London's biography and the role played by celebrity have garnered considerable attention but the breadth of his personal experiences and political views and the many historical and cultural contexts that shaped his work are key to gaining a nuanced view of London's corpus of works as this volume's wide ranging perspectives and examples attest. The first section of this volume Materials surveys the many resources available for teaching London including editions of his works sources for his photography and audiovisual aids. In part 2 Approaches contributors recommend practices for teaching London's works through the lenses of socialism and class race gender ecocriticism and animal studies theories of evolution legal theory and regional history both in frequently taught texts such as The Call of the Wild To Build a Fire and Martin Eden and in his lesser known works. Watriama and Co Hugh Laracy, 2013-10-01 WATRIAMA AND CO the title echoes Kipling's STALKY AND CO is a collection of biographical essays about people associated with the Pacific Islands. It covers a period of almost a century and a half. However the individual stories of first hand experience converge to some extent in various ways so as to present a broadly coherent picture of Pacific History. In this politics economics and religion overlap. So too do indigenous cultures and concerns together with the activities and interests of the Europeans who ventured into the Pacific and who had a profound widespread and enduring impact there from the nineteenth century and who also prompted reactions from the Island peoples Not least significant in this process is the fact that the Europeans generated a paper trail through which their stories and those of the Islanders who also contributed to their written record can be known Thus not only are the subjects of the essays to be encountered personally and within a contextual kinship but the way in which the past has shaped the future is clearly discernible Watriama himself features in various historical narratives So too certain of his confreres in this collection which is the product of several decades of exploring the Pacific past in archives by sea and on foot through most of Oceania
