Search To Belong Rethinking Intimacy Community And Small Groups:

The Search to Belong Joseph R. Myers, 2011-01-04 A practical guide for those struggling to build a community of believers in a culture that wants to experience belonging over believing Who is my neighbor Who belongs to me To whom do I belong These are timeless questions that guide the church to its fundamental calling Today terms like neighbor family and congregation are being redefined People are searching to belong in new places and experiences The church needs to adapt its interpretations definitions and language to make sense in the changing culture This book equips congregations and church leaders with tools to Discern the key ingredients people look for in community Understand the use of space as a key element for experiencing belonging and community Develop the chemical compound that produces an environment for community to spontaneously emerge Discover how language promotes specific spatial belonging and then use this knowledge to build an effective vocabulary for community development Create an assessment tool for evaluating organizational and personal community health

A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

Outside the Camp Garth Cross, 2017-01-13 If you're looking for a feel good read Outside the Camp is not it If you want joy without lament grace without sin light without darkness or love without pain read something else In fact the wince factor of this book is through the roof and I thought someone ought to warn you But if you want to read something that is profoundly and Biblically true revolutionary and life changing this is it Garth has given Gods people a wonderful gift and I rise up and call him blessed You will too Steve Brown professor author radio show host and leader of Key Life Network I have more thoughts emotions and places your story took me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastors journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of God's favor. The faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected. The book concludes with a consideration of God's intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm.
