The Pilgrims Would Be Shocked: the History of Thoroughbred Racing in New England Robert Temple,2009-03-24 For 40 years the most attended sport in New England was thoroughbred racing Since 1933 when pari-mutuel racing was legalized in the region after 300 years of puritanical opposition there were 16 tracks in operation in five New England states Today there is only one track left and it's barely surviving The Pilgrims Would Be Shocked: The History Of Thoroughbred Racing In New England traces the rise and near fall of the sport beginning with its puritanical background when people were put in the stocks and fined by the Pilgrims for merely racing horses with or without wagering Finally in 1906 a meet was run at Rockingham Park in Salem New Hampshire which was financed by John D. Rockefeller A Million Dollar bet proved to be a loser as the track was quickly closed down by authorities because of gambling at the facility Wagering had not been legalized by the state legislature and church leaders and others demanded it be stopped In 1933 Lou

Smith an amazing immigrant son of impoverished Russian parents came to the Granite State and through his power of persuasion and political savvy convinced the legislature during the hard economic times of the Depression to legalize pari mutuel racing The enabling legislation was passed and the first race meeting was an unqualified artistic and financial success producing top quality racing high employment and significant revenue to Salem and the state of New Hampshire Seeing the tremendous success of New Hampshire Rhode Island legalized the sport in 1934 and Massachusetts in 1935 The tracks produced significant tax revenues and employment for these states as well For the next four decades the greatest horses including three Triple Crown winner jockeys owners and trainers competed throughout New England producing the highest caliber of racing There was no shortage of incredible occurrences during that time including the closing of Narragansett Park by the National Guard on orders of the Rhode Island governor and a man who ran out in front of the horses at the finish of a stakes race at Suffolk Downs in East Boston Beginning in the late 1970s the sport began its decline for a number of reasons This book analyzes the factors contributing to its fall in popularity and possible solution to saving it from extinction

Hollywood at the Races Alan Shuback, 2019-11-05 An informative and amusing look at the close relationship between Golden Age Hollywood and West Coast horse racing A fascinating read Christina Rice author of Mean Moody Magnificent Horse racing was so popular and influential between 1930 and 1960 that nearly 150 racing themed films were released including A Day at the Races Thoroughbreds Don't Cry and National Velvet This fast paced gossipy history explores the relationship between the Hollywood film industry the horse racing industry and the extraordinary participation of producers directors and actors in the Sport of Kings Alan Shuback details how all three of Southern California's major racetracks were founded by Hollywood luminaries Hal Roach was cofounder of Santa Anita Park Bing Crosby founded Del Mar with help from Pat O'Brien and Jack and Harry Warner founded Hollywood Park with help from dozens of people in the film community The races also provided a social and sporting outlet for the film community studios encouraged film stars to spend a day at the races especially when a new film was being released The stars presence at the track generated a bevy of attention from eager photographers and movie columnists as well as free publicity for their new films Moreover Louis B Mayer Bing Crosby Fred Astaire Betty Grable and Don Ameche were all major Thoroughbred owners while Mickey Rooney Chico Marx and John Huston were notorious for their unsuccessful forays to the betting windows The more entertaining vignettes pair the names of old time screen stars with ribald tales of racetrack depravity Thoroughbred Daily News
