end this enthralling memoir is as much about the storm Vincent inherited and harbored within as it is about the one he encountered at sea      Geology of Holocene Barrier Island Systems Richard A.

Jr. Davis,2012-12-06 Barrier islands represent a complex coastal system that includes a number of different sedimentary depositional environments nearshore zone beach dunes washover fans marshes tidal flats estuaries lagoons and tidal inlets The morphodynamics of these fragile coastal systems provide a further complication to this coastal type Although barrier islands comprise only 15% of the world s coastline they have received a far greater proportion of attention from the scientific and engineering community and more recently from coastal managers and environmentalists Modern barrier islands are arguably the most expensive and most vulnerable of all coastal environments Pressure from developers for residential industrial and recreational development has caused most of our barriers to become significantly impacted by human activity especially over the past few decades These pressures have led to extensive preservation of natural barriers through efforts from all levels of government and also by private organizations Governments have also formed coastal management programs that help to control any future development with the intent being to keep human activity compatible with barrier island morphodynamics In order to devise appropriate coastal zone management programs it is necessary to have a comprehensive understanding of the morphodynamics of barrier island systems This volume provides comprehensive details on barrier island morphology sediment distribution and the process response mechanisms that cause changes to both These are the important aspects of barrier systems that can provide important input into the development and implementation of coastal management programs Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.),1922

The Relation of Political Economy to the Labor Questions Carroll Davidson Wright,1882 Sea History ,2000 Inland Passage David W. Shaw,1998 Set sail with this collection of stories of boating the Northeast's waterways from New Jersey to Canada Inland Passage takes readers on a tour of the natural history of the Northeast revealing how the waterways and waterfronts that make up these popular cruising grounds were formed The stories also delve deeply into the history of how human ingenuity shaped the waters and the way of life along the coast and inland waters in times long forgotten Additionally the book focuses on rare boats their owners and the many people from boatyards to museums who work to preserve them Ride the waves with Shaw as he sails the major waterways from Cape May to Lake Ontario and the Thousand Islands on the Saint Lawrence River the mountain lakes of the Adirondacks the Erie Canal the Hudson River and Lake Champlain Shaw takes readers on tours on and off shore above and below water Without ever leaving your seat you'll shove off for the coast's many fascinating lighthouses museums bridges harbors inlets beaches and artificial reefs You'll learn about New Jersey's disappearing and reappearing island and how New York Harbor was built Hear tales from the marine police find out what a sand sucker is and voyage through the most dangerous inlet on the Jersey Shore Shaw will take you boat racing whale watching and treasure hunting in the many shipwrecks along the Northeast Readers will even get a history lesson on how the unique geography of the Northeast coast effected the Revolutionary Civil and Cold wars Inland Passage brings alive the cruising experience and the people and places that make the Northeast waters so special Report of the Board of Education of the State of Connecticut to the Governor Connecticut.
