Keith Allan

Seal Mother:

The Seal Mother Mordicai Gerstein, 1986 Based on a Scottish folktale that is known to be several centuries old Several versions of the tale of a seal who turns into a woman have inspired this version The Fur Seals and Fur-seal Islands of the North Pacific Ocean: The history, condition, and needs of the herd of fur seals resorting to the Pribilof islands by David Starr Jordan and George Archibald Clark. Illustrated by photographs, and by drawings from nature by Bristow Adams United States. Department of the Treasury. Commission on Fur-Seal Investigations, 1898 The Fur Seals and Fur-seal Islands of the North Pacific Ocean United States. Dept. of the Treasury, David Starr Jordan, United States. Department of the Treasury. Commission on Fur-seal Investigations, Leonhard Hess Stejneger, George Archibald Clark, U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, 1898 The Fur Seals and Fur-Seal Islands of the North Pacific Ocean David Starr Jordan, 1898 The Pinnipeds Marianne Riedman, 2023-12-22 The Magic of the Seal Melanie Godfrey, 2024-07-26 This book will take you on a journey to awaken a spiritual relationship with the seal familiarizing you with the seal's anima as well as its history with the Gaelic ancestors of the British Isles The Clan of the Seal on North Uist and the traditional oral storytellers were the transmitters and custodians of folklore who told tales about the kindly selchie and revered seals as sacred akin to their own family The gentle seal will help reclaim what is lost within as we remember our Celtic heritage and identity in this fragile world Seal lore teaches valuable lessons in integrity and kindness and ignites our imagination leading us to the seal's inner landscape of presence and peace inevitably towards our own inner peace This is the magic of the seal not lost but found

The Fur Seals and Fur-seal Islands of the North Pacific Ocean: The history, condition, and needs of the herd of fur seals resorting to the Pribilof Islands David Starr Jordan, United States. RSPB Spotlight Seals Frances Dipper,2021-03-18

Seals are the sleekest and most agile of all marine mammals and they are superbly adapted to the watery world in which they spend most of their time With their whiskery dog like faces curious nature and vulnerable pups they are enduringly appealing animals Although air breathing seals are superbly tuned to hunt sleep mate and keep warm while out at sea but they remain inextricably linked to land In Spotlight Seals Frances Dipper explores the intricate lives of the UK s native Grey and Common Seals and their amazing physical and behavioural adaptations to a life split between land and sea She reveals the complex physiology that allows seals to dive deep and for long periods without coming to any harm Once exploited for their meat and skins seals now have protection around the British Isles Their numbers are increasing but they still face the danger of plastic litter in their environment Dipper also explores age old legends interactions between humans and seals and the best places to watch them in the UK The Spotlight series introduces readers to the lives and behaviour of our favourite animals with eye catching colour photographs and informative expert text

Education Law Michael Imber,Tyll van Geel,J. C.

Blokhuis,Jonathan Feldman,2013-10-08 Education Law 5th Edition is organized around the belief that students need to read court cases to understand the subtlety and richness of the law but for legal neophytes cases without discussion and interpretation are often too difficult to comprehend This textbook provides a comprehensive survey of the legal problems and issues that confront school administrators and policymakers today Thus the text balances an explanation of the important principles of education law with actual court decisions to illuminate these concepts The court decisions are carefully edited to highlight issues most relevant to administrators and each chapter explores implications for policy and practice This new edition features additional content on bullying student privacy free speech rights teacher evaluation collective bargaining and issues relating to Internet and technology as well as revised materials dealing with education policy and updating of references and case law throughout A companion website with materials for students and instructors including links to full cases a glossary of key concepts and discussion questions to help students further engage with the content

Ethology and

Behavioral Ecology of Otariids and the Odobenid Claudio Campagna,Robert Harcourt,2021-06-02 This book is focused on the marine mammalian groups the Otariidae and the Odobenidae otherwise known as fur seals sea lions and the walrus In 30 chapters more than 60 authors from 30 institutions and 13 nationalities discuss a broad suite of topics from maternal care and mating behavior through play cognition and personality to adaptation to life in the Anthropocene The authors explore the behaviors that have allowed these semi aquatic mammals to thrive in the marine realm Many populations have recovered following historical decimation with interesting evolutionary consequences which are explored Detailed selected individual species descriptions are also provided showcasing the behavioral diversity of this engaging adaptive and highly successful group of marine mammals

