is so present to the life of the believer that men are meant to share her life as life does air This sharing of Mary's life enables Christ to make of us new Nazareths where she shall yet conceive new Bethlehems and be born Mary is the air we breathe But wait a minute what on earth can this mean This woman is a finite creature who came into being and existed precisely in the common mode and manner of all creatures How can she possibly encompass us to such a degree that her life becomes our life She's not God she's a human being like us Isn't this sheer poetic excess Perhaps this is so Or perhaps Catherine and Hopkins know something we don't about the Blessed Virgin Mary That's what this book is about Mary's role the Marian air and why we must breathe it or perish The Searing Mysteries Richard L. Publishing,Bowker,1999-12 The Sacred and the Cinema Sheila J. Nayar,2012-03-29 For more than half a century now scholars have debated over what comprises a genuinely religious film one that evinces an authentic manifestation of the sacred Often these scholars do so by pitting the successful films against those which propagate an inauthentic spiritual experience with the biblical spectacular serving as their most notorious candidate This book argues that what makes a filmic manifestation of the sacred true or authentic may say more about a spectator or critic s particular way of knowing as influenced by alphabetic literacy than it does about the aesthetic or philosophical and sometimes even faith based dimensions of the sacred onscreen Engaging with everything from Hollywood religious spectaculars Hindu mythologicals and an international array of films revered for their transcendental style The Sacred and the Cinema unveils the epistemic pressures at the heart of engaging with the sacred onscreen The book also provides a valuable summation of the history of the sacred as a field of study particularly as that field intersects with film Morning light [afterw.] The New-Church weekly ,1881
