The Wounded & Other Stories About Sons and Fathers Graham Leask, Ian, 2014-05-07 A British writer's first collection of stories set in a newly independent India contemporary England and the American South In the title story told from a mother's point of view a teenaged son has been taken over with alcoholic binges he vomits he loses all cognizance of himself As we learn more of the father we find that he too is an alcoholic a chain smoker and not far from death The piece ends on a note of misogyny and violent helplessness as if to imply like father like son Alcoholism violence class and racial prejudice figure throughout these stories which are often garish and melodramatic like the tale of a Britisher gone completely to seed in India Bombay Morning Leask makes it clear that he's brought his woes upon himself The same self destructive impulse grows a bit maudlin in Smoking Section about a man who can't pay his bill at a sleazy diner But in Daddy's Eyes and the fine Piggybank Leask offers a more reflective view in the first an overworked unhappily married father whose own childhood was miserable manages nonetheless to enter his small son's world with empathy and love in the second a young boy views his repulsive family's bankruptcy and abusive ways with the determination to do better The question in many of these stories may be whether alcohol has led to unpleasant behavior or whether these are unpleasant people who become even more unpleasant when they drink Accomplished but to trade upon some mythic eternal wound among men seems facile The women here are no better Copyright 1992 Kirkus Associates LP All rights reserved