A Year with the Seals Alix Morris, 2025-07-10 For readers of Jennifer Ackerman and Ed Yong environmental journalist Alix Morris recounts the year she spent following seals investigating their fascinating behaviour the effects of their extraordinary return from near extinction and how we can try to bring nature back into balance It might be their large strangely human eyes or their dog like playfulness but seals have long captured people's interest and affection making them the perfect candidate for an environmental cause as well as the subject of decades of study Alix Morris spends a year with these magnetic creatures and brings them to life on the page season by season as she learns about their intelligence their relationships with each other their ecosystems and the changing climate Along with the enigmatic seals themselves Morris gets to know all of the competing interests in the intense debate about the newly recovered seal populations in our coastal waters from local fisherman whose catch is often diminished by savvy seals to tribes who once relied on seal hunting for food clothing and medicine to seal rescue workers and biologists to surfers and swimmers now encountering seal hunting sharks in coastal waters In a world where wildlife populations are disappearing at an alarming rate A Year with the Seals is a rare look at what happens when conservation efforts actually work and how human tampering with ecosystems continues to have unexpected consequences for a wide variety of species humans included

Proceedings Paris (France). Tribunal of arbitration (Fur seal fisheries), 1895

The Odyssey of KP2 Terrie M. Williams, 2013-06-25 An inside look at a renowned marine biologist's quest to save an abandoned endangered seal pup Only eleven hundred Hawaiian monk seals survive in the wild Without intervention they face certain extinction within fifty years When a two day old Hawaiian monk seal pup later named Kauai Pup 2 or KP2 is attacked and abandoned by his mother on a beach he is rushed off on a journey that will take him across the ocean to the California marine lab of eminent wildlife biologist Dr Terrie M Williams As Williams works with the boisterous KP2 to save his species she forms a lasting bond with him that illustrates the importance of the survival of all earth's creatures and the health of the world's oceans

Exploding the Reading David Booth, 2014-11-05 One 200 year old folk tale 30 teachers and 1 000 students Ride along with literacy guru David Booth as he takes the same story to a wide variety of classrooms from kindergarten all the way through grade 12 and be amazed by the learning generated David argues that it takes two to read a book He reasons that sharing responses and bouncing ideas off others guides students to deeper thinking and challenges them to reconsider their views and increase their understanding

This intriguing book also shows teachers how to help students discover the world outside the text the origins connections place values and the different perceptions that readers have It illustrates ways to transpose that original text into other forms that let students look at the text with different eyes to ponder what might have been to challenge what they read and to add their new learning to the construct of the world Throughout the book authentic student samples and actual transcripts present students experiencing the featured story in a multitude of ways from poems and retellings to visuals and arts to conversation and blogs that will explode your definitions of comprehension response and engagement and have you looking at classroom literacy in a whole new way

Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change, 2022-07-04 Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change investigates the evolving nature of postcolonial literary criticism in response to global regional and local environmental transformations brought about by climate change It builds upon and extends previous studies in postcolonial ecocriticism to demonstrate how the growing awareness of human caused global warming has begun to permeate literary consciousness praxis and analysis The breadth of the volume s coverage the diversity of its focal locations cultures genres and texts serves as a salient reminder that while climate change is global its impacts vary effecting peoples from place to place unequally and often in accordance with their particular historical experience of colonialism and neo colonialism as well as their ongoing marginalisations Demonstrating the urgency of invoking novel epistemological approaches combining the scientific and the imaginative this book is a must read for those concerned about the present and potential impacts of climate change on formerly colonised areas of the world The comprehensive and illuminating Introduction offers a crucial history and current state of postcolonial ecocriticism as it has been and is addressing climate crises Helen Tiffin University of Wollongong The broad focus on the polar regions the Pacific and the Caribbean with added essays on environmental justice activism in India and Egypt opens up rich terrain for examination under the rubric of postcolonial and ecocritical analysis not only expanding recent studies in this field but also enabling new comparisons and conceptual linkages Helen Gilbert Royal Holloway University of London The subject is topical and vital and will become even more so as the problem of how to reconcile the demands of climate change with the effects on regions and individual nations already damaged by the economic effects of colonisation and the subsequent inequalities resulting from neo colonialism continues to grow Gareth Griffiths Em Prof University of Western Australia Proceedings of the Tribunal Bering Sea Tribunal of Arbitration, 1895 Literature and Lore of the Sea, 2021-11-08 The Enchanted Bay Cormac KH

O'Malley, 2024-10-03 It is a little known fact that Ernie O Malley renowned for his role in Ireland s revolutionary struggle was also a passionate collector of Irish folklore Centred on O Malley s native Clew Bay and its environs and transcribed by his son Cormac The Enchanted Bay is a rich tapestry of tales that showcases the enduring power of the oral tradition in Ireland From the entertaining exploits of the Gob n Saor mythical master builder to the Clare Island man who married a selkie this collection offers a glimpse into the heart of Irish storytelling A testament to O Malley s multifaceted legacy several of the stories in this compilation were gathered while he travelled Ireland as an IRA organiser The insights he gained through folklore collecting would later inform his ambitious project of recording testimonies from former comrades solidifying his place as a pivotal figure in the preservation of Irish history and culture The tales in these pages maintain the unique voices of local communities conjuring an arcane fascinating world that is slipping further from memory
