Kathryn M. Kalinak, 2007-09-17 James Stewart once said For John Ford there was no need for dialogue The music said it all This lively accessible study is the first comprehensive analysis of Ford's use of music in his iconic westerns Encompassing a variety of critical approaches and incorporating original archival research Kathryn Kalinak explores the director's oft noted predilection for American folk song hymnody and period music What she finds is that Ford used music as more than a stylistic gesture In fascinating discussions of Ford's westerns from silent era features such as Straight Shooting and The Iron Horse to classics of the sound era such as My Darling Clementine and The Searchers Kalinak describes how the director exploited music and especially song in defining the geographical and ideological space of the American West John Wayne's World Russell Meeuf, 2013-09-01 This cultural study examines the significance of John Wayne as a global symbol of masculinity in the mid twentieth century In a film career that spanned five decades John Wayne became a US icon of heroic individualism and rugged masculinity His widespread popularity however was not limited to the United States he was beloved among moviegoers in Asia Africa Latin America and Europe In John Wayne's World Russell Meeuf considers the actor's global popularity and makes the case that Wayne's depictions of masculinity in his most popular films of the 1950s reflected the social disruptions of global capitalism and modernization during that time John Wayne's World places the actor at the center of gender and nation based ideologies opening a dialogue between film history gender studies political and economic history and popular culture Moving chronologically Meeuf provides new readings of the films Fort Apache Red River Hondo The Searchers Rio Bravo and The Alamo and connects Wayne's characters with a modern image of masculinity taking shape after World War II Considering Wayne's international productions such as Legend of the Lost and The Barbarian and the Geisha Meeuf shows how they resonated with US ideological positions about Africa and Asia Meeuf concludes that in his later films Wayne's image shifted to one of grandfatherly nostalgia for the past as his earlier brand of heroic masculinity became incompatible with the changing world of the 1960s and 1970s The Terror Dream Susan

Faludi, 2024-05-01 From the Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and bestselling author of Backlash an unflinching dissection of the mind of America after 9 11 In this most original examination of America's post 9 11 culture Susan Faludi shines a light on the country's psychological response to the attacks on that terrible day Turning her acute observational powers on the media popular culture and political life Faludi unearths a barely acknowledged but bedrock societal drama shot through with baffling contradictions Why she asks did our culture respond to an assault against American global dominance with a frenzied summons to restore traditional manhood marriage and maternity Why did we react as if the hijackers had targeted not a commercial and military edifice but the family home and nursery Why did an attack fueled by hatred of Western emancipation lead us to a regressive fixation on Doris Day womanhood and John Wayne masculinity with trembling security moms swaggering presidential gunslingers and the rescue of a female soldier cast as a helpless little girl The answer Faludi finds lies in a historical anomaly unique to the American experience the nation that in recent memory has been least vulnerable to domestic attack was forged in traumatizing assaults by nonwhite barbarians on town and village That humiliation lies concealed under a myth of cowboy bluster and feminine frailty which is reanimated whenever threat and shame looms In The Terror Dream Faludi provides stunning and depressing evidence of a concerted effort to silence women and roll back women's rights in the wake of 9 11 She brings in a Mack truck's worth of testimony and proof Amy Wilentz Los Angeles Times

Imagining the American West through Film and Tourism Warwick Frost, Jennifer Laing, 2015-06-05 The West is one of the strongest and most enduring place images in the world and its myth is firmly rooted in popular culture whether novels film television music clothing and even video games The West combines myth and history rugged natural scenery and wide open spaces popular culture and promises of transformation These imagined places draw in tourists attracted by a cultural heritage that is part fictional and mediated In turn tourism operators and destination marketing organisations refashion what they present to fit these imagined images This book explores this imagining of a mythic West through three key themes travel film and frontiers to offer new insight into how the imagination of the West and popular culture has influenced the construction of tourism In doing so it examines the series of paradoxes that underlie the basic appeal of the West evocative frontier a boundary zone between civilisation and wilderness and between order and lawlessness It draws on a range of films and literature as well as varying places from festivals to national