Seams Art As A Philosophical Context:

Seams Stephen Melville, Jeremy Gilbert-Rolfe, 2013-07-04 Jeremy Gilbert Rolfe brings to Melville's work the insight not only of an art critic and theorist but of a practicing artist as well. Navigating through the complexity of contemporary thought and philosophy, Gilbert Rolfe unravels the Gordian knot of the diverse discourses that circumscribe Melville's views, revealing the practicality and clarity of Melville's speculative narratives. Stephen Melville is one of the most thoughtful critics to emerge in recent years. He has applied the tools developed by Jacques Derrida and Jacques Lacan to the problems of contemporary art. With his roots in Kant, Hegel, and Heidegger, he reopens questions of art's reception, interpretation, and commentary. Not only does he articulate the limitations of these categories and how they are set into motion, stasis and balance are not the goal. He demonstrates how the territory of each of these discourses is maintained by their relationship to one another. Melville's texts not only represent the complexity of his subject.

Michael Fried and Philosophy Mathew Abbott, 2018-01-29 This volume brings philosophers, art historians, intellectual historians, and literary scholars together to argue for the philosophical significance of Michael Fried's art history and criticism. It demonstrates that Fried's work on modernism, artistic intention, the ontology of art, theatricality, and anti-theatricality can throw new light on problems in and beyond philosophical aesthetics. Featuring an essay by Fried and articles from world-leading scholars, this collection engages with philosophical themes from Fried's texts and clarifies the relevance to his work of philosophers such as Ludwig Wittgenstein, Stanley Cavell, Morris Weitz, Elizabeth Anscombe, Arthur Danto, George Dickie, Immanuel Kant, Friedrich Schiller, G. W. F. Hegel, Arthur Schopenhauer, Friedrich Nietzsche, Denis Diderot, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Roland Barthes, Jacques Rancière, and Søren Kierkegaard. As it makes a case for the importance of Fried for philosophy, this volume contributes to current debates in analytic and continental aesthetics, philosophy of action, philosophy of history, political philosophy, modernism studies, literary studies, and art theory.

Beckett's Breath Goudouna Sozita Goudouna, 2018-01-15 Examines the intersection of Samuel Beckett's thirty-second playlet Breath with the visual arts. Samuel Beckett, one of the most prominent playwrights of the twentieth century, wrote a thirty-second playlet for the stage that does not include actors, text, characters, or drama, but only stage directions. Breath (1969) is the focus and the only theatrical text examined in this study, which demonstrates how the piece became emblematic of the interdisciplinary exchanges that occur in Beckett's later writings and of the cross-fertilisation of the theatre with the visual arts. The book attends to fifty breath-related artworks, including sculpture, painting, new media, sound art, performance art, and contextualises Beckett's Breath within the intermedial and high-modernist discourse, thereby contributing to the expanding field of intermedial Beckett criticism. Key Features: Examines Beckett's ultimate venture to define the borders between a theatrical performance and purely visual representation. Juxtaposes Beckett's Breath with breath-related artworks by prominent visual artists who investigate the far-reaching potential of the representation of respiration by challenging modernist essentialism. The focus on this primary human physiological function and its relation to arts and culture is highly pertinent to studies of human performance the nature of embodiment and its relation to cultural expression Facilitates new intermedial discourses around the nature and aesthetic possibilities of breath the minimum condition of existence at the interface between the visual arts and performance practices and their relation to questions of spectacle objecthood and materiality Looking Back to the Future Griselda Pollock, 2014-04-08 In this selection of recent essays Pollock insightfully engages all major areas of contemporary theory especially focusing on sexed subjectivities post colonialism and Marxist informed history In her commentary Penny Florence places Pollock s critique of modernism art history and criticism within the context of the social political and ideological developments that have taken place since the 1970s Florence recognizes in Pollock s work a critical model that moves beyond the contradictions that take place within the history of art Pollock s own essays and Florence s commentary elaborate the complexities in evaluating this prominent theorist and feminist whose work demands a capacity to sustain contradiction Practice Stan Allen, Diana Agrest, 2000 Nine essays that practicing architect Allen wrote between 1989 and 1997 and extensively reworked over the next two years explore how the modes of representation and techniques of realization available to the architect affect the practice Though conversant in contemporary theory and architecture history he argues that concepts in architecture are not imported from other disciplines but emerge through the materials and procedures of architectural practice itself He includes many monochrome photographs but no index c Book News Inc Critical Vices Nicholas Zurbrugg, Warren Burt, 2005-07-15 This book of Nicholas Zurbrugg s challenging and provocative essays charts the most exciting developments in late 20th century multimedia art Zurbrugg challenges Jean Baudrillard s Fredric Jameson s and Achille Bonito Oliva s unfavorable accounts of postmodern techno culture Interweaving literary and cultural theory and visual studies Zurbrugg demonstrates how multimedia visionaries such as Bill Viola and Robert Wilson are notable exceptions to the neutering of mass media culture bringing together the modernist and postmodern avant garde Beauty is Nowhere Saul Ostrow, 2013-08-21 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Difference / Indifference Moira Roth, Jonathan D Katz, 2014-04-08 First Published in 1999 For the first time gathered together in book form here are the influential writings of Moira Roth articles lectures and inter views on the two men who for so long embodied the very spirit of the avant garde Marcel Duchamp and John Cage For almost thirty years Duchamp and Cage who seemed to live on the border of modernism and later of postmodernism alternately have fascinated irritated inspired and daunted the author Since her initial engagement with Duchamp and Cage in the early seventies Roth increasingly focused on the work of many American artists primarily women only to return to Duchamp and Cage intermit tently At first they were an inspiration for her writing and teaching However as they transformed themselves into classical figures she came to reconsider and re evaluate them This collection offers a wide variety of literary forms analytic diaristic art historical and autobiographical all of which Roth has used in her work Collectively these writings form the subject of compelling and unique

Olson in Gloucester Shaw demonstrates how subsequent poets sought to ground such inquiries in concrete social formations to in effect live the poetics of place Gary Snyder in his back to the land familial compound Kitkitdizze Amiri Baraka in a black nationalist community in Newark Robert Creeley and the poets of Bolinas California in the capacious now of their poet run town Turning to the work of Robert Smithson who called one of his essays an appendix to Paterson and who in turn has exerted a major influence on poets since the 1970s Shaw then traces the emergence of site specific art in relation both to the poetics of place and to the larger linguistic turn in the humanities considering poets including Clark Coolidge Bernadette Mayer and Lisa Robertson By putting the poetics of place into dialog with site specificity in art Shaw demonstrates how poets and artists became experimental explicators not just of concrete locations and their histories but of the discourses used to interpret sites more broadly It is this dual sense of fieldwork that organizes Shaw s groundbreaking history of site specific poetry