parks to showcase different aspects of the nexus between travel film and frontiers in this fascinating region Interdisciplinary in character it includes perspectives from cultural studies American studies tourism and film studies Written by leading academics this title will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics in the fields of cultural studies tourism film studies and media studies and all those interested in film tourism narrative that address key social political and ethical components of the Western genre Reading Homer Kostas Myrsiades, 2009 These nine new essays on Homer's epics deal not only with major Homeric themes of time honor kleos fame geras rewards the psychology of Homeric warriors and the re evaluation of type scenes but also with Homer's influence on contemporary film Following the introduction and an essay which sets the historical background for the epics four essays are devoted to fresh analysis of key passages and themes while another four turn to a discussion of the film Troy and Homer's influence on two other genres of American cinema Road Movies D. Orgeron, 2007-12-09 Road Movies engages with two foundational twentieth century technologies cinematic and automotive It is a book about road movies a genre burdened by its own seductiveness It is also however a book about images of human mobility more generally and the social function those images have served Classical Literature on Screen Martin M. Winkler, 2017-09-14 This book examines different affinities between major classical authors and great filmmakers alongside representations of ancient myth and history in popular cinema Fathers and Sons in Cinema Gershon Reiter, 2008-06-02 Popular American films are replete with story lines which involve the father son relationship often as the pivotal conflict or dragon which a hero must overcome to achieve success Sometimes these conflicts are straightforward other times they are projections of the central character's unconscious becoming conscious in essence a modern form of myth These American filmmyths serve as a visual means to project the psyche in an entertaining and easily accessible manner Focusing on mythic structure this volume explores 12 popular movies that deal with various aspects of the father son relationship including the process of becoming a father absent fathers the rite of passage and the turmoil between fathers and adolescents Films examined include The Wizard of Oz Back to the Future Stand By Me Red River City Slickers North by Northwest E T the Extraterrestrial Field of Dreams Lone Star The Lion King Jurassic Park and The Searchers Film Moments James Walters, Tom Brown, 2019-07-25 Film is made of moments In its earliest form the cinema was a moment mere seconds recorded and projected into the darkness Even as film has developed into today's complex and intricate medium it is the brief temporary and transitory that combines to create the whole Our memories of films are composed of the moments we deem to be crucial touchstones for our understanding and appreciation Moments matter The 38 specially commissioned essays in Film Moments examine a wide selection of key scenes across a broad spectrum of national cinemas historical periods and genres featuring films by renowned auteurs including Alfred Hitchcock Jean Renoir and Vincente Minnelli and important contemporary directors such as Pedro Costa Zhang Ke Jia and Quentin Tarantino addressing films including City Lights Gone with the Wind The Wizard of Oz The Night of the Hunter Wild Strawberries 8 1 2 Bonnie and Clyde Star Wars Conte d t United 93 and Lord of the Rings Return of the King Film Moments provides both an enlightening introduction for students to the diversity of approaches and concerns in the study of film and a dynamic and vibrant account of key film sequences for anyone interested in enhancing their understanding of cinema Greek Tragedy on Screen Pantelis Michelakis, 2013-08-29 Greek Tragedy on Screen considers a wide range of films which engage openly with narrative and performative aspects of Greek tragedy This volume situates these films within the context of on going debates in film criticism and reception theory in relation to theoretical or critical readings of tragedy in contemporary culture Michelakis argues that film adaptations of Greek tragedy need to be placed between the promises of cinema for a radical popular culture and the divergent cultural practices and realities of commercial films art house films silent cinema and films for television home video and DVD In an age where the boundaries between art and other forms of cultural production are constantly intersected and reconfigured the appeal of Greek tragedy for the screen needs to be related to the longing it triggers for origins and authenticity as well as to the many uncertainties such as homelessness violence and loss of identity with which it engages The films discussed include not only critically recognized films by directors such Michael Cacoyannis Jules Dassin and Pier Paolo Pasolini but also more recent films by Woody Allen Tony Harrison Werner Herzog and Lars von Trier Moreover it also considers earlier and largely neglected films of cinematic traditions which lie outside Hollywood
